

SOCIETY

TODAY'S EVENTS.

The home of Mrs. James E. Jennings in East South Temple street will be the scene of a tea this afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock, the affair being complimentary to Mrs. J. L. Franken and Miss Georgina Webber, who have recently returned from an extended European trip.

CHILDREN WHO ARE SICKLY

Mother's who value their own comfort and the welfare of their children, should never be without a box of Mother Gray's Sweet Powders for Children, for use throughout the season.

Dunn, Miss Alice Wall, Miss Edna Farnsworth and Miss Minette Baer, Pink and white sweet peas were charmingly used in the decorations.

A charming affair was the rose luncheon with which Mrs. Hubbard Reed entertained yesterday at the Country club. The luncheon was served in the private dining room, which was effectively decorated in roses of variegated hues.

Dr. and Mrs. George V. Schramm entertained a few friends informally last night at bridge in honor of Mr. and Mrs. U. G. Moser.

Among the bridge teas of yesterday afternoon was that with which Mrs. William T. Benson entertained at her home in East South Temple street.

The closing game in a series being played by the Crystal Card club was played yesterday afternoon, when Mrs. F. J. Westcott entertained the members at her home in First avenue.

A meeting of the directors and the building and finance committees of the Ladies' Literary club will be held this morning at 11 o'clock at the club house in Third South street.

The history section of the Ladies' Literary club will meet this morning at 10:15 o'clock at the club house.

Tuesday afternoon, May 31, Mrs. Quigley will be the hostess for the club Friday afternoon, May 27, and Mrs. Tierman will entertain the members Friday afternoon, June 5.

Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Lundgren announce the engagement of their daughter, Edythe, to Albert E. Sears, the wedding to take place in the near future.

Miss Marie Thomas, whose marriage to Clyde Lindsay will take place Wednesday, June 15, was the complimentary guest at a picture shower given yesterday afternoon, with Mrs. F. W. Wonnacott as the hostess.

One of the pretty affairs of Wednesday was the five hundred party with which Mrs. Robert Taylor entertained, complimentary to Miss Marion Brooks and Miss Teresa Godde.

Among those giving box parties at the benefit performance at the Colonial theatre last night, were Mr. and Mrs. George U. Wallace, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Kearns, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Allen, Mrs. W. S. McCormick, A. W. North and E. M. Baughey.

Mrs. Howard H. Lawson was the hostess yesterday afternoon at a bridge tea with which she delightedly entertained the members of the Wednesday Afternoon Bridge club.

Miss Marguerite Stewart, who is attending school in New York, has been visiting at West Point, the guest of Captain and Mrs. Mayback.

Announcement is made by F. W. Gardiner of the engagement of his daughter, Fannie L. Gardiner, to Edward George Evans, the wedding to take place in June.

Many friends will be interested in the announcement made by Mr. and Mrs. Jesse W. Fox of the engagement of their daughter, Esther Vida, to Chester Y. Clawson. The wedding will be one of the prominent June events.

Mrs. H. D. Ellerbeck and daughter, Miss Ada, have returned from a six months' visit in Seattle and are now at home with Mrs. R. C. Pitt, in First West and North Temple streets.

Mr. and Mrs. John J. Toronto and children expect to sail from Naples to arrive in New York about June 1, after a three years' sojourn in Europe. Professor J. B. Toronto will remain in Europe for several months yet.

Mrs. E. Schofield announces the engagement of her daughter, Irene, to Charles W. Coleman, the marriage to take place in June.

Mrs. S. O. S. Neiden will be the hostess at an informal luncheon to be given Friday at her home in P street. The guests will be active members of the music section of the Ladies' Literary club, who have been associated with Mrs. Neiden in her work as chairman of the section.

A number of pre-matrimonial affairs are being planned for Miss Marion Brooks and Miss Teresa Godde, two popular brides-elect. Mrs. Percy define it. There is no blend of tobacco so imperial in quality, so distinguished from all others. It challenges imitation.
