LET'S BE SANE.

It is only a matter of a few weeks time when the people of the United States, following the advice of John Adams...

But there is a limit beyond which we should not go in the exuberance of our feelings. In the last two or three decades there have been a number of appalling accidents due to carelessness...

THE TOURIST TRADE.

The people of the United States have money to spend. At no time since the dawn of creation, so far as the fact can be gleaned from history, have the people of any country in any age, been so prodigally endowed with wealth...

Outside of the Chicago Cubs and the Detroit Tigers, there are really no worthy foes for the Salt Lake What-do-you-call-ems to face.

The fate of Helen Anna McDermott, or Mrs. James P. Boyle, as she chooses to call herself, should serve as a warning to other frisky young women.

A committee of 100 proposes to hang the hide of the Tammany tiger on the fence at the coming election. Seems as if we've heard that before.

Our warlike little brother in the Balkans hasn't chirped lately. The war cloud is no longer paraded even for stock jobbing purposes.

Senator Sutherland is going to make a legal argument on the income tax proposition in the senate this week. No income tax for gentle George.

No monkey business down in Oklahoma with Judge John A. Marshall on the bench. Justice for all hands and the cook.

A monument has been erected to the memory of Adam near Baltimore. Eve doesn't need any.

The French strikers marched up the hill and then marched down again. Thus does history repeat itself.

"Spunk" being on the free list accounts for the insurgents.

Come to think of it, Taft footed his putt when he called the extra session.

INJURIOUS RATE LAWS.

Since the free entry of thoroughbred horses for breeding purposes in this country began, the value of the horse stock of the United States has been increased by the vast sum of $1,345,000, and the statistics of the agricultural department show that the average price of horses on the farms has increased more than 100 per cent in the last ten years, from $44.81 to $95.64.

But the railroad rate laws enacted by congress and several of the states work a hardship upon the livestock interests of the country in another direction. The idea of taking away the right to fix their freight charges from the common carriers was no doubt for the purpose of preventing rebates and other abuses, but at the same time the laws prevented the railroads from granting special rates for cattle, horses and other improved livestock shipped to shows and fairs for exhibition purposes.

The Canadian government not only permits the railroads to give special rates for the shipment of animals of the improved breeds, but through its department of agriculture it procures sweeping reductions in freight charges for all registered livestock, with a view to encouraging farmers to keep pure bred horses, cattle, etc., in place of scrubs.

Coupons are attached to the registry certificate issued for each animal, and one of these, when presented with the certificate of pedigree, ownership and identity is authority for the agent of any railroad to bill the animal at the reduced rates agreed to with the department of agriculture.

Perhaps when we settle down and matters are adjusted, the breeders of blooded stock may be taken into consideration and some allowance made. Our northern neighbors are constantly on the alert and each season sees some improvements. Unless we wish to fall behind in the race, we must use every possible means to raise the grade of the horses, cattle and sheep.

Outside of the Chicago Cubs and the Detroit Tigers, there are really no worthy foes for the Salt Lake What-do-you-call-ems to face.

Boise remains to be spared.

JUST AS HE SAID. (Christian Advocate.) "I thought you were working on Smith's new house," said the house painter's friend.

"I was going to," replied the house painter. "But I had a quarrel with him, and he said he'd put the paint on himself."

Progress in Manufacturing

BY FREDERIC J. HASKIN.

The National Association of Manufacturers will hold their fourteenth annual convention in New York tomorrow. Perhaps the most important thing scheduled to come before them is the question of building up an export trade, especially with South America. It is probable that the manufacturers will remain so. But voted to export business, giving the American manufacturer an advertising medium which will be printed in the language of the countries in which it is to circulate.

One is hardly prepared for the statement that in point of value of output the biggest in the United States, nor for the information that there are more men engaged in lumbering than in any other industry in the country. 40,000 of them being so engaged. The manufacture of things that are used in the home is about one-third of all the manufacturing being carried on in the United States. Add the iron and steel industry and the result is more than one-half of the total manufacturing output.

Now there are 69,000 different articles listed in the manufacturers' red book, and they are made by 600,000 manufacturers. The first red book, published in 1885, weighed three ounces. The current volume weighs thirteen pounds. (Copyright, 1909, by Frederic J. Haskin.)

AMERICAN FORK NOTES.

American Fork, May 16.—As a result of an ordinance passed by the city council last week all ice cream parlors, candy shops, soda fountains and drug stores in this city are closed up tight today, and a person cannot even get a glass of a drink of soda water. There are four candy kitchens and three drug stores in the town, and each equipped with a first-class soda fountain. The drug stores are allowed to open to fill prescriptions only in case of absolute necessity.

Funeral services over the remains of Alta, the 8-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Jones, who died on Wednesday at Twin Falls, Ida., were held this afternoon in this city. Mr. and Mrs. Jones were formerly residents of this city. The little girl died after a short illness with measles.

The water that the city has been developing for the past few months was formally turned into the system the past week. Some time ago the Joe Kelly farm, east of town, was purchased by the city for the purpose of utilizing the springs of water on the place for increasing the present water supply. On Tuesday of the past week about forty of the representative citizens accompanied the city engineer on a trip of inspection and to turn the water into the system. The new intake and the settling tank are 400 feet distant from the old one and give the system a capacity of 7,000 gallons. This, with the system of pipes from the old intake, gives the system an increase of 120,000 gallons over the original system. This gives the city a pressure of 120 pounds and will furnish water enough to supply a city of 10,000 population. The analysis secured from State Chemist Harms on the water in Utah, and American Fork can now boast of having one of the best water systems in the state.

You wash dishes about two hours every day. That's one hour wasted!

Dishes get dirty, greasy and sticky, and soap will not clean them. Soapy dish water merely cleans the surface; it doesn't dig out the corners and drive out the decayed food particles. Moreover, soap leaves your dishes with a soapy, animal fat smell that is far from inviting.

GOLD DUST is the sanitary dish washer. It not only cleans the surface, but digs deep after hidden particles of dirt and kills the germs of decayed food which ordinary dish-water overlooks. GOLD DUST sterilizes, as well as cleanses.

Besides doing the work better than soap or any other cleanser can, GOLD DUST will save just half the time you spend in washing dishes.

"Let the GOLD DUST Twins do your work."
