SOCIETY

The University club was the scene of a delightful dinner party, given last evening by Fred Smith for the members of the bridal party for the McMillan-Smith wedding, which takes place this evening. A color scheme of yellow and white was effectively carried out in the decorations, and covers were laid for twelve guests.

The second of a series of bridge teas given by Mrs. H. H. Lawson this week went with which she entertained yesterday afternoon at her home in N street. A low bowl of purple and white asters decorated the dining table, where tea was poured by Mrs. Frank Harris, assisted by Miss Allene Beasley, Miss Ruth Beasley and Miss Bessie Howard. In the parlors and halls the bright-colored autumn leaves were used with pretty effect in the decorations. Seven tables of bridge were played, and other guests came in later for the tea which followed the games.

Mrs. Frank J. Westcott entertained Thursday afternoon with a luncheon at her home in First avenue, covers being laid for eighteen guests. Four tables of bridge were played, the prize being won by Mrs. O. H. Mecklenberg. The tables were prettily decorated with the red and gold autumn leaves. The guests have formed a bridge club, to be called the Crystal club, and which will meet every second Wednesday during the winter. Mrs. O. H. Hewett was nominated for president, but declined the honor, and proposed the name of Mrs. Frank J. Westcott, who was elected to the office. The next meeting of the club will be held Wednesday, Oct. 6, at the home of Mrs. W. L. Snyder.

A delightful musicale was given by Mrs. Clark L. Whitney at her home on Ninth East street last evening, when she entertained thirty guests in honor of Miss Erma Felt. A profusion of autumn leaves was used with beautiful effect throughout the parlors, library and hall. In the dining room a color scheme of green and white was chosen for the decorations. A cluny lace cloth over green satin covered the dining table, where a large cut glass bowl of asters and ferns formed an effective centerpiece. Assisting the hostess in serving were Mrs. Jessie Hintz, Mrs. Walter Wallace and Miss Marie Morris.

Miss Erma Felt was the honored guest at a charming affair given yesterday afternoon by Mrs. Clarence Gardner at her home in Forest Dale. The parlors were decorated in asters, in the lavender and white shades. A large bowl of red nasturtiums graced the center of the dining table, and tiny red hearts were strung from the chandeliers to the corners of the room. Mrs. Gardner was assisted by Mrs. Lillie Hooper, her sisters, Mrs. Ella Coulam and Mrs. Eva Cushing, and by Mrs. Lillie Hooper. Twenty guests were present during the afternoon.

The C. R. club was entertained yesterday afternoon at a Kensington by Miss Ruby Williams at her home in Kenwood place. A mound of asters in the lavender and pink shades decorated the dining table, where dainty refreshments were served to eighteen guests. Miss Williams was assisted in serving by Mrs. A. E. Hubbard. A delightful musical program was rendered during the afternoon.

The Misses Jean and Helen Salmon entertained about twenty-five guests informally last evening at their home in B street. The complimented guest being Miss Janet Murdoch. The dining table was decorated in masses of Japanese sunflowers, and the hostess was assisted in serving by Mrs. C. J. Ross.

One of the large affairs of the week was the farewell banquet given by the Young Men's Hebrew association at the College Inn on Thursday night. The banquet was in honor of their first president and organizer, Morris Rosenblatt, who leaves early next week for New York, where he will study during the coming year. Covers were laid for twenty-four guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Seaboldt entertained at a handsomely appointed dinner last evening in honor of their guests, Mrs. Charlotte Weems and W. C. W. Schrage of Chicago.

Mrs. O. T. Wilkinson was the hostess last night at a china shower in honor of Miss Florence Kingwood, who is to be married soon.

The members of the Y. W. C. A. Friday evening held their first social of the season at their rooms in the Brooks Arcade. Miss Martha Humphrey talked about her trip through the Yosemite valley and the Grand canyon in Arizona, and Mrs. Don R. Coray talked on her recent trip through Yellowstone park. Mrs. Humphreys sang several musical selections.

One of the largest affairs of the day will be the wedding of Miss Bess McMillan and Charles Lavens Smith, the ceremony to be performed by Rev. William M. Paden this evening at 8:30 o'clock at the First Presbyterian church.

A box party will be given this afternoon at the Salt Lake theatre by Mrs. John C. Cutler in honor of Miss Ardelie Tomney, a September bride.

Eighteen guests will be entertained this afternoon by the Misses Virginia Beatty, Carey Marshall and Margaret McClure, with a matinee party to be given at the Salt Lake theatre.

Mrs. Grace Woolley will entertain with a theatre party at the Grand this afternoon, the complimented guest being Miss Erma Felt, who will be married next Wednesday.

Dr. and Mrs. Francis Burgette Short have issued invitations for a reception to be given at the parlors of the First Methodist church on Friday evening, Oct. 1.

The Women's Republican club will meet this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. J. N. Melton, 947 South Seventh East street, and will go in a body to meet the President at the reception to be given at Liberty park. All members of the club are urged to attend.

Mrs. James Hughes and daughter, Miss Mary, have returned from Long Beach and are temporarily at home at 324 East First South street.

Hugh Wood of Spencer, Ida., spent the past week in the city as the guest of his mother, Mrs. J. D. Wood.

Joseph Geoghegan and his daughters, the Misses Katherine and Gertrude Geoghegan, left last week for Indiana, where the Misses Geoghegan will re-enter school at Notre Dame.

Mrs. M. H. Kervin of Alameda, Cal., is visiting in Salt Lake, a guest at Whitehall.

Miss Cassandra Wood, who has been spending the summer in Spencer, Ida., has re-entered school at Menlo Park for the coming year.

Arrangements have been completed by Fred C. Graham for the appearance in a recital here of Louis Seigel, violinist, and Francis Hendriks, pianist, both coming direct from Europe for a brief tour of the United States. Special interest attaches to Mr. Seigel's appearance here, as he is a cousin of Miss Pearl Rothschild, the well known Salt Lake pianist.

Mrs. O. B. Hewlett has returned from several weeks spent in southern California and Nevada. While away Mrs. Hewlett was the guest for some time at the Carter ranch in southern Nevada.

Mrs. Ida Due Sosso left Wednesday evening for San Diego, where Mr. and Mrs. Sosso will spend several months.

Miss Lottie Williams will leave for her home in Virginia the latter part of the week, after spending the summer in Salt Lake as the guest of her aunt, Mrs. R. P. Kyle, on Seventh E. East street.

Mrs. H. P. Clark left Thursday for Pioche, Nev., where she will be the guest of Mrs. S. M. Whitney for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. King and daughter, Miss Virginia King, will leave the latter part of next week for a three weeks' sojourn in Florida.

Mrs. Kathleen Fitzpatrick Atkins of Denver, the well known soprano, who sang at the dedication ceremony at St. Mary's cathedral, is expected to arrive in Salt Lake this evening. Mrs. Atkins comes for the purpose of appearing at the farewell concert to be given for her brother, Edward Fitzpatrick, on Oct. 1, at the First Congregational church. Mr. Fitzpatrick will leave on Oct. 4 for Boston, to continue his study of the violin at the Boston New England Conservatory of Music.

Invitations have been issued by Mr. and Mrs. John Baird Price for the wedding of their daughter, Marion Helen Thompson, to Lue Edward Sasse, the marriage to take place Wednesday, Sept. 29. After Oct. 14 the young couple will be at home at Vienna, S. D.

Miss Thompson has a host of friends among the young people of Salt Lake, having been one of the popular teachers in the city schools for several years.

Mrs. M. A. Craig of Goldfield, Nev., arrived in Salt Lake Tuesday and will be a guest of her daughter, Mrs. N. L. McAlister, of No. 15 Kensington flats, for an indefinite stay.

The Misses McLavry will soon be at home at No. 26 in the Kensington flats.

Frank J. Wright of the Telluride company at Olmstead, who has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Wright, the past week, left Tuesday for Cornell university, to continue his studies in electrical engineering.

MARRIAGE LICENSES. Hyrum S. Baird, Salt Lake; Anna Viola Johnson, Salt Lake; Charles L. Smith, Salt Lake; Bess McMillan, Salt Lake.

UNIVERSITY NOTES. President J. T. Kingsbury will leave this morning to attend the annual meeting of the National Association of State Universities, which will be held in Boston on Oct. 9 and 10. He will present a statistical report of the standing of the university to the association. While there he will deliver a lecture on "The Proper Organization of State Scientific Work for State Universities." Before returning he will attend the inauguration of President Percival Lowell of Harvard university.

President J. T. Kingsbury delivered an able address of welcome to the university students at the opening chapel exercises Friday. He said in part: "The thing which will make our university a successful one is our continual daily effort. The University of Utah is at the head of the educational institutions of Utah. You are responsible for the character of the university. The university is held responsible for the character of citizens which it turns out. It is generally admitted that the average male student is of low moral standing. Low moral standing means low work and

The Proof We have given the public "much talk" of late regarding diamonds and how and where to buy them, and we have in a modest way claimed to be recognized as leaders in our craft as diamond merchants. Talk, however, is cheap (anyone can buy space in newspapers) and to show our sincerity, we will put on display this week in our north window some of our jeweled wares and invite the inspection and criticism of the public. The display will be left in the window under guard until 10 P. M. every night until September 25th, and as it is for the purpose of showing you that the diamond center of the West is at Leysons we shall expect you. Our wares in all departments are not selected at random but instead, every piece is here because of exceptional design or quality and our prices are based on true merit. low work means poor citizens. I do not believe that the average male student of the university is of low moral character, but I wish to urge upon you the necessity of remaining clean. At the meeting of the university students held at noon Friday, President J. T. Kingsbury urged the students to take every precaution for the stamping out of typhoid fever. He urged them to boil all of their milk and water and to throw away all food with which they had come in contact. At the meeting of the hygiene class Wednesday afternoon, Professor John Z. Brown will deliver a lecture on "Typhoid Fever and the House Fly."
