DISTRICT COURT AT EMERY.

Calendar for January Term is Disposed of and Court Adjourns.

Huntington, Feb. 19.—The district court of the seventh judicial district, in and for Emery county, state of Utah, convened at Castle Dale on Monday the 17th inst., and disposed of the following calendar for the January term:

State of Utah vs. Thomas Murphy, explanatory hearing on writ of habeas corpus; case passed for the term.

State of Utah vs. Emrys Morgan, rape. This complaint was dismissed and a new one filed charging the defendant with carnal knowledge of a female under the age of 18 and over the age of 15 years. This case went to trial, and after the state had got its evidence in the defendant, the state attorney had the name moved for a dismissal on the ground that the defendant had not been properly bound over, it appearing in the complaint that the defendant was a married man.
