Attorney General Jackson of New York Makes Public Report of Temporary Receivers

WORK FOR THE GRAND JURY

WILLIAM GOW THE CENTER OF ATTACK.

Daniels Can Straighten a Man Out

I can't straighten bow legs or take an obese curve away from a man's paunch. But I can make trousers that will conceal the defect of the legs. I can make a suit that will detract from the corpulent appearance—build the suit so that it will round out the man until he does not seem large. I can fit any man—improve his appearance. Hand-me-down clothing will not accomplish this. Rather, they accentuate the deformities. They are not made of materials equal to mine—they are largely machine made and machine pressed—they will not hold their shapes—they do not look well any length of time. My wools are imported from Austria.

While I make suits that fit, my prices are $20 to $30 under the prices of tailors who charge fancy prices. That's enough for any business suit. Also I can show you some already made tailored suits, overcoats and trousers at about half usual prices. These suits and garments can be altered to fit. Better materials, better workmanship and way under hand-me-downs in prices.

DANIELS, THE TAILOR 57 W. Second South

SCORCHED BY GRAND JURY

Loans Made to Clerks.

Frank L. Bapst, temporary receiver of the Williamsburg Trust company, in his report says that the company made demand loans to the amount of approximately $222,000 to five clerks in the employ of Frank and J. G. Jenkins, jr., the stock brokerage firm. These clerks also figured in loans from the Borough bank of Brooklyn. The receiver also made a demand loan to C. H. Reuter for $17,500, which is not guaranteed, and for which there is held collateral of the estimated value of $73,148. A loan of $25,000 was also made by the Williamsburg company to James Hart, a son-in-law of J. G. Jenkins, sr., for which collateral is held of the estimated value of $12,400.

Directors Had a Tip.

Mr. Bapst, in his report, shows that within the four days immediately preceding the closing of the doors of the Williamsburg company, several of the company's directors withdrew practically all their deposits.

Do People Turn Away?

You Can Be Instantly Freed From the Humiliation of Knowing That Others Detect Bad Odors on Your Breath, Arising From Indigestion, Smoking, Drinking and Eating.

Trial Package to Prove it Sent Free. Breathe perfumes do not strike at the root of the evil. They only conceal the odor for a time. But charcoal kills the gas that causes the odor, purifies the food lying in your stomach and intestines, facilitates the process of digestion, acts as a mild laxative, gives tone to the system, in short, gives you a clean bill of health. And all the charcoal necessary to obtain these results you can get in a box of Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges, price 25c.

The uses of charcoal are many. In art and electricity it is constantly used, but it is especially valuable where absolute purity of product is required. As an absorbent and disinfectant it has no equal. That is why you will invariably find it in every water-filter. Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges are made from pure willow charcoal with a slight mixture of honey to render them palatable. They will filter your blood for you, destroy every particle of poison and impurity, absorb all the gas in your stomach, give you a sweet, clean breath, and relieve you from the awkward feeling you are bound to have when you detect by the expression of other people that they smell you had breath. Use these lozenges indispensable at one time or another. They are the same as those used by you, and you will find them today in your name and address. Write to A.
