THE DAILY PATTERN

A NATTY LITTLE PROCK. Girl's one-piece dress, with round or standing collar and with or without cuffs. Blue serge was employed for this model, with frogs and loops of black and black stitching for a finish. One-piece dresses are always popular and comfortable, they launder easily, if made of wash fabrics, and the style is suitable for all dress materials. Deep tucks form a panel over the front and back; the sleeves in a one-piece log of nuton model. The pattern is cut in four sizes—four, six, eight and ten years. It requires four yards of ten-year size. A pattern of this illustration mailed to any address on receipt of 10 cents in silver of stamps. No. 8845.

High School Notes

The senior class held a meeting yesterday noon and considered arrangements for Red and Black day at the high school and the meaning of it. The meeting was called to order by President Charles Howard and Principal Eaton also talked to the seniors about their plans.

The athletic meeting which was to have been called yesterday was postponed on account of the senior meeting, but it will be held today at noon instead, and five minutes will be taken from each period so that they will have plenty of time to discuss whatever business comes up.

There was no drill for the cadets yesterday on account of the campus being so wet.

The debate in the fourth period history class, "Resolved, That the Postal Savings System is Beneficial to the United States" was won by Fred Nichols and Henry Oberndorf, who had the affirmative side of the question.

The cadet officers met after school yesterday and talked over the plan for their dance which will be given sometime next month. Last year the dance was strictly invitational, but this year everybody is invited.

The second game of the girls class series will be played off tomorrow night in the gymnasium when the seniors and the sophomores and the juniors and the freshmen will play.

11 SHOPPING DAYS UNTIL CHRISTMAS

Advertisement for Keyser Fireproof Storage Co. featuring an illustration of a woman carrying a large box labeled 'MERRY CHRISTMAS'. Text: "It is FASHIONABLE NOW TO CARRY SMALL PACKAGES".

The Christmas Rush Has Started

It means crowded aisles and quick buying--if you delay much longer. The solution is forenoon shopping. The crowds come in the afternoon; you try and come in the forenoon.

Express and Postoffice Booth

After you have made your purchase, go to the express and postoffice booth and your packages will be wrapped, receipted for and sent away. No trouble to you. Saves long waits at the express office or postoffice.

No Approvals; No Transfers

This is done to facilitate Xmas shopping; to save time in delivery by not having to use drivers, helpers and teams for approvals; simplifies shopping in the rush by eliminating from our service the usual transfers.

Carry Small Packages

Not much trouble to you, but a decided help to us. It will greatly relieve the pressure on our delivery service. It means the quicker delivery of important parcels.

When Noontime Comes Take Lunch With Us

In our handsome new dining room a most excellent lunch is served for 35c--AND NO TIPS. If you do not care for a regular lunch, just order what you want. Prices are a little less than elsewhere.

We Pick Out the Good Things

In Jewelry we've been picking out reliable goods for nearly fifty years. Unless you've had that much experience, you had better rely upon our guaranty of quality.

We're responsible for our own mistakes, if we make any. We'll make good if you lose.

Right now we're showing a line of jewelry of which any New York store may well be proud. There's hardly a present you could think of that isn't here--certainly the most appropriate and most acceptable gifts are.

We lay articles aside for future purchase without a deposit. We assume that you are as reliable as we are.
