AN OVERDOSE OF SMOOT. An effort is on foot among those Republicans opposed to the domination of the Smoot ring...

The effect is seen in the class of men who secure office and places in the management of the party...

From a Democratic standpoint, the Republican party is getting exactly what is due it.

Now that Smoot has taken to himself the fruits of his activity, some of them have organized the American party...

MR. KIESEL'S PLAN. One most admirable thing about the Hon. Fred J. Kiesel's speech...

Idaho is enjoying the rather remarkable spectacle of a Republican senator attacking a Republican president...

Nelson is probably sorry now that he didn't draw the color line.

Mr. Stensland probably concurs in the exactness of the phrase which speaks of the Algerian native as the "Unspeakeable Turk."

Andrew Carnegie and President Roosevelt do not advocate reformed spelling to the extent of calling it the "steal trust."

It is common for eastern newspapers and writers to class the irrigation appropriations with river and harbor appropriations.

flagrant. The river and harbor bill provides money for improvements to be sure, but not one dollar of it is ever paid back to the government from any source.

In such a case another hundred million would be well loaned, and Mr. Kiesel did well to voice his convictions and direct attention to the wisdom of his opinions.

JUDGED BY HIS ENEMIES.

As was to be expected, the New York papers which profess to be Democratic between elections, but which usually support Republican principles when the nominations are made...

Miss Mildred Ott entertained yesterday at an afternoon affair for Miss Mary Roberts of Ogden...

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Tarvin Harris will entertain at a box party...

Judge and Mrs. Morris L. Ritchie and their children are home from Europe...

The piano recital which was to have been given this evening by Miss Ella Dyer is postponed till tomorrow night.

A number of small parties enjoyed the table d'hote luncheon at the Country club yesterday...

Miss Hilda Greeson entertained yesterday afternoon for Miss Mamie Hines.

Mrs. Percival O. Perkins will entertain at a tea on Friday afternoon.

Mrs. W. P. Kiefer gives a luncheon today at the Country club...

Miss Lucille Clark has gone to Ogden to be the guest for a short time of Miss Armstrong.

Miss Bessie Williamson will entertain today at a luncheon in honor of Miss Myra Sowles.

Mrs. A. B. Witche entertained a few of her girl friends yesterday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Chester W. O'Neil.

Mrs. Ezra Thompson and her son Lynn left yesterday morning for the east...

Mrs. N. M. Hamilton sails from Liverpool within a day or so and will be home about the middle of the month.

D. H. Peery has returned from a visit of some ten days to Goldfield and vicinity.

Miss Gertrude Shannon entertained a party of her friends yesterday at a birthday affair at her home on Johnson street.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Pratt of Provo are in town visiting friends for a few days.

Miss Margaret Dubois of New York will be in town today and will be one of the corps of Rowland hall teachers for the next year.

Mrs. E. D. Woodruff and the children came home from Silver Lake yesterday.
