RAILROAD COMMISSIONS ARE CAUSE OF ALL THE TROUBLE

At Rate Hearing, Traffic Manager Says Row Between Shipper and Roads Could Be Adjusted With State Boards Out of It

CHICAGO, Oct. 31.—Stanley H. Johnson, assistant freight traffic manager of the Rock Island lines, declared before the interstate commerce commission that certain state railroad commissions are causing most of the trouble between the shippers and the railroads.

Johnson's statement was made while he was being questioned by Commissioners Lane and Clark, who intimated their belief that the railroads are not satisfied with regulation because it limits their power to increase revenues.

The hearing of the proposed advances in rates will be concluded tomorrow and the evidence will then be reviewed in Washington before a decision is announced.

In conducting the examination of Johnson, Commissioner Lane at once deviated into the action of the railroads previous to the existence of the various commerce commissions.

"State commissions are an embarrassment and all the trouble between the shippers and the railroads could be adjusted in a satisfactory manner if they were out of it," Johnson said.

THE DEMOCRATIC TRIBUNE DEAL

O. W. POWERS, it seems, is being talked about as the Democratic senator from Utah under the Democratic-Tribune deal. As he is the attorney for the Tribune, Mr. Powers would be eminently satisfactory to that paper.

Mayor John S. Bransford may lose some of his activity when he learns this. Mr. Bransford has been having confidential talks with the saloon men of the city, and assuring them that in the event of an American victory in the county, there will be no liquor legislation at all.

Mr. Bransford, as a Democrat, nationally, has no trouble in understanding the local Democratic leaders, and as mayor of Salt Lake, with the municipality in his clutches, he would have to be consulted about the deal. Therefore Mr. Bransford knows what the Democratic leaders have promised.

That this is true was patent yesterday when orders were issued from Tribune headquarters to every Tribune party worker to trade everything else on the ticket for county commissioners, clerk and assessor.

With the county assessor in the control of the Tribune, it would be possible next year to boost the city valuation ten millions, and get several hundred thousand dollars a year more out of the general tax levy, and it would not be necessary to raise the tax levy again.

Frank J. Cannon, former Democratic state chairman, and jaibird, and Fred T. Dubois, former Democratic United States senator from Idaho, were very busy for a time, but have fallen by the wayside. They were brought here to help hold the non-Mormons in line for the Democratic-Tribune deal.

Here is the statement which The Herald-Republican published some days before Dubois left, and he did not deny it. Here is what he said in the presence of half a dozen men ament the Democratic-Tribune deal, and it is a safe proposition that Dubois knew what he was talking about:

The Democratic leaders in Utah figure that they can turn over one-fourth of the Democratic vote in Salt Lake county to the "American" party, because they are anxious to beat the Republicans, and realize the only way they can accomplish this is to help the "American" ticket.

Dubois knew what he was talking about, because he got his information in the Tribune office. Jim Moyle ought to sue Dubois for slander, as the Democratic corresponding secretary holds that it is libelous to "accuse" anyone of "supporting" the "American" ticket.

FIFTY-EIGHT NAMES ADDED TO THE CARNEGIE HERO LIST

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 31.—Fifty-eight names were added to the Carnegie hero fund commission. For acts of heroism thirty silver and twenty-eight bronze medals were awarded the life-savers, or their families in cases where death resulted.

In addition cash awards aggregating $10,250 were made in thirty-three of the cases. The cash to be used for educational or other worthy purposes, at the discretion of the executive commission, while in twenty-three other cases of rescue or attempted rescue, where the heroes died, pensions ranging from $20 to $75 a month were made to the dependents, with $5 a month additional for each child.

TECHNICALITIES BRUSHED ASIDE BY SUPREME COURT

Opinion by Justice Holmes Which Brings No Comfort to Convicted Murderer

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—A man's constitutional rights are not necessarily violated because the jurymen trying him on a charge of murder are allowed to separate and to read newspapers during the trial, it was held today by the supreme court of the United States.

The court held similarly in regard to the refusal of a judge to send the jury out of the court room during arguments on the admissibility of evidence.

Furthermore, the court laid down the rule that the act of requiring the accused to put on a coat, alleged to have been worn when the crime charged was committed, did not amount to "treating the prisoner to testify against himself."

These points were made in the decision of the court in refusing to interfere with the sentence of life imprisonment imposed by the federal court of western Washington upon James H. Holt on a charge of having murdered Henry E. Johnson in Fort Warren barracks, Washington.

GAVE UP HIS LIFE TO SAVE THREE CHILDREN

Lynn, Mass., Oct. 31.—To save three children who had wandered onto the Boston & Maine railroad tracks in front of an express train, Stephen Jones gave up his life today.

The children were crossing the track unaware of the approaching train, when Jones ran toward the spot and warned them of their danger by his shouts, so that they escaped. He misjudged the speed and distance of the train, and the engine struck him and leaves a family.
