SAMUEL NEWHOUSE WILL BUILD OGDEN THEATRE

Balt Lake Magnate, En Route to Paris, Promises to Erect a Fine Playhouse.

(Special to The Herald-Republican.) Ogden, Dec. 4.—Samuel Newhouse is to build a theatre in Ogden for the William Morris circuit. In a hurried interview at the Union depot this afternoon, Mr. Newhouse made the announcement while waiting for his train to pull out for the east, the mining magnate being bound for Paris, where his brother, Mott Newhouse, is reported to be dying.

JURY WILL ESTIMATE DAMAGE TO PROPERTY

(Special to The Herald-Republican.) Ogden, Dec. 4.—Monday the jury in the case of J. S. Lewis against the Ogden Rapid Transit company will take a trip to the Lewis property in Ogden canyon to determine for itself the probable amount of damage done by the passing of the electric line to the Hermitage through the grove. Since the trial opened nearly a week ago, expert witnesses have placed the amount of damage all the way from $5,000 to $11,000. It is expected the case will be concluded Monday afternoon.

HUNTSVILLE AGAIN.

This Time Citizens Do Not Care to Disincorporate.

(Special to The Herald-Republican.) Ogden, Dec. 4.—Further litigation over the matter of disincorporating the city of Huntsville, a place of 2,000 people in Ogden valley, has brought the case again into the district court and if the more progressive faction of the town are successful proceedings looking to the disincorporation will be dropped. Judge J. A. Howell set the case for December 15. The petition for disincorporation came from the majority of the citizens, following a long and bitter fight as to methods of municipal government. The fight took on feudal proportions and the strife became so strenuous as to injure the city. Since the petition was filed in the Second district court many of the Huntsville business men have reconsidered the proposition and will ask to have the matter thrown out of court at the next hearing.

FORESTRY BUSINESS.

Agent of Forestry Department Says Ogden is Important Office.

Ogden, Dec. 4.—The annual business of the Ogden office of the forestry department totals more than $700,000, the greater part of which is spent in Ogden, according to E. A. Molnar, district agent of the forestry department at Washington, who is here for a general inspection of the accounts of the Ogden office. Mr. Molnar arrived from Washington yesterday and will be here for three weeks. Because of its central location for distribution to all western points, Ogden is becoming one of the most important points in the forest service, says Mr. Molnar. District No. 4, of which Ogden is the headquarters point, is one of the largest and most important districts on the continent. It comprises the forests of Wyoming, Colorado, parts of Nevada and Idaho as well as all of Utah.

TO SING IRRIGATION ODE

Concert to Be Given in the Tabernacle Will Be a Most Important Event.

(Special to The Herald-Republican.) Ogden, Dec. 4.—Of great musical interest during the coming week in Ogden is the concert to be given in the tabernacle Tuesday night by the choir and a number of soloists of state-wide repute. The great "Irrigation Ode," sung but half a dozen times since its composition by Prof. J. J. McClellan several years ago, will be rendered as the prime feature of the concert. The composer himself will preside at the organ by the courtesy of S. F. Whitaker, local organist. The ode, for the rendition of which the Chicago Tribune opened unsuccessful negotiations with the management of the Ogden tabernacle choir to have that body of singers go to Chicago to sing before the big land exposition, is classed as one of the greatest musical classics of modern times. It contains forty-five pages of music and requires thirty minutes for the rendition. Several Salt Lake soloists, including Horace Ensign, Fred C. Graham and Mrs. Hazel Taylor Perry, will add to the concert. Mr. Ensign, Utah's favorite baritone, will sing a group of songs, as will Fred C. Graham. The seat sale, which is in the hands of the choir members, up to Saturday night indicates that the tabernacle will be crowded to overflowing the night of the concert.

OGDEN GETTING A TASTE OF REAL WINTER WEATHER

Ogden, Dec. 4.—With the thermometer registering only 8 degrees above zero, Ogden is getting its first taste of real winter weather this year. Men say that if the present cold spell lasts several days longer they will be able to reap the first harvest before the actual beginning of winter. Cold mountain winds from the north and east are accompanying the snow flurries that have fallen for several days, causing the severest weather in many years for this season of the year.

MEN WITH MANY SHOES ARE IN STOCKING FEET

Ogden, Dec. 4.—Charged with stealing two pairs of shoes, William Hall and Frank Shaffrey appeared in police court this morning in their stocking feet. Hall and Shaffrey were arrested last Sunday night in connection with a box car robbery in the Ogden yards. Not only the ten pairs of shoes they had in their possession, but even those they wore, were found to be part of the loot stolen from the box car, and were confiscated. They pleaded not guilty and will be given preliminary hearing Monday.

"AGE'S CALL FOR HEALTH," IS SUBJECT OF LECTURE

Ogden, Dec. 4.—"The Age's Call for Health," one of a series of lectures on religion and medicine by the Rev. Noble Strong, pastor of the First Congregational church Sunday evening. Mr. Dalrymple, Mr. White, Miss Holdberg and Miss Gunnell are to sing. Much interest is being manifested in this series of sermons, in which the science of suggestion is coupled with religious principles for the betterment of life in general.

CASH BAD CHECK.

(Special to The Herald-Republican.) Ogden, Dec. 4.—The Banks Millinery company today cashed a worthless check for $25.00, which was signed by J. H. Smith, and who obtained $24.00 upon the representation that the check was genuine. It was signed by E. F. Farr, who Mr. Farr repudiated the check, the police were given a description of Smith.

MISS WILSON SINGS.

Ogden, Dec. 4.—Miss Flora Wilson gave a concert here tonight which was largely attended by society people. Carl Kinn, Miss Virginia, made a distinct hit. Miss Wilson is the guest of David Eccles' family during her stay here.

WELDER CANYON CUT-OFF WILL BE BUILT SOON

Julius Kruttschnitt Ridicules Strike, but Tells of Plan to Shorten Route.

(Special to The Herald-Republican.) Ogden, Dec. 4.—Julius Kruttschnitt, director of maintenance and operation for the Harriman system, ridicules the report of a general strike impending on the Harriman system. He returned to Ogden this morning in an accompanying the Lovett party as far east as Green River. Here he joined Mrs. Kruttschnitt and other members of the family, continuing on to California this afternoon. "Aside from the inconvenience to traffic we will experience in our connections with the roads now affected, we do not expect any trouble from the switchmen's strike," said Mr. Kruttschnitt. Concerning telegraph reports this morning to the effect that the strike would affect eastern lines as well as those of the northwest and probably would result in a general strike of traffic all over the continent, he said the story was much exaggerated. He also said that the Harriman system would get their shipments in early in anticipation of trouble, but that the long talked-of cut-off from Weber canyon to Farmington, calculated to eliminate Ogden from the route taken by the through trains from Los Angeles to Chicago over the San Pedro and Union Pacific roads, will be ready by the year, according to Mr. Kruttschnitt.

DROPS DEAD WHILE AT WORK IN HIS FIELDS

Will Anderson, Supposed to Have Been Attacked by Epilepsy, Dies Suddenly.

(Special to The Herald-Republican.) Richfield, Dec. 4.—Will Anderson, one of the business men of Richfield, was found dead in the fields east of here about 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon. He had gone to the fields in the morning to feed some cattle, and when he did not return at noon his wife became alarmed. Messrs. Jordan and Huntington, the two Seventh Day Adventists, who are staying at Anderson's, started for the field to look for the missing man. When they arrived at the haystacks in Anderson's field they found the body of Anderson lying on the ground close to the stack where he had been at work. The body was still warm, and a physician was summoned. He stated that the man had been dead several hours. It was supposed that he was stricken with an attack while at work on the stack of hay and fell to the ground. He leaves a widow and two children and numerous other relatives here.

ELKS' LODGE OF SORROW

All Park City Churches Will Suspend Services That Congregations May Attend.

(Special to The Herald-Republican.) Park City, Dec. 4.—Park City lodge No. 734, B. P. O. E., will hold the annual lodge of sorrow in the Dewey theatre about 8 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The churches will suspend services so that everybody may attend the Elks' service. Departed members whose memory will be honored are: H. B. Younger, H. M. Short and W. J. Willoughby. The memorial committee having the ceremonies in charge consists of Frank A. Shields, George Quinn and Paul W. Billings. The program follows: Roll call, James Dony ceremonial responses, officers of lodge; invocation, Dr. C. M. Wilson, chaplain; solo, Mrs. E. H. Wells; duet, Misses Geneva Harris and May Williams; eulogy, the Rev. C. L. Martin; solo, with violin obbligato, Miss Geneva Harris and Fritz Westester; recitation, Miss Clara Kimball; duet, Misses Harris and Williams; closing ceremonies, lodge officers; "Doxology," lodge and audience.

GIVEN BED, BUT HELD ON VAGRANCY CHARGE

(Special to The Herald-Republican.) Provo, Dec. 4.—W. R. Dean and R. H. Harrison appeared at the police station last night and asked to be given a bed. Their request was granted, but when they sought release this morning they were face to face with a charge of vagrancy. The two men came to Provo Friday morning on a freight train from Salt Lake, so they said. They were drinking more or less all day. They were next dressed and chained and were working in Salt Lake for the last month soliciting for some photographer. They were begging at the saloons. It is on the alleged soliciting of alms that they are to be tried.

GOING TO APPLE SHOW.

Provo Citizens Will Charter Cars for Denver Exhibition. Provo, Dec. 4.—The apple show to be given in Denver from January 3 to 9 is attracting the attention of Provo fruit raisers. Many of whom sent fruit. A movement is on foot to have two cars chartered for passengers from Provo. The following committee has been appointed to make arrangements: William M. Roylance, Joseph T. Farrer, J. David Hansen, W. H. Ray, Alex. Heavquist, H. C. Hicks, W. F. Giles, R. R. Irvine, Jr., G. J. Carpenter. The committee will meet with the Provo Commercial club next Wednesday night, when the details of the trip will be discussed.

WAREHOUSE DISMANTLED.

Ogden, Dec. 4.—The pioneer warehouse of Ogden is now dismantled and will soon be razed to the ground to make room for the gigantic freight depot being built by the Harriman system. The building is that of the Fred J. Kiesel company. It was erected thirty years ago, and has twice been destroyed by fire.

JURY COMMISSIONERS.

(Special to The Herald-Republican.) Ogden, Dec. 4.—Valasco Farr and J. H. Knutsen were appointed jury commissioners for 1910 by the district court this afternoon.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

(Special to The Herald-Republican.) Ogden, Dec. 4.—Marriage licenses were issued to Alexander Brown and Ida Lutz of Randolph, Utah, and to Frank Conroy, Pasadilla, and Theresa Radt, Denver, by the county clerk this afternoon.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—The Washington diplomatic circle is to lose neither Ambassador James Bryce, from Great Britain, nor Count von Bernstorff, the United States. The rumors that these distinguished diplomats were to be replaced by other envoys are utterly without foundation, and the announcement that they are to remain in their present positions is a great relief to their friends in official life. Reports were in circulation that Ambassador Bryce was to be recalled and replaced by Sir Maurice De Bunsen, British ambassador to Spain. These reports are not credited by the state department. Rumor also had it that Count von Bernstorff was to be made German ambassador to London in order that he might further the friendly relations between Germany and England.

A Great Mid-Season

Bargain IN Men's Suits

Beginning tomorrow (Monday) morning the Gardner Store will place on sale several hundred Men's Suits, worth from $8.50 to $15, at the ridiculously low price of $7.50

We have more than double the number of medium priced Suits that we should have at this season, and rather than carry them over we are going to give the public the benefit, by placing them on sale at a price that has no regard for cost or value.

Every Suit was a Gardner incomparable value at the regular price. Seven dollars and fifty cents hardly pays the cost of making.

Patterns are all dark—mostly gray and brown mixtures, in stripes and checks. If you want a good Suit for little money, now is your opportunity.

CAPITAL FILLING UP FOR WINTER SESSION

Congress Meets Monday, but Will Adjourn Out of Respect to Deceased Members.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—With the opening of the first regular session of the Sixty-first congress but two days away, senators and representatives from near and far are arriving in Washington today.

Following a time-honored custom, both houses will adjourn soon after sunset at noon on Monday out of respect to the memory of those members who have died during the recess of congress.

Senator Johnson of North Dakota and several weeks ago, and his successor already has been chosen and probably will take the oath of office on Tuesday.

NEW HOME OF CHIPPEWAS

Chief Rock Boy and His Braves Now Established on the Blackfeet Reservation.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—Chief Rock Boy and his band of 125 Chippewa braves are now officially at home in their new hunting grounds on the Blackfeet reservation in Montana, and 1,200,000 acres in Valley county of that state, which were withdrawn to make a home for the Indians, have been reopened to settlement.

Rock Boy and his tribe got a real example of rapid transit in Indian affairs. The department of the interior had intended to let them locate in Valley county, near the Fort Peck reservation. But the white settlers protested, and the department became convinced the red men would do better in a land where they could hunt and fish; on November 1 Superintendent Logan of the Fort Belknap Indian school was instructed to find a new place for Rock Boy, and within two weeks he had them all on a special train-speeding for the new hunting grounds on the Blackfeet reservation.

HURRIES TO PARIS.

Samuel Newhouse left for Paris yesterday afternoon immediately after he received a telegram from his mother saying that his brother, Mott Newhouse, was in a serious condition, and asking him to come at once.

Mr. Newhouse had been expecting this telegram for some time, as he said in an interview given to The Herald-Republican two weeks ago. Mott Newhouse has a large estate in France, and it is probable that the Salt Lake brother will be detained in Paris for several months attending to his brother's affairs.

SO FAR, SO GOOD. (Life.) The pastor of a small country flock was generally accounted a rather dull and prosy preacher. Returning from market one day with a small trout, he accosted a neighbor. "Good morning, Jones," said the minister; "let me show you a fine trout; I'm using these for brain food." "Wh-th-that's a nice little f-f-fish; was the reply, "but what you really n-n-need, elder, is a wh-wh-wh-what!"

ANOTHER CANCER VICTIM AUTHORITIES UNABLE TO DECIDE QUESTION

Death of George Crocker, Son of California Millionaire Pioneer, After Long Illness.

New York, Dec. 4.—George Crocker, son of the late California millionaire pioneer, died at 5:30 this afternoon at his home in Fifth avenue in this city. Death followed an illness of several years. At the bedside were a number of relatives, including William H. Crocker, a brother, and Mrs. C. B. Alexander, his sister.

Mr. Crocker's death had been expected for several weeks. William H. Crocker was recently called from Europe, and Mrs. Alexander and other relatives were summoned from California. Following the death from cancer five years ago of his wife, Mr. Crocker had not been well, and two years ago he himself was operated upon for a cancerous growth. For several months he had been confined to his bed.

A few years after the death of his father George Crocker came into an estate valued at several millions. He had been active in business until his illness.

Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

ARMED MEN HAVE WATCH

Police Believe Property Was Stolen From Some Woman.

(Special to The Herald-Republican.) Provo, Dec. 4.—At an early hour this morning Police Officer James Snow arrested ten men at the depot. Among the men run in for the night were Sam Devaney and J. W. Bradshaw. These two men were armed with six-shooters, slungshots and wore false mustaches. They had about $5 between them and, among other things, a woman's gold and chain. In the back of the watch is the following inscription: "Blanch Hoagland, from Papa, 12-12-'06." They will be arraigned before A. A. Noon Monday on a charge of carrying concealed weapons. The others were given a breakfast and doctored.

HABIT MAY COST FREEDOM

"Man Who Sniffs" Accused of Passing Bad Checks.

When "the man who sniffs" arrives in Salt Lake, he will find the local police department all cocked and primed for his reception. G. M. Piper is "the man who sniffs," and he is wanted by the police of Oakland, Cal., for passing bad checks. He is remembered by the police and certain business men in Salt Lake, who say he left a trail of worthless paper in this city about two years ago. He got out of Salt Lake just in time to escape arrest at the time of his last visit.

Piper is distinguished by his habit of sniffing when excited. He has posed as traveling salesman for a manufacturing firm in Akron, O., and is accompanied by a woman who passes as his wife.

In a communication to Chief of Detectives George Sheets, Chief of Police A. Wilson of Oakland states that he is particularly anxious to land Piper behind the bars.
