SEASON OPENS AND LOCALS LOSE

Soldiers Trim Dube's Lads by Score of 13 to 8—Pitchers Sent to Woods.

The first baseball game of the season saw the first defeat of the season for the home team. This announcement will not shock the nerves of Salt Lake fans, because they are used to it. It was not Oden, Eureka or an imported team with a line-up of high-priced stars that turned the trick, but just the soldiers. The score might have been worse; it was bad enough—13 to 8.

The street car strike did not bother the thirty-third degree fans, and some of the old-timers who are at every game were there to see the start. Perhaps in all a thousand hooped it to Walker's field.

The soldiers won because they played better ball in every department than the locals. Fatter Dube's boys played ragged ball and showed plainly the lack of practice. The game failed to develop any promising arm among the new members of the team.

Loring, in the box for the soldiers, had the locals faded until the fourth, when they threatened three hits. He then kept them scattered until the ninth, when a batting rally let in another bunch of the men.

Ahern started out for Salt Lake, but was wild, extremely so. He was taken out in the fourth and Anderson was given a try. Anderson was also wild at the start, but settled down after the game was hopelessly lost, and in the last couple of innings had the soldiers swinging wide of the mark.

The game lacked any sensational plays and was devoid of any fast and snappy infield work. Both teams piled up errors, but the locals not only bled the ball, but took advantage of several occasions to throw it away. The score:

FINUCANE TO MEET HYLAND

Pair Matched to Scrap Twenty Rounds in Ogden on May 17.

(Special to The Herald.)—Ogden, April 28.—"Billy" Finucane of Chicago telegraphed to Harry Pattison of this city today, stating that he would agree to meet "Fighting" Dick Hyland here next month in a twenty-round contest, according to the terms offered by Pattison, a few days ago. Finucane's transportation will be sent tomorrow in order that the Chicagoan may arrive here in plenty of time to train properly for the bout. The match will be pulled off at the Auditorium on the evening of May 17, and should be one of the best events of the kind ever given in Ogden. Finucane is looked upon as one of the tough propositions. He has gone up against such men as Rauch, Memphis, O'Keefe, Forbes, Goodwin and O'Leary and has always given a good account of himself. It is expected that one of the little fellows will do their training in Ogden and the other in Salt Lake. The promoters of the contest promise to make the attraction a winner without regard to expense. Hyland and his manager have been in Ogden for a week arranging for a match. The former says he never felt better in his life and certainly looks the champion. As soon as the final arrangements have been made he will go into training for the event.

Court Tennis Champion Agrees to Defend His Title.

London, April 28.—Eustace H. Miles, the holder of the court tennis championship, has reconsidered his decision not to defend his title, and says that owing to pressure from friends he will now, if no objection is offered, do his best to defend the championship. He is playing the winner of the semi-final round of the tournament now in progress, next Saturday or Monday. The semi-final is to be played Friday, and the winner of it, by reason of Miles' default, was to be declared champion. Jay Gould, the American player, who has reached the semi-final stage, in an interview today expressed considerable annoyance at this sudden change in Miles' plans. He said he came here expressly to meet Miles, but as the champion declines to play, he has accepted the situation and arranged to leave England immediately after the last game is played next Friday. This new situation would upset all his plans. He had not yet made up his mind whether he would meet Miles, and would take a week to ponder on the question.

ROY CASTLETON GOES TO ATLANTA

Roy Castleton goes to Atlanta this season. This announcement is made by Castleton in a letter received yesterday. Salt Lake fans who have watched the career of Castleton, and who would like to have seen him say on the New York American this year, should bear in mind that the former of Castleton to Atlanta does not by any means indicate that the young Salt Lake southpaw has failed to make good. Last year Castleton pitched with Youngstown, Ohio, in a class D league. This season he goes to Atlanta in a class A league, a jump from the lowest class to the highest class in the National association, and only a league behind the two major organizations. This, in itself, is quite a jump for a youngster twenty years of age, and the fact that Castleton has held on to him for two months shows he has a good opinion of the Salt Lake boy.

Here is what Castleton says: "Well, things have turned out as I told you they would in my former letter and today Clark Griffith told me I needed more experience, so he let me go to Atlanta. I am not a bit sorry, because I could see myself that I didn't have enough experience to play with these fellows. I really feel better now because I will be in the games down south, where I can learn a great deal more this summer, and if I had been carried on the bench for New York I would not have had a chance to get baseball experience, which I really need. Griffith still owns the major league salary for five months playing. He told me many things today which I know will greatly help me out. Tom Hughes was sent to Montreal and I leave for Atlanta tomorrow. The members of the team certainly treated me fine while I was with them."

EUREKA SOCKERS ARE READY FOR TRAP TOURNAMENT

(Special to The Herald.)—Eureka, April 28.—A howl went up from the ranks of the Eureka socker artists when word was received from Salt Lake late Friday that the socker team representing that city would not fulfill its engagement and play Eureka on the Summit grounds today. The players state that this is in line with the usual treatment they received at the hands of the players from the capital. On Saturday, the 13th inst., Eureka traveled to Salt Lake to play the Mormons, and it was thoroughly understood that the game was to be played in some enclosure, where admission could be secured. The players were given a good chance, however, of getting a few dollars toward expenses. Not only did the Zionites fail to send a representative to the train to meet the miners, but twenty-five minutes before the game the boys from the hills did not understand where the game was to be played. Although the Tower grounds, where the Salt Lakers practice, are good grounds, yet the fact that they are away out in the desert keeps many from attending the game. The players think that there is no chance of picking up any gate receipts.

During the past week Eureka has gone through an expense in advertising and putting the grounds in shape and also repairing the fences and grand-stand. The boys went ahead on the strength of a letter received from P. A. Sneddon, secretary of the Saints, which states: "You can go ahead and advertise as league championship, and we will come on the train to give you a very good reception. We are 60 per cent of the receipts to the winner and 40 to the loser." It has cost the miners a very tidy sum to prepare for this game and they are consequently red-eyed, because when they say they will do anything they, as a rule, are prepared to carry it out. Mr. P. A. Sneddon of the loc's socker team said last evening that one reason the Salt Lakers did not go to Eureka yesterday was that they could not get a team together and another was that arrangements had been made for an excursion to Eureka on May 5, through a mistake, thinking the game would be played on that date.

SEASON'S SPORTS OUTLOOK GOOD

Many Prominent Features Are Scheduled for Near Future.

New York, April 28.—The season of field and track sports, amateur and professional, for 1907, will be fairly well under way with the coming of the present week. All the larger colleges looked to participate in the annual rowing regatta to be held June 28, and subsequent races. The baseball season of the major leagues has progressed far enough to permit the followers of this popular sport to size up the chances of their favorites in the pennant race, and the yachts will break out their sails to early May breezes. Interest in horse racing centers in the metropolitan tracks, upon which will be run all the established races.

College crews are all about now working hard for the Foulke cup regatta to be held June 28, and subsequent races. Yale's green crew is making vigorous efforts to get into shape for the match with the midshipmen at Annapolis next Saturday. The navy boat has but two men in it.

Miss Annette Kellerman, the world's champion woman swimmer, will arrive in New York during the week and will give exhibitions in various cities. It is not improbable that a race between the Australian woman and Miss Ellaline Golding will be held at the Long Beach, N. Y., will be arranged.

The rules and conditions of the Vanderbilt automobile race on Long Island, the blue ribbon race for motorists, will be announced May 15.

The English turf will again see Richard Croker's stable on the famous tracks this season. Croker has sent a string of horses across the Irish channel with Orby, a grandson of Flying Fox, who won the Derby in 1859, and who is expected to win the Derby this year.

St. Louis, April 28.—The St. Louis Americans won both games of a double-header with Cleveland today, the first by a score of 3 to 0 and the second by a score of 2 to 1. St. Louis' victories were due to the pitching of Powell and Howell. Howell allowed Cleveland but two hits in the second game and those were in the first inning. Score: R. H. E.
