GET DOWN TO THE TRUTH.

In response to The Herald's demand for particulars as to the purpose of the $500,000 bond issue...

As far as it goes the statement, including the pledge, reads fairly well. It does not explain why $125,000 is estimated for sewers...

However, these are minor matters. The conspicuous and fatal omission in the address to taxpayers who are asked to authorize $600,000 additional indebtedness...

Having made one step toward honesty, the administration is about due now to make a clean breast of it. Here are some suggestions for the next public address and pledge to cover:

What does it owe in outstanding, unpaid warrants? What does it owe on contracts completed and not yet paid for? How much of the $500,000 bond issue does the council propose to apply to existing indebtedness?

DEFEAT IS CONCEDED.

Senator N. B. Scott of West Virginia was chosen national committeeman from his state at the recent Republican convention and placed on the executive committee as usual...

committee for twelve years, and through three successful campaigns. I do not want to have my record broken. Consequently he retired.

Without saying that he thought Taft was certain of defeat, Senator Scott managed to convey that impression, and the vials of wrath have been un-corked.

Senator Bourne of Oregon has also been busy since the Chicago convention predicting the election of Bryan, and the Tafters retaliate by calling him all kinds of a fool, and then some.

There lies dead in the pretty little city of Anaconda, in Montana, one who, in his chosen field of endeavor, performed signal service for the community in which at various times he made his home.

Colonel Daniel Searles was for forty years a newspaper worker in Montana. He was one who wrote with virtue pen and whose loyalty to the causes which his paper espoused was abiding.

Colonel Searles was a man of the west, the great west of the past and the greater west of the present. He was one of those who labored steadfastly that the land might grow and thrive and progress; and he lived to see, in his honored old age, the day when his fond hopes were realized.

MR. HEARST'S FINISH.

The recount of the ballots in the mayoralty contest in New York, which has been practically completed, shows that McClellan is the de jure mayor as well as the mayor de facto.

It is hardly probable that any serious attention will be paid to these allegations. In the beginning Hearst agreed to stand or fall by the recount. That was what he wanted, what he fought for months through the various courts of New York and what he finally got.

David B. Hill cables from Europe a denial of the alleged interview with him after his departure. Whether he did or he didn't, it's all the same. The caustic criticisms of the Elmira man would stand, even though they probably would not have been written if the fake interview had not been scattered broadcast.

get what he needs—not what he wants—no matter who is elected.

Claimant Hearst will have to strike a new tack if he's going to keep up his fight on McClellan until the latter's term expires.

A revolution in Mexico in the month of June should be a hot affair.

CLEVER PARAGRAPHS.

May Need Him After All. (Kansas City Journal.) All Republicans are for Taft now, even Foraker. And, by the way, it is quite a fortunate thing that Foraker is for him.

Time Is Getting Short. (New York World.) Another Rough Rider has been appointed to a consulship in Spain. All members of my regiment not already provided for should apply before March 4.

"Sherman's March" Up to Date. (Louisville Courier-Journal.) The collection of the Republican campaign fund in 1908 will be known in history as "Sherman's March to the Sea."

Also the Biggest in the Country. (Pittsburg Leader.) No matter what Cleveland may claim for the next nine months Cincinnati will be the biggest city in Ohio.

Won't Be Needed Here. (St. Louis Post-Dispatch.) Mr. Taft must hope that Mr. Roosevelt will have a "corking good time" in Africa.

Real Cause for Alarm. (Atlanta Journal.) The Republicans found nothing to "view with alarm" except November.

One He Hasn't Coked. (Philadelphia Telegraph.) President Roosevelt says that he has had a corking time during his administration, but he shouldn't lose sight of the fact that he has not yet bottled the beef trust.

Something to Be Thankful For. (Chicago Tribune.) Circumstances over which he has less control than he used to have may not permit Mr. Taft to take an active part in the coming campaign.

WHAT IS LIFE TO YOU? (Baltimore Sun.) To the preacher life's a sermon. To the joker life's a jest. To the miser life is money. To the loafer life is rest.

To the lawyer life's a trial. To the poet life's a song. To the doctor life's a patient. That needs treatment right along.

To the soldier life's a battle. To the teacher life's a school. Life's a good thing to the grafter. It's a failure to the fool.

To the man upon the engine. Life's a long and heavy grade. It's a gamble to the gambler. To the merchant life's a trade.

Life's a picture to the artist. To the rascal life's a fraud. Life perhaps is but a burden. To the man beneath the hod.

Life is lovely to the lover. To the player life's a play. Life may be a load of trouble. To the man upon the dray.

Life is but a long vacation. To the man who loves his work. Life's an everlasting effort. To shun duty to the shirk.

To the heaven's blast romancer. Life's a story ever new. Life is what we try to make it—Brother, what is life to you?

BUSINESS. (Philadelphia Press.) "Of course," said the shrewd business man, "I don't want to be sick, but it looks as if I'd have to call in Dr. Brokeleigh for a couple of weeks."

"Why?" demanded his partner. "Because he owes me a hundred dollars and that's about the only way I can collect it."

EASY. (Washington Herald.) "How could you distinguish Achilles from the girls?" asked the Greeks? "How could you see that he was a man in woman's garb?"

"He didn't drop his handkerchief," explained Ulysses, "every time he turned around."

COULD NOT CURE WEEPING ECZEMA

Disease Began over Ear and Spread till Face and Neck were Raw—Itching, Inflammation and Soreness were Terrible—Lasted Over a Year and All Treatments Failed

UNTIL CUTICURA AGAIN PROVED GREAT SUCCESS

"Eczema began over the top of my ear. It cracked and then began to spread. I had three different doctors and tried several things, but they did me no good.

At last one side of my face and my neck clear up to my hair were raw. The water ran out of it so that I had to wear medicated cotton, and it was so inflamed and sore that I had to put a piece of cloth over my pillow to keep the water from it, and it would stain the cloth a sort of yellow. The eczema itched so that it seemed as though I could tear my face all to pieces.

The disease began in the fall and I did everything for it until the next winter. Then I began to use the Cuticura Soap and Ointment, and it was not more than three months before it was all healed up. I still use the Cuticura Resolvent Pills once in a while to cleanse the blood. I am very thankful that I tried Cuticura, and I can recommend it to any one. Miss Ann Pearson, Northfield, Vt., Dec. 19, '07."
