

ITALIAN CAR REACHES FRISCO

Will Sail Direct for Japan and Pass Up Alaska—Still Protesting.

Oakland, Cal., April 4.—The Italian car in the New York-Paris race arrived in the center of Oakland at 2:30 o'clock this morning, accompanied by six automobiles occupied by representatives from Italian commercial and civic bodies that had come out to Bradley and Gilroy to meet their fellow countrymen.

The Italian car is in very poor condition, but G. Sirtori, the driver, is hopeful of over-reaching the American car's long lead.

"We have only started, and the car is flying the red, white and green will be the first into Paris," was his optimistic declaration.

The Italians stated positively that their car will go direct to Nagasaki, Japan, starting next Tuesday on the steamer Asia from San Francisco, instead of following the American car's route by way of Alaska.

The occupants of the Italian car state that protests have been made by the foreign contestants against the American car, which they claim has been disqualified by reason of having gone through tunnels and traveling on the rights of way of railroads, which privileges were denied the other cars.

Fresno, Cal., April 4.—The French car is reported stalled at Tulare and will not arrive here until morning.

San Francisco, April 4.—No decision has yet been reached as to when the Italian car will leave this city, and where it will proceed to from here. A dispatch has been sent to New York asking for consent to cut out the Alaska trip and to take the car from this city to Nagasaki on board the next Pacific Mail steamer to leave for the Orient.

French car No. 1 left Bakerfield this afternoon and is reported stalled at Tulare.

CAMBRIDGE MINS BY GOOD MARGIN

Take Annual Boat Race From Oxford for Third Consecutive Year.

Putney, England, April 4.—For the third year in succession Cambridge today won the varsity race, defeating Oxford by the handsome margin of two and one-half lengths.

The light blues—the Cambridge crew—fully justified the confidence reposed in them by the riverside experts and forged to the front from the crack of the pistol and led from start to finish.

The result was never in doubt. In spite of the advantage of the dark blues—the Oxford men—in winning the toss, which enabled them to choose the Surrey side of the river and thus escape much of the heavy water at the start, the extra stamina of the Cambridge men quickly secured their lead.

The official time of the race today was 18:47. The record is 18:47, established by Oxford in 1893 and equaled by Cambridge in 1902.

The time last year was 20:20. Make Good Getaway.

The crews got off to a splendid start, but the quicker stroke of D. C. R. Stuart of the Cambridge crew, who set the rate at forty a minute, against Oxford's thirty-eight, soon put the supporters of the light blues at ease.

Cambridge had already gained an advantage of half a length, and at Craven Steps the light blues were a full length in front of and steadily drawing away from their opponents.

The uniform sliding and greater length of the stroke of the light blues continued to tell, and in shooting under Hammersmith bridge there was a full length and a half between the boats.

At this point Stuart gave his crew a breather, and A. C. Gladstone, the Oxford stroke, called on his men for an effort. Quickening his stroke to thirty-three to the minute, he against Cambridge's thirty-two, Gladstone slowly lessened the gap to a length and a quarter.

But this advantage was only a suffering. Stuart was ready to set his men going again and the Cambridge crew quickly shook off their opponents. Pulling strongly, steadily and well within themselves, the light blues shot past Thorneycroft three lengths ahead, and held about the same lead to Barnes Bridge.

After passing this point they rowed without apparent effort and passed the finish post the easiest of victors, by a distance officially given out as two and one-half lengths.

The Oxford men, who had gamely rowed a losing race, were much distressed at the finish.

Hackenschmidt Concedes Frank Gotch Best Man in the World

Chicago, April 4.—Frank Gotch, who last night defeated George Hackenschmidt, the "Russian Lion" for the world's wrestling championship, seemed to feel little ill effect today from the two-hour battle.

He arose early and after breakfast took a long walk with "Farmer" Burns, who acted as one of his seconds last night.

"I am not fatigued," he said, "and was not tired when the battle ended. I could have gone on for hours. I would be willing to meet Hackenschmidt tonight, if he desires it. I will give him a return match any time he wants it. Next time I will put him on his back."

He will remain in Chicago all next week, appearing at a local vaudeville theatre. He will then fulfill similar engagements in Wisconsin and Minnesota.

A trip west is also being considered, but no definite plans for this have been made as yet.

Hackenschmidt looked as if he had been in a prize fight instead of a wrestling match today. The left side of his head was badly swollen and his left eye inflamed. His eyelids were swollen and lacerated. He said this was done by Gotch's sharp toe. He has no desire to wrestle him again. A return match would not win back my title."

There is no man in all England who has a chance with your man Gotch. He is king of his class, the greatest man by far that I ever have met. After going nearly two hours with him, my muscles are so tired I have no desire to wrestle him again. A return match would not win back my title."

FRANK GOTCH, New World's Wrestling Champion.

SALT LAKE, 5; OGDEN, 1. Local Sockers Easily Defeat Team From Junction City.

The Salt Lake sockers defeated Ogdren yesterday by a score of 5 to 1. Superior playing and better condition won the game. The first half ended 2 to 1 in favor of Salt Lake.

In the second half Ogdren showed some good combination work, but lack of condition prevented them from scoring. McMurrin, for Salt Lake, played a great game as goal keeper.

The other stars in the game were: For Salt Lake, Adamson, Graham and W. McWhirter; for Ogdren, A. Nesbet, Burch, Hudson and Holden.

Last night a meeting of the Utah association was held and the drawings were made for the Laynes cup.

Salt Lake plays Eureka at Eureka, and the Jordan Swifts play Ogdren at Ogdren, both games to come off not later than April 28. The winners will meet in the finals.

RIDING CLUB'S RUN. Members Will Go After Rabbits Today.

Captain J. C. Armstrong will lead the new Salt Lake Halloweens team yesterday Sunday run this morning. The club will meet at the Cullen hotel at 9 a. m. and go to the fair grounds, where a photograph of the club will be taken.

From the fair grounds the club will travel west over the flax. A bunch of greyhounds will be taken along and it is hoped a few rabbits will be jumped up. The party will number twenty-five or thirty.

Captain J. C. Armstrong says the club would like an equisiteness in the city who wish to join to appear this morning and make the run.

MARSHALL GETS DRAW. Vienna, April 4.—Marshall, the American chess player, made a draw with the Hungarian expert, Maroczy, in the tenth round of the international chess masters' tourney today. Joner, the other American, lost his game to Schlechter, who again leads.

ATHLETIC EXHIBITION.

Y. M. C. A. Announces Date for its Annual Show.

The Y. M. C. A. will hold its second annual physical department exhibition in the Salt Lake theatre Wednesday evening, April 15. The work done by the physical department for its numerous members is getting into its stride, and the exhibition will be held this year in the theatre, giving opportunity for 1,000 or more people to see the work, has been heartily received. Over 100 men and boys will take part in the exhibition, and it will probably be the biggest affair of its kind ever held in the city. It is planned to make it an exhibition of the work done regularly in the classes and not an exhibition of special work arranged particularly for the occasion.

BIKE FAVORITES COMING

Downing and Demara Will Both Be Here to Ride This Season.

Hardy Downing says he will be in Salt Lake about May 15 to begin training for the coming racing season. In a letter to Iver Redman he asks about the outlook for the coming year and estimates that he will be faster than ever.

A letter was also received from Walter Demara, who is getting into his old time form and hopes to be able to beat the best of them before the season is over. Taylor has a loop the globe stunt he has not done on the stage, but says the good dizzy whirl at the saucer track beats them all for getting the money.

SECOND BENCH SHOWS HIS POWER

Oquirrh's Colonel Wins Prize for Being Best Dog on Exhibition.

After three days of dogs, the second annual bench show of the Utah Kennel club came to a close last night. While the show did not have quite as large an attendance as the exhibition a year ago, in every other way it was a much bigger success.

The class of dogs, handling and management of the show, judging and real interest worked up in breeding better dogs far exceeds that of any year ago.

The greatest interest yesterday centered in the judging of the best dog in the show. After carefully judging every dog in the winners' classes, Judge Bruetz decided that Oquirrh's Colonel, owned by Clow & Keefe of Salt Lake, was the best dog of any breed in the show.

Oquirrh's Colonel is a greyhound, and that he is also a good dog in the field, was shown by the fact that he fell when he finished first as runner up in the Mississippi Valley turtury. The dog was raised by F. B. Jones of this city and afterward became the property of the present owners.

After the show Judge Bruetz said Oquirrh's Colonel would compare favorably with any dog in the world. While there are a number of good dogs in the show, Oquirrh's Colonel easily stands as the most perfect dog.

Below will be found the winners of each class in the show:

Winners Class. Smooth St. Bernards—Forest King, dog, owned by B. A. Langridge, Boulder, Colo. Great Danes—Napoleon H., dog, Rev. C. Chauve, Salt Lake.

New Foundlands—Rowdy, dog, B. C. Oquirrh's—Oquirrh's Colonel, dog, Clow & Keefe, Salt Lake; Lady Kelleit, dog, Clow & Keefe, Salt Lake.

Pointers—Mick, puppy, I. R. McCormick, Salt Lake; Cherry of Kent, dog, J. L. Taylor, Ogden.
