CHILDREN NEWS.

Office, 2484 Washington Avenue.

Ogden, Wednesday, Oct. 3.

ATTORNEY SKEEN GETS BUSY

Some of the Officials of Weber County May Be Summoned to Appear in Court.

The residents of Ogden are promised a sensation which will affect a number of county officials, and probably remove them from office under similar charges to those preferred against the city councilmen. Attorney J. D. Skeen is the man who will likely play the leading role in the movement and his batteries will probably be directed against the county commissioners and possibly some of the other county officials. Mr. Skeen has had this matter under consideration for some time, but on account of the premature publication of some of the records which will probably be used by the prosecution, it has been brought to a head sooner than expected. Mr. Skeen refused to either affirm or deny the truth of the reports. It is said, however, that he has been examining the records of the county offices recently with a view of locating the irregularities upon which to base his accusation.

The quality of the tomatoes is said to be better than any grown elsewhere in the western country.

Demands Are Granted.

The result of the demand of the Machinists' union on the entire Harriman system seems to have been granted, and will mean an increase from 37 to 40 cents per hour. It is expected that the increase will be granted on Oct. 15. On account of the demand being made on all of the master mechanics at the same time, the move was considered one of the largest ever manipulated at one time.

A BURGLAR THAT WAS NOT.

But Three Ogden Gentlemen Proved Their Bravery, Just the Same.

Ogden is smiling. Judge J. A. Howell, R. A. Moyea and F. L. Chapin are the cause, and a housewife and grocer's clerk at every step—that's the effect. The three men mentioned were returning from the club last evening and, when deep in their discussion of graft in politics and other worn-out topics, they noticed the door of Shaw's store, next to the club, wide open. Now Ogden is an open town, but not in the dry goods line. At least so Judge Howell started to explain when his comrades headed his burst of wit off. Thinking something wrong, the trio crept on tiptoe toward the open door. Judge Howell muttered something about open door and protection while reaching for his hip pocket. "Don't shoot unless you have to," warned Mr. Moyea. "I won't," answered Judge Howell, pulling a handkerchief from his pocket. Summoning up all courage, the trio finally entered the store. Bank books and other books were scattered about the floor. "A robbery," gasped the trio, peering anxiously into the dark corners.

It is reported that Mayor E. M. Conroy has signed the water franchise. The agreement or contract between the city and the company has been made and a signed copy of the franchise has also been filed, and it is expected that this will put a quietus to the waterworks question for some time to come. This matter has been agitated here for at least five years, and the news of the settlement will be pleasing to many.

FAKE FACTORY IS RUNNING

Not a Word of Truth in the Stories Regarding Revolutionists in Mexico.

Laredo, Tex., Oct. 2.—Rumors without the slightest foundation in fact have been circulated to the effect that a band of revolutionists are in the neighborhood of Columbia, Mexico, and are approaching Nuevo Laredo. Senator Lonell, the Mexican consul here, stated to the Associated Press tonight that he had a personal investigation of affairs in Nuevo Laredo and had caused telegrams to be sent to Columbia. In both cities everything is quiet, and there is no indication of impending trouble. In regard to a rumor today that 300 armed revolutionists are approaching Nuevo Laredo, the consul points out that it would be impossible for them to do so along the border roads, which are well patrolled with troops, and that in the event they made a detour through the interior of the country they would likewise encounter cavalry troops. He belittles the idea of a revolution, and says the number constituting the lawless gang has been greatly exaggerated; that not more than thirty malcontents are to be counted upon.

MONEY FOR THE LIBRARY

Appropriation of $2,000 Is Made—Building During Past Nine Months.

An appropriation of $2,000 was ordered by the city council last night for the benefit of the library fund. Members of the library board reported to the council that there was a balance of only $155 in the library fund. "We are getting down to bedrock," said Fernstrom. "If we must be here in the general fund? An overdraft of $175,000. Pretty soon we will find that this is getting close to home. There won't be any salary for us pretty soon." "We'll get out," said Mulvey. "You bet you will," retorted Fernstrom amid a laugh. The report of Building Inspector Gamble for the last nine months' business was read. The report showed that during the last three months 182 building permits had been issued, and that the estimated value of the buildings for which these permits were issued was $87,450. During the last nine months, 527 permits had been issued, and the estimated value of the buildings was $1,577,500. The receipts for that period had been $1,387,300. The Civic Improvement league asked the council to appropriate $1,000 to secure the services of Mulvey, Charles Robinson of Rochester, N. Y., to prepare a plan to beautify the city. The league also requested that the council and explain the matter in detail. The letter was signed by Elmer I. Goshen, Mrs. L. M. Bailey and D. H. Christensen. It was referred to the municipal law committee. The city auditor was instructed to prepare and furnish a statement of the financial condition of the city for the last nine months, showing receipts and disbursements from all funds. The following special policemen were appointed by Chief of Police George A. Sheets, and the appointments were confirmed: B. A. Taylor, George Houston, B. H. Coulson, Robert Neilson, H. Madsen, Oscar Emen, Richard Meloy, H. A. White, Frank Jordan, James D. Lareau and Irvine, Brigham Maxwell, William Goodsell, G. C. Hunting and Alma D. Clayton.
