CHAMPION JIU JITSU

Leopold McLaglen Is Anxious to Try It Out on Anybody.

Leopold McLaglen, who claims to be the champion jiu jitsu expert of the world, arrived in Salt Lake yesterday on his way east...

While McLaglen claims Cork, Ireland, as his native home, he has spent a great part of his life in Japan...

STRONG TEAM AT THE FORT

Manager Ellis Expects to Give Varsity Hard Game on Saturday.

The officers of Fort Douglas are taking considerable interest in their newly organized football team...

Speaking of the trip Coach Maddock said: "We were fairly beaten by both Denver U. and Colorado college, and we are not coming home with the hollow that the officials robbed us."

"The condition of the U team was the best I have seen in many years. Time was not taken out for Utah once during the trip and not a man has the slightest injury resulting from the games."

The officers of Fort Douglas are taking considerable interest in their newly organized football team and are of the opinion they will be able to show the U. of U. team a few tricks about the great college game next Saturday.

American Fork, Oct. 18.—A high school football team has been organized and Prince, Soule and George Larson, manager of the club, with other members of the high school faculty are working hard with the boys to get them in shape and in line for the county championship.

SNOWSTORM IS WIDESPREAD

Disagreeable Weather Is General in Western States—Roads in Bad Shape.

The weather man is rather pushing himself this year and is getting rid of a heavy snowstorm a little ahead of time. The snow and cold have caused a great deal of discomfort. In many cases the people had not yet gotten their heating stoves in operation and many found many sons getting busy. The wet weather throughout the state has put the roads in bad condition and the farmers are having some trouble in getting their crops to the factories.
