Three Languages Spoken in Divorce Matinee; 4 Decrees

MR. AND Mrs. AUGUSTINE GRUMIAUX, with a French and Swedish interpreter to translate their respective troubles into English, furnished a diversion at the weekly divorce matinee before Judge C. W. Morse yesterday afternoon.

By terms of a ten-year lease, Charles Seybolt has secured control of the new Rathskeller to be opened under the Kenyon hotel and work will begin soon for turning the place into one of the finest of the kind in the city.

Four divorces were granted yesterday. One decree went to Arden D. Chapman, who charged desertion against Bertha W. Chapman, and a divorce was granted Susan Adams in her suit against John A. Adams, whom she charged with non-support.

Isaac D. Erickson, who charged that his wife frankly admitted that she only married him to spite his mother and to make life a burden by a decree of divorce, and Pete Pantjan won his suit for a divorce from Augusta Pantjan on his representation that she had deserted him without cause two years ago.
