"The officers and members of the Relief society and the Y. L. M. I. associations are requested to join the peace movement and observe Sunday, the 17th of May next, as peace day, as suggested by the governor of the state. It is suggested that they lend their assistance to the proper local officials, as they have done in the past, in the matter of programs and speakers, for the meetings to be held on the day mentioned.

"The Relief societies and Young Ladies' Mutual Improvement associations will please report as usual to Mrs. Richards or Mrs. Gates."

MEETING OF CREDIT MEN

Arthur Parsons Elected President of Association—Program of Toasts at Banquet.

There were both business and pleasure at the gathering of the members of the Utah Association of Credit Men yesterday at the Commercial club.

In the afternoon officers for the coming year were elected. President, Arthur Parsons; vice president, Willard Scowcroft; secretary, Edward Rosenbaum; treasurer, A. D. McMullen; board of directors, Messrs. Parsons, Scowcroft, Rosenbaum, McMullen, F. Scheuenschlager, Peter L. Doran, J. W. Delano, Leon Sweet and M. H. Soules.

Herbert Van Dam was retained as manager, and Walter Wright as assistant manager.

The new officers are practically the same as those of last year, with the exception of the retirement of Mr. Sweet as vice president and Messrs. John Q. Critchlow, J. T. Young and Samuel Weitz as directors.

Delegates to the Denver convention were chosen as follows: Arthur Parsons, Edward Rosenbaum, O. H. Hewlett, Willard Scowcroft, J. W. Abbott and Herbert Van Dam. The alternates selected were George C. Lambert, Jr., J. W. Delano, M. H. Soules and A. W. Gallagher.

A new set of by-laws was adopted, with new rules affecting the adjustment bureau.

After getting through with this business, the credit men adjourned to the banquet room, to enjoy the good fare spread, before them and to hear Mr. Van Dam on "Co-operation," Mathoniah Thomas on "Investigation and Prosecution," Junius Young on "Fire Insurance and Its Relation to Credits," S. H. Love on "Reminiscences," and Rev. F. B. Short on "The Basis of Credit."

OBSEQUIES OF JOHN CLARK

President Joseph F. Smith was the principal speaker at the funeral services for John Clark, former mayor of Salt Lake, which were held at the Twentieth ward assembly hall yesterday afternoon. President Smith was for a great many years a close personal friend of Mr. Clark, and the tribute to his memory was eloquent. He eulogized the life of Mr. Clark, and said that it should be an example for his family to follow proudly, and an illustration of righteous living which might be used by his friends for their betterment.

The assembly hall was packed to the doors when the services began. The casket was heaped with flowers, and there were bands and wreaths at either side of it. The city council attended in a body and occupied seats in the front of the hall.

Bishop George Romney spoke briefly on the character of John Clark. He mentioned some of the qualities which he possessed, and spoke of him as a true, upright Latter-day Saint. In his opinion, the death of John Clark, though a great loss to the community, should be the cause of rejoicing in that he meant that he had been finally rewarded for his good works. Bishop Romney was followed by President Smith, who, after acknowledging the great good Mr. Clark had done, spoke for his religion and for the state in which he lived, said:

"I do not like to eulogize my friends on occasions such as this. I realize that it is not in my power to speak as I feel about Brother Clark. I feel that anything I could say would fall far short of what he merits. At the same time it is meet that attention should be called to his superiority as a man, his sterling character and his piety, that those of us remaining may be bettered by following the example of such a man.

"In a perilous time, at least perilous for me, I was called upon to test his friendship. It was in those dark times that, perhaps, I should not mention on this occasion, that I was forced to try the integrity and honor of Brother Clark as a friend. At that time it was

CONTROL TOWER HEIGHTS

Stowe & Palmer Secure Exclusive Agency for Desirable Residence Tract.

Two blocks of ground in the new Tower Heights subdivision, adjacent to Anderson tower, were placed in the hands of Stowe & Palmer by Robert R. Anderson, the owner, in a deal which was closed yesterday. Mr. Anderson bought the land thirty-two years ago and has held it intact up to the present time. His deal with Stowe & Palmer was the result of the pressing demand for home building sites in that location.

The tract of ground is bounded by A and B streets and Sixth and Eighth avenues.

At present the Sixth avenue car line passes the southeast corner of the tract. The Ninth avenue line will pass the eastern side of both of the Anderson blocks. Grading for the Ninth avenue line is now well advanced.

The Best Security on Earth—The Earth Itself.

The main point to watch in buying real estate is to select property situated in the direct line of business advancement.

By investing in the shares of a company, recently formed, you are not relying on the judgment of one man as to the best piece of ground to purchase, but have the benefit of the combined judgment of the entire board of trustees; men who have had years of experience and training in realty operations, banking and financial affairs, and whose names alone stand for an absolutely square deal to every shareholder from the largest to the smallest. This board is composed of the following gentlemen: Dr. Union Worthington; Mr. Robert B. Harkness of the law firm of Bradley, Pischel & Harkness; Mr. D. C. Jackling, vice president and general manager of the Utah Copper company; Mr. F. E. McGurkin, president of the Salt Lake Security & Trust company; Mr. John Hickey, for years general master mechanic of the Rio Grande Western Railway Co.; Mr. James T. Beless of Ogden and Mr. Clarence E. Raybould. The officers are: Dr. Worthington, president; Mr. Harkness, vice president; Mr. Raybould, secretary and treasurer.

The Mutual Realty company, incorporated under the laws of Utah, affords the investor an opportunity to acquire an interest in close-in improved real estate, directly in the path of the city's growth, which is bound to increase in value and make his holdings more valuable every year he holds them.

In addition to offering you an opportunity to invest your savings in the shares of the company, every dollar of which is secured by the best security on earth—THE EARTH ITSELF—you are invited to invest in the combined judgment of the gentlemen named above, who have made a success of their own affairs.

The company is erecting what will be one of the handsomest apartment buildings in the city, on Second East, between Second and Third South streets, two blocks from the center of the business and shopping district.

For further information address Mutual Realty company, 524 Security & Trust building, Salt Lake, Utah.

MRS. CAMPBELL DEAD.

Early Comer to Salt Lake Succumbs After Brief Illness.

Mrs. Jane Miller Campbell, widow of the late Robert Long Campbell, died Friday at the family residence, 119 South First West street.

Mrs. Campbell was born near Paisley, in Scotland, Feb. 3, 1836. She was married in 1855. She came to Salt Lake early in the '60s and made her home in the Fourteenth ward. She survived the death of the ten children born of the union. They are Joan M., Arthur M., Brigham M. and John M.

The funeral will be held from the Fourteenth ward meeting house this afternoon at 4 o'clock. The casket will be open at the residence between 12 and 3 o'clock.

SEVERAL PAPERS READ.

Conference of Charities and Corrections Well Attended.

Richmond, Va., May 3.—The sections of the National Conference of Corrections were well attended today. In the section for "needy families" the principal speaker was Professor Bruce R. Payne, who devoted his remarks to settlement work in the meetings.

At the meeting of the press and publicity section a report was read by the chairman, W. H. Steele, executive secretary of the Maryland association, for the prevention and relief of tuberculosis.

COMMUNICATIONS FROM CADET CAMP WARM PRAISE FOR CHRISTENSEN

Cadet "Phil's" brief but newsy post card to his mother is only one of hundreds of such communications that have reached Salt Lake from San Francisco since the high school cadets reached the city of the Golden Gate.

In the rush of delights in viewing the fleet and meeting naval celebrities, Phil could not forget his mother, Mrs. E. M. Allison, of 132 East First South street, but he had no time for long and labored composition, so he gave Mrs. Allison a bird's eye view of the situation at San Francisco and closed with "the terse and military command: "Send money."

Elwood S. Brown, physical director of the Y. M. C. A., in a letter to Oscar L. Cox, general secretary, was not quite as brief as Cadet Phil. He said:

"Everything is going nicely here, little swearing, no smoking, lots of letter and postal card writing. I have sold over 1,000 1-cent stamps for use on souvenir postals and about as many 2-cent for letters. Of the 3,000 letterheads I brought down only 500 are left now and practically none have been wasted.

"We are camped at the Presidio, the big government military reservation. Monday and Tuesday were spent in sight-seeing and today watching the fleet come in and drop anchor. I never expect to see such a magnificent sight again. It made a lasting impression upon the boys. If the Salt Laker who subscribed money to send the boys here could only hear the compliments the cadets are receiving and realize how much they are being talked about and favorably commented upon, and how people here praise Salt Lake for its enterprise, I am quite sure they would feel greatly repaid for their investment. The trip has undoubtedly done much to advertise Salt Lake.

"They marched better than any other organization in the parade and next to Admiral Bob Evans received more attention," is the statement of D. H. Christensen, superintendent of schools, in regard to the high school cadets at San Francisco. Mr. Christensen returned from the coast last evening and was highly pleased with the conduct of the Salt Lake youngsters.

"They are having the time of their lives," he declared, "and are a credit to the city and state. All along the line of march they were greeted most enthusiastically and their perfect alignment in marching received the highest commendation not only from civilians but from army officers and military experts.

"When those boys came by the stand I was sitting on in Van Ness avenue the crowd cheered them almost as wildly as it did Admiral Evans, the hero of the hour, who came behind them. It was most inspiring sight and one which I will always remember.

"The San Francisco papers featured the cadet battalion and praised it without stint. It was freely declared on all sides that the regulars were far less perfect in drill than the Salt Lake boys and that the youngsters were probably the best drilled aggregation in the country today. The way they obeyed orders and the perfection of their maneuvers was marvelous."

Mr. Christensen says that the cadets will leave this morning for home and will arrive Monday afternoon.

"THE STORE BEAUTIFUL" WILL GIVE AWAY

One of These Hoosier Kitchen Cabinets, May 23rd, at 4:30 P. M.

We want every lady over 18 years of age to visit our store during the week of May 18, to see the display of Hoosier Kitchen Cabinets, one of which will be given away absolutely free, without any obligation to buy a penny's worth of goods. By calling up or calling at the store, full particulars will be given.

Hoosier Kitchen Cabinets have Special Features that make them different, better and more convenient than any other kitchen cabinet.

Husbands, when you get your wife a kitchen cabinet get her a REAL cabinet—a labor-saving kitchen machine, that is not merely a collection of shelves, hooks and dark bins, but a modern, perfected unit that REALLY SAVES LABOR AND MONEY.

These special features tell the story. Show this advertisement to her. SHE will know their importance.

Other cabinets do not have these features and the extra Hoosier arrangement that saves hundreds of steps each day. Besides, remember this important fact:

The "Hoosier" is low in price

FLOUR BIN
The flour is put in at the top, passes through the entire bin, and is taken out thoroughly sifted at the bottom. Thus no mouldy flour can accumulate. The bin is self-cleaning, made of metal and white wood.

RECIPE CABINET
This outfit consists of 100 recipe cards, ten gold cards labeled Bread, Cake and Desserts, Fish, Meats, Miscellaneous, Salads, Soups, Vegetables. The cards are in a neat rack attached to the same door as the spice bins.

ALUMINUM WORK TABLE
This extension top can be drawn out or extended beyond the front of the cabinet over 12 inches, adding more than one-third the working space.

SPICE CABINET
The cabinet for spices contains six airtight cans, highly finished and labeled Ginger, Cloves, Cream of Tartar, Allspice, Baking Powder and Cinnamon. A neat rack holds them in place on the left hand door.

SUGAR BIN
The sugar bin is the most cleverly devised bin in the Hoosier. The bulk of the sugar is held in the upper part of the bin, as the opening is only large enough to allow a small quantity to run in the lower part. When a scoop full is taken out the same quantity drops down.

WANT LIST
Attached to the front of the flour bin is a handy Want List, covering everything that can possibly be needed in the kitchen, alphabetically arranged with ticks set opposite names on the list—a simple and effective system for keeping stock in the kitchen.

BREAD AND CAKE BOX
The place for keeping bread fresh and moist is one of the best features of the Hoosier. The Hoosier Bread Box takes the place of the lower drawer. It is 8x11x24 inches, made of metal, and has close fitted lids. One end is partitioned off for cake.

There are many labor-saving features that only the HOOSIER KITCHEN CABINET possesses, such as Metal Meal Drawers, Pan Racks, Sliding Shelves, etc.

Anyone who has ever used an ordinary kitchen cabinet knows how difficult it is to try to get articles out of the back part of the lower cupboard. The Hoosier sliding shelves slide in and out the same as drawers and the contents of the cupboard can be brought to the front within easy reach by drawing out the shelf.
