HEAVY STORM IN NEW YORK

MUCH DAMAGE TO SHIPPING AND MANY LIVES IN DANGER.

New York, Jan. 24.—New York tonight is digging itself out of a foot of snow so unevenly divided that while exposed and unfrequented spots like Coney Island have been blown bare, the thoroughfares of the millions are left piled high with drifts that impede the progress of man and beast, and in the more open sections have tied up street cars and vehicles.

Mercifully the snow was accompanied by moderate temperature, and its early stages it was welcomed by the honest part of the 35,000 unemployed men in the city. All who sought employment from last midnight on found it readily and at good wages. The street-cleaning department required 10,000 shovelers, the traction companies as many more, and thousands of others earned many dollars from householders by shoveling off walks.

Probably the sharpest distress was experienced by several thousand genuine tramps, who, having ridden into town on the hard times wave and since enjoyed the city's bounty, awoke today to find themselves confronted with an unmistakable opportunity to work. Some rose to the occasion, and others shifted their lodgings.

Tonight the charity societies had their hands full. The Bowery bread-lines were extended tonight for blocks further than at any time before this winter, and at an early hour it was said that the supply of food would not nearly meet the need. The free lodging houses were packed tonight and the Salvation army and kindred organizations were working heroically to minimize the effect of the sudden shift from spring to freezing weather. During the day the thermometers registered from 26 to 23 above zero, followed by a gradual decline toward midnight.

One Froze to Death.

A number of accidents and four fatalities were credited to the storm's account. One man was frozen to death near an east Twenty-third street lodging house, from which he had been ejected. A Grand street merchant succumbed to heart disease after battling with the snow and wind. In Woodlawn cemetery a special policeman died while digging a grave. A Civil war veteran was another victim of heart disease, caused by exposure.

The storm gave the new public service commission its first opportunity to witness the transportation companies struggle with the elements. The watchers posted at various points made notes and the commission entertained complaints and made suggestions.

Except for the subway, in which there was only one brief delay, and the elevated roads, where the trains with one exception ran regularly, though under slow speed, the transportation facilities of the city and the suburbs were well nigh demoralized throughout the day. Surface cars were paralyzed in all the boroughs.

Fearful Time at Sea.

Along the coast the storm whipped the waters into a dangerous fury. Sound steamers took refuge in harbors to avoid the fate of the John M. Starin, which went ashore during the snowstorm, and shipping has been seriously interfered with. The schedule of liners has been disarranged.

Along the Jersey coast much damage is reported. The strip of land separating Shrewsbury river from the ocean was swept by huge waves, and several towns, particularly Seabright, were more or less under water. Bulkheads and pavilions were washed away.

The steamer Providence, from New York to Boston, was driven into New London by the storm, and her four hundred passengers proceeded to Boston by rail.

After spending over twelve hours grounded on the sands of the Whitestone, where she was blown in the storm early today, the steamer John H. Starin of the Starin Transportation company, which left New Haven last night for this city, was floated late today and proceeded to her dock. The dozen passengers who remained on board the steamer all day were landed at Whitestone. The Starin was apparently uninjured by her experience.

Hull, Mass., Jan. 24.—In the northeast gale and snowstorm today, the three-masted schooner Fortuna of New London, Conn., Captain Leighton, bound light from Newburyport for Boston, went ashore on Lovell's Island. The members of the crew and Captain Leighton's wife, who was on board, landed safely on the island. The vessel is apparently lying in an easy position.

Death Follows in Wake.

Norfolk, Va., Jan. 24.—The northwest storm sweeping the Virginia and North Carolina coast continues tonight with unabated fury, scores of vessels are at the mercy of the gale, shipping has been interrupted and the intense cold has intensified the hardships of navigation. Tonight the wind is fifty miles an hour at Cape Henry and sixty-five miles an hour off Hatteras.

The body of a seaman, name unknown, clad in oilskins and having on a life preserver, was washed ashore at Pine beach tonight.

The steamer Jamestown of the Old Dominion Steamship company en route from New York for Norfolk, was reported tonight by the wireless station at the navy yard fifty miles off the Virginia capes, unable to stem the storm and put her nose into the capes. The vessel is being slowly driven seaward.

How to Avoid Appendicitis.

Most victims of appendicitis are those who are habitually constipated. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup cures chronic constipation by stimulating the liver and bowels, and restores the natural action of the bowels. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup does not nauseate or grip and is mild and pleasant to take. Refuse substitutes. F. J. Hill Drug Co., "The Never Substitutors."

HAILEY HOLDS LAND OFFICE

Secretary Garfield Rules Against Removal to Shoshone.

(Special to The Herald.) Washington, Jan. 24.—Secretary Garfield today turned down the proposition to move the land office from Hailey to Shoshone, Ida. It was presented to the department that Shoshone was more centrally located and easier of access from all parts of the district than Hailey. Investigation failed to disclose any general demand for change, but rather indicated that it was nothing more than a contest between the two towns. As patrons generally through the district are not sufficiently desirous of having a change, it was decided to allow the office to remain at Hailey.

IDAHO DEMOCRATS ACTIVE.

Committee Will Meet to Arrange for Conventions.

(Special to The Herald.) Boise, Ida., Jan. 24.—Chairman H. W. Lockhart of the Democratic state committee announces that the committee will meet in Boise Feb. 25 for the purpose of calling the two state conventions, one to select delegates to the national convention, the other to nominate a state ticket. Mr. Lockhart has been here two days in consultation with Senator Dubois. Nothing has been made public respecting the conference beyond the date for the committee meeting.

SIMPLE REMEDY FOR LA GRIPPE

La grippe coughs are dangerous as they frequently develop into pneumonia. Foley's Honey and Tar not only stops the cough but heals and strengthens the lungs so that no serious results need be feared. The genuine Foley's Honey and Tar contains no harmful drugs and is in a yellow package. Refuse substitutes. F. J. Hill Drug Co., "The Never Substitutors."

GETS AN EARLY START.

Boy of Eight Years an Accomplished Burglar.

Tacoma, Wash., Jan. 24.—Fred Shiffer, aged 8 years, was arrested today charged with burglarizing two stores. The police say he has confessed, and that he is one of the smoothest "lone workers" they have ever seen. His parents had no idea that he was stealing, never having missed him from home at night. In rubber-soled shoes he slipped in and out of his home. He is very small for his age.

Named in the Order of Appearance

F. P. Dunne
Ray Stannard Baker
Upton Sinclair
Lincoln Steffens
Ida M. Tarbell

Are among the contributors to the February number of the American Magazine. To find five big features in any one number of any magazine is unusual. Below they are mentioned:

F. P. Dunne gives "Mr. Dooley" on "Hard Times" (the mention of a "Dooley" article is enough). Ray Stannard Baker writes on the Negro in the north. Upton Sinclair continues his attack on the extravagances, dissipation and immorality of "The Social Set." Lincoln Steffens tells the story of Rudolph Spreckels, the great fighting business man, who is striving for clean politics and clean business in San Francisco. Miss Tarbell shows the present-day marketing methods and business strategy of the Standard Oil.

And of course there are stories, lots of them. Stories well worth any one's time to read.
