Who Is Your Jeweler

Let a stranger ask one hundred people of Salt Lake who is the leading jeweler in your city, and ninety per cent of them would answer "LEYSON'S." (The other ten per cent were probably never in a local jewelry store.)

Why? Because we have modernized continually with the times, and people like modern conveniences and modern merchandise.

We have the only jewelry store in the city that should not be compared to the mule-drawn street car era of Salt Lake.

Leyson's name on a jewelry box signifies reliability and an assurance that whatever is in the box is up-to-date and bought at one price to all.

Christmas is coming and you want a toilet set. In anticipation of this we offer this week 25 handsomely designed large size quadruple plated 3-piece brush sets, consisting of mirror, hair brush and comb, in cloth lined box, for $5.00 each. See if any other jeweler can sell you as good a one for less than $8.00.

This is merely a leader to get you interested. We want you to come in and see the most exquisite stock of high class Jewelry Watches, Diamonds and Diamond goods ever shown in Utah.

Leyson's Brand of Goods is a Guarantee of Quality.

Mrs. A. Lambert was operated on last Saturday at the L. D. S. hospital and is getting along nicely. Miss Nan Butterfield of Salt Lake spent Wednesday in camp visiting Mrs. Guy Millar. Will Clyde and sister, Miss Clyde, left Thursday for their home in Springfield. The members of the L. D. S. church delightfully surprised N. C. Hair and family Thursday evening at the L. D. S. meeting house. Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Fenkel entertained at a Halloween party on the night of the 31st, whilst being the feature of the evening. The rooms were beautifully decorated in American Beauty roses and chrysanthemums, the rooms being lighted by Jack-o-lanterns. Dainty prizes were awarded Mrs. R. N. Gipson and Mr. Andrew Johnson, while Mrs. J. Ostler and Mr. Ross Johnson carried off second, after which an elaborate lunch was served to about twenty guests. Then the ghosts walked, declaring Mr. and Mrs. Fenkel royal entertainers.

PROVO.

Mrs. A. L. Woodhouse delightfully entertained at a "Dutch" social at her home Friday evening. The rooms were appropriately decorated for the occasion. Miss Hattie Pike, who assisted in the entertaining, was dressed as a Dutch maid. Five hundred was the game played and enjoyed by about thirty guests. Mrs. Murry Twelves and Phil Speckart won the prizes. An elaborate Dutch lunch was served.

Miss Emma Dougall of Springville was the guest of Miss Essie Hildfield this week. A very successful Halloween party was given Wednesday evening at the old "Hannberg" castle by the members of the Sixth ward sewing class. No more appropriate place could have been selected than the old castle, which seems to be filled with romance. The rooms were lighted by Jack-o-lanterns. The evening was one of fun and merriment. Robert Birkin of Salt Lake City and Francis Tyng of American Fork were the guests of Harry Gease Wednesday and Thursday.

Mrs. George Craig returned home Friday after a brief visit with friends in Portland, Ore. Mrs. Will Lee has returned from a month's visit with her sister, Mrs. George Storrs, at Beckwith, Cal. The above invitation was answered by about thirty "ghosts and goblins" who made the hours pass merrily with their hostess, Miss Mary Jones, at her home Wednesday evening. Lunch was served. Miss Iona Knight was the charming young hostess at a Halloween party Wednesday evening given at the home of her

POPULAR VOCALIST RETURNS.

Mrs. Effie Dean Knappen, who formerly lived here and who has recently been teaching in San Francisco and Seattle, has returned to this city and opened her studio at 600 Templeton Building. Mrs. Knappen's methods as a voice builder have been very successful wherever she has located, and she now combines physical development with her musical work. Her beautiful contralto voice will be a decided addition to musical circles in Salt Lake.

served and a most delightful evening was passed by about fifty young people. The freshmen of the Brigham Young university gave a very enjoyable social in College hall Friday evening to which all freshmen and their partners were invited. A pleasant evening was passed and a dainty lunch served. "Ghosts and goblins, come on time, dressed in pillow cases and sheets, to shine, and in mysteries you may delve until the clock is striking twelve." The above invitation was answered by about thirty "ghosts and goblins" who made the hours pass merrily with their hostess, Miss Mary Jones, at her home Wednesday evening. Lunch was served. Miss Iona Knight was the charming young hostess at a Halloween party Wednesday evening given at the home of her
