

'PHONE STRIKE SPREADING OUT

Executive Committee Divides Itself Into Subdivisions of Three Each.

INDEPENDENT IMPORTS MEN SERVICES NOT YET AFFECTED BY WALKOUT.

The chief developments in the strike of linemen and electricians employed by the Bell and Independent companies are these: The Independent company has made arrangements to import men from Colorado to take the places of strikers; these men, says General Manager Jones, will be non-union.

Independent to Import Men. Elmer B. Jones, general manager of the Utah Independent Telephone company, said: "We expect to bring in non-union men from Colorado. Tomorrow we expect three, the day after four, and from that time forward men will arrive here in numbers sufficient to bring the total of employees up to the point where it was before the present walkout. We expect no trouble."

Men Are in Earnest. President Lynn said that the men in the district seem to be determined to proceed under the present conditions. He said that the grand officers manifestly failed in their duty and that he and the men had held off as long as they deem safe—they could not sacrifice the interests of the districts, he said, because the grand officers failed in their duty.

Yesterday Mr. Lynn received a telegram from President P. McNulty saying that Vice President Sullivan was sick and that a grand officer would be here before June 15. Mr. McNulty advised Deputy "The men," said Mr. Lynn, "have voted to sustain the action taken by us. That support was conferred by a vote of 96-5—the vote was taken at the direction of the president. Mr. McNulty promised to be here when the returns were made. He is not here; what are we going to do about it?"

New Executive Committee. The enlarged executive committee of the union is: J. R. Currie, chairman; M. T. Roberts, secretary; S. A. Birkhous, G. G. Whitaker, Fred Tudhope, W. P. Ramsey, John Knott. This committee will divide itself into three subdivisions, one of which committees will be in the house at all times between 8 and 5 o'clock. The meetings are open to all who are affected by the strike, whether they are members of the local or not.

"We have received word today," said Mr. Lynn, "from a number of the district locals. The telegrams say that our strike order is being obeyed to the man. Tomorrow reports will begin to arrive giving me detailed information."

President Lynn's Circular. "On May 21 I again went before company officials after having received returns on vote called for by Grand President F. J. McNulty. The result of this vote was 154 yes and 6 no. Informing the company of the result and further informing Mr. Murray that we were there to settle this difficulty if the company saw fit to grant our demands throughout the entire district, and, on the other hand, if the company refused to grant these demands, we were there to inform him that throughout the entire district would be put in execution. If, however, they answer was the same then as ever—that no increase in wages would be granted, and that we were to be informed of any action met with their approval, thereby making this a district fight, I have made a stand for the entire district, and as far as No. 37 is concerned, no settlement will be made until

All Locals Notified. "I then at once notified all local unions by telegraph, advising them as to action taken, also asking them to call all men out if our action met with their approval, thereby making this a district fight. I have made a stand for the entire district, and as far as No. 37 is concerned, no settlement will be made until

Salt Lake Teachers Have Varied Plans for Vacations

Many Will Go to Pacific Coast and Attend the Convention at Los Angeles.

While the real workers of the world are all planning a way to spend their holiday season, perhaps no class is more concerned with the "good old summer time" than are the teachers in the public schools of the country. Salt Lake teachers to the number of over 40 are already looking forward to this period of rest and recreation and many have plans perfected for the coming summer.

The Pacific coast will take an unusually large percentage of the present season, owing doubtless to the meeting of the National Educational association, which will be held in Los Angeles early in July. Numerous others will go east to take special lines of study, and still more will tie themselves away from books and "young ideas."

The various supervisors will spend their time in different ways, most of them, however, spending a goodly part of the time in extra study. Grammar Supervisor John S. Welch has been asked to read a paper before the N. E. A. and will spend a part of his vacation at the beach following the convention in July. Miss Rosalie Pollock, who will have charge of the examinations for teachers for the first few weeks after the close of school, will leave later for the N. E. A., and will spend at least a part of the summer on the coast.

William A. Wetzel will leave immediately after the close of school for a visit with relatives in Illinois, and later will go to Chicago to take classes in the new School of Methods, in which he is a regularly enrolled instructor for each year. Miss Anna L. Corbett, sewing supervisor, will go to Boston to attend a special work along her line there, and will spend the summer with relatives on the Atlantic coast.

Of the regular teachers more than usual will spend the summer in Salt Lake, fully realizing the possibilities for rest and recreation of the home town. Some of these make short trips to the mountains, making their headquarters in town. Many of these have not as yet perfected their plans.

Vice President L. M. Gillilan of the High school is going to be on a fruit farm in the country south of the city when he has time outside of work which has to be done for the High school during the summer term.

Mr. Garrett will study geological formation in southern Utah. Mrs. Alma D. Whitaker of the Bryant school will go to Iowa to spend the summer with friends in her old home. The Misses Emma and Kate Cole will go to Minneapolis to visit relatives.
