SLAUGHTER OF RUSSIAN JEWS

Soldiers Wreak Vengeance for Killing of Two Comrades by the Terrorists.

MANY KILLED OR WOUNDED

BRITISH VICE CONSUL ATTACKED AT BAKU.

Siedice, Russian Poland, Sept. 9.—A massacre of police and soldiers began at 8 o'clock Saturday night. Immediately afterwards the troops attacked the Jews.

All today the soldiers have attacked civilians, Christians or Jews, robbing and murdering them without discrimination. Hundreds of persons were killed or wounded. The streets were devastated.

It is reported that drunken reservists started the massacre.

Troops have surrounded the city and refuse access to it.

Warsaw, Sept. 9.—Terrorists Saturday evening shot and killed two soldiers guarding a government alcohol store at Siedice. A detachment of infantry rushed up and fired a volley into the crowd, killing two persons and wounding two.

This morning the terrorists retaliated by beginning a massacre of policemen and soldiers patrolling the street and at noon the infuriated troops attacked the Jewish quarters of Siedice, destroying the houses and shops. It is reported that over 100 persons were killed or wounded, and that the town is in flames.

A regiment of infantry has been sent from Deila and Siedice to restore order.

The Jews here are panic-stricken. Alarming reports are being circulated in the city.

Baku, Sept. 9.—Leslie Urquhart, the British vice-consul here, who was decorated by King Edward for heroism in rescuing English sailors at Balaklava from Tartar insurgents during the massacres of 1905, and who is one of the most prominent men in the oil region, was the victim of a serious attack last night in the center of the city. He was miraculously escaped death. Though he was fired at eight times at short range, his only injuries were six slight flesh wounds. The motive for the crime has not been established, but it is believed to be a revolutionary act patterned after the attack on German ambassador Mr. Frothingham on the life of Governor General Skalon.

Urquhart Unarmed. Mr. Urquhart, who was unarmed, was driving in his carriage 7 o'clock Saturday evening, when a shot was fired from the pavement, the bullet passing through the center of his carriage. Immediately a second assailant leaped from the crowd to the top of the carriage and fired a bullet which struck Mr. Urquhart in the chest. Mr. Urquhart, who is tall and strongly built, jumped up to grapple with his assailant, but the latter, throwing him violently to the pavement, where he lay half stunned. His assailant then fired a second shot, which struck him in the forehead. He was then shot through the chest and two other shots from his automatic revolver at the prostrate body, four of them going through the vital organs. Urquhart was able to rise and pursue the man who had attacked him, but he escaped in the crowd. Mr. Frothingham was undressed and examined. It was found that he had been grazed five times on the abdomen and wounded on the hand.

CONFIDENCE IN STOLYPIN.

Octoberist Leader Approves Program of the Premier.

Moscow, Sept. 9.—In the course of an interview today Alexander Gutchkoff, the Octoberist leader, gave his approval to the general policy of the cabinet, declaring, adding that the court-martials are a cruel necessity when a virtual state of war exists in a part of the country. Mr. Gutchkoff compared the conditions existing in Russia with those at San Francisco after the recent earthquake there, where looting and brigandage were rampant. "I must say," said Mr. Gutchkoff, "that I have the greatest confidence in Premier Stolypin. There never was a more capable and talented man in power in Russia. I believe in the honesty of his intentions and hope he will be able to carry out his program in spite of the opposition close to the throne."

MAINE ELECTION

REPUBLICANS EXPECT TO CARRY THE PINE TREE STATE BY A REDUCED PLURALITY.

On Tuesday, Sept. 11, the convention of the Independence league of New York state will be called to order in New York City. The sessions will last two days. The league may or may not nominate a full state ticket, sentiment being divided as to the wisdom of placing an entire ticket in the field. Some of the delegates favor nominations for governor and lieutenant governor only. It is regarded as a certainty that William M. Cobb will be selected by the league to stand as its candidate for chief executive of the state.

CONVENTION OF CONNECTICUT DEMOCRATS.

On Tuesday, Sept. 11, the convention of the Independence league of New York state will be called to order in New York City. The sessions will last two days. The league may or may not nominate a full state ticket, sentiment being divided as to the wisdom of placing an entire ticket in the field. ## Maine Election Tuesday.

On the eve of the Maine state election, the political leaders of both parties feel that uncertainty exists to an unusual degree throughout the state, and many surprises are looked for Monday when the ballots shall have been counted. Two of Maine's most popular Republicans stand out especially in the element of uncertainty—governor William M. Cobb and Congressman Charles E. Littlefield—both of whom are residents of Rockland, and both of whom are active in the campaign on purely state issues, but the candidacy of the latter has been given wide prominence on account of the fact that he has been opposed by Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, who has made many speeches in Littlefield's district in the last three weeks.

Reduced Plurality.

Republican leaders are quoted as admitting that, largely because of the operation of the so-called Sturgis liquor law, the state ticket will probably not have a plurality exceeding 25,000, while for nearly a decade the Republican plurality has been in excess of 25,000.

On Wednesday the Prohibitionists of Maryland will meet at Laurel. Also on Wednesday the graduation exercises of the naval academy at Annapolis will take place.

Lively Fight in Ohio.

Although the Republican state convention which meets at Dayton, O. Tuesday is held for the nomination of candidates for secretary of state and other state offices, the contest is being fought for reelection as chairman of the state committee. Notwithstanding the fact that he was defeated in his home county, Senator Dick possesses full confidence in his own success.

However, Harry Daugherty and Congressman Burnett expressed their confidence in the success of the fight against the retention of Senator Dick. The endorsement of both President Roosevelt and the Ohio representatives, notwithstanding their differences over various matters of legislation at Washington, is a strong endorsement of the party. Others are equally insistent that the president be ignored or at most given a merely perfunctory resolution of commendation.

NEW YORK'S THIRD PARTY

Statement Given Out by Executive Committee of the Independence League.

New York, Sept. 9.—The executive committee of the Independence league made a statement today relative to the prospective action of the league convention and the discussion of fusion with other organizations, in which it said: "The question of fusion with any party has not originated with the league, although the league would naturally welcome the support of any individual citizen or any group of citizens, or any convention of citizens which chose to work with it and accomplish the objects that it has been formed to accomplish. It is not the place of the independence league to make overtures for co-operation, but it could not well refuse to consider them if they were made to it in good faith and for the purpose of accomplishing its objects. We are informed that a memorial is being circulated among Democratic delegates addressed to the Independence league and formally requesting such co-operation. Of course, the memorial, if submitted, will receive at least respectful consideration. The action of the league, however, cannot be forecasted. Doubtless that action will be dependent upon whether the proposed co-operation expressed fully the principles of the league and contemplated the nomination of men who will clearly represent and permanently maintain those principles."

TIRE OF BRITISH RULE.

CONSENSUE, SAYS GENERAL TORRES

Mexican Officer Does Not Take Stock in Sensational Tales of Revolution.

El Paso, Tex., Sept. 9.—A special to the Herald from a staff correspondent sent to Douglas, Ariz., to meet General Luis Torres, commander of the Mexican military zone embracing the states of Sonora, Sinaloa and Lower California, declares the general calls all the sensational revolutionary talk "nonsense" and says: "The money has no influence and are simply wretched rascals who have fled from Mexico to escape their own crimes."

GOVERNMENT NOT SCARED

MAY BE THE WORK OF BIG CORPORATION.

"There is a feeling of unrest, I admit, in northwestern Mexico, just as there is a feeling similar in southwestern United States, and nobody knows the cause. Perhaps there is some big corporation behind it all, but thus far the revolutionists have no money and the Mexican government is giving itself to concern, except to take such precautions as the United States or any other country would."

DETECTIVE RAN HIM DOWN

Absconding Short Line Ticket Seller of Boise Captured in San Francisco.

Boise, Idaho, Sept. 9.—Detective Joe Jones of the Short Line has arrived here with V. L. Burns, whom he captured in San Francisco after a long chase. Burns was employed in the Short Line ticket office here from June 29 to July 15. He then resigned and left. It was found by the auditor there was a shortage of $220, and Jones was asked to investigate. He found leaving here Burns worked three weeks for the Southern Pacific at Wells, Nev., and Nevada and back to California, being caught in San Francisco on September 4. Burns came from Brighton, Colo., where he has a family.

Former Agent in Jail.

A former agent of the Short Line at Arco, in this state, has been landed in jail here. His name is L. J. Johnson. He left two weeks ago, giving the keys of the office to a saloonkeeper. Before going to the office he had a question with Ely, who had been arrested. Ely had started down the well with the intention of cleaning it, when he was overcome, falling to the bottom, a distance of three hundred feet. When he fell himself gone Ely yelled, and Fogarty at once responded to Ely's cry for help, but he, too, was soon overcome when he fell to the bottom. Mehar, unaware of the presence of gas, attempted to descend to the rescue of his friends, and had gotten down but a few rungs of the ladder when he also fell to the bottom of the well. All the bodies were recovered after several hours' work, applying hooks and machinery to bring the remains to the surface.

HEARST SHOUTER IS HEARD

Albany, N. Y., Sept. 9.—Still withholding any intimations as to his own attitude on the subject of a renomination, Governor Higgins tonight, through his secretary, Frank E. Perley, issued a statement in which he warns the Republicans in New York to keep their feet on the ground to the old system of boss control. He makes references to alleged bosses whom he does not name, "without whose assistance," he says, "the voters could not elect last winter administered public affairs. He declares the party in this state has abandoned its capable, loyal, honest men, any one of whom will, if nominated, carry the state by upward of 100,000 plurality, against frothy demonstrations of superior virtue and insincere promises of impossible regimes."

JEALOUS HUSBAND'S DEED.

Pittsburg, Pa., Sept. 9.—Lawrence E. Cook, member of the Pennsylvania legislature from the Fourth district, who was renominated by the Republican party yesterday, was today fatally stabbed by Andrew MacMillan, a justice of the peace and a wealthy resident of Carnegie. MacMillan was arrested and held without bail.

DISAGREES WITH BRYAN.

John Sharp Williams Against Government Ownership of Railways.

Richmond, Va., Sept. 9.—The Times-Dispatch today telegraphed John Sharp Williams, minority leader in congress, at Yazoo City, Miss., for an expression of his views on Bryan's plans for government ownership of railways, receiving from Mr. Williams the following: "I am opposed to government ownership of railways, irrevocably, now and forever, in theory and in practice—a question concerning which Mr. Bryan and I agree to disagree. But I see no good to be attained by my rushing into print on the subject. We will simply vote it down if offered as a plank of the Democratic platform. Meanwhile let us not magnify Democratic differences. There are so many things we are agreed upon—let us magnify them. Push them to the front if we can. Bryan is not infallible and does not pretend to be. He is right about so many things, eloquently and greatly right, but absolutely and altogether wrong about this one thing, especially from the standpoint of racial peace and quietness of the south. Let us strongly regulate railroad rates, but not operate railroads."

UNSAFABLE LUMBER.

Macon, Ga., Sept. 9.—Lumbermen in this city in conference declare that the routing out of short leaf pine lumber in the northern and eastern cities caused millions of feet of lumber to be piled in worthless unsalable even at $3 and $5 a hundred feet under regular prices. As a consequence at least 1,000 mills in Georgia, Alabama and Florida are affected, many of which will be closed until there is a revocation of the ruling.

CONVENTION AT HONOLULU.

TROOP TRAIN

Cuban Government Soldiers Immediately Attacked by Guerrera's Band.

TIMELY ARRIVAL OF HELP

MACHINE GUNS USED ON THE INSURGENTS.

Havana, Sept. 9.—Government, military and railroad officials and the newspaper correspondents were thrown into a state of excitement this evening by men who arrived here from Paso Real with stories that the armored train which left Havana Friday had met with various obstacles beyond Herradura, had been thrown from the tracks and its 200 men, machine guns, horses and equipment captured. As these tales were confirmed by the Western railroad authorities, the news from Paso Real, they were believed to be true until authentic reports of actual occurrences were wired by those who had returned to Paso Real from the front.

The real facts of the case are that Colonel Avalos, who was believed to be surrounded in Pinar del Rio City, and the armored train made a junction east of Consolacion del Sur, and the government forces to that extent are improved. The news of this fact caused much relief in official circles.

Insurgents Driven Off.

The train proceeded Saturday evening from Paso Real to two and a third miles east of Consolacion del Sur, at which point the train had been stopped and replaced a locomotive and three cars which had been thrown from the track. The insurgents attacked the train, but were driven off by the two machine guns handled by the American Captain Webster.

It is believed that many insurgents were killed, but no number is known. Meanwhile a large portion of Colonel Avalos' force had come eastward from Pinar del Rio for the purpose of making a junction with the machine gun corps. At Consolacion del Sur their advance was disputed by a large band of insurgents, and a lively battle was fought. The insurgents were driven off and several of them were killed or wounded. Avalos and his men continued their march, and this morning and made a junction, first with the cavalry force of Captain Ravenna, which is scouting ahead, and finally with the dismounted infantry. The train has not been molested since the junction was effected, but the bridge over the Santa Clara river, which was destroyed by the insurgents, was blown up today, together with two smaller ones, preventing the use of the road beyond Herradura.

Trains Cannot Move.

As the bridges westward near Puerto Gopeo have been destroyed, no trains can operate from Pinar del Rio City in either direction. Both the railroad and the telegraph line continue in use to Paso Real.

Tonight 25 men and four machine guns, commanded by Lieutenant Colonel Clews, started for the front. The news of this force was hastened by the false news of a disaster.

Awaiting the Outcome.

There is some alarm in Havana on account of the nearness to the city of several hundred men of the insurgent forces of Asbert, Loynaz and Castillo, some of whom are often seen in the hills at Jesus del Monte, in the southern extremity of the island.

Intimations received from these bands are to the effect that they are merely content to wait for the forces of the government, practically all the insurgents in the provinces of Havana and Santa Clara having ceased operations for the present. In accordance with the tentative agreement with the peace commissioners, the fourth week of the rebellion opens with the government forces better equipped and improved in discipline, but enlistments are slow. President Palma's action in calling a special session of congress is being watched with interest. Many persons believe that no good purpose will be served by a discussion of the causes of the war and of peace proposals by the congress.

Veterans Hopeful.

The veterans' peace committee continues hopeful of being able to persuade Pino Guerrero to cease activities temporarily and possibly inducing him to come to Havana to discuss the question of peace, but the attitude of the leading liberals continues to preclude hopes of an immediate cessation of hostilities. The fourth week of the rebellion opens with the government forces better equipped and improved in discipline, but enlistments are slow.
