Peach Day at Brigham

The people of Brigham overdid themselves in preparation for the great day which has made Brigham City famous, and visitors were royally entertained so far as they would accept the courtesies profusely displayed, and there was an air of pleasing cleanliness about the whole city. Many of the public places within easy access of the heart of the city were turned into temporary dining-rooms and lunch counters, and at a score of places along the city streets, choice peaches, watermelons and cantaloupes were given away to any and all who would ask for them.

There were fully 5,000 excursionists and visitors from various parts of the state; principally from Cache county, Salt Lake City and Ogden, who enjoyed the hospitality of the good people of Brigham City. Most of the the excursion trains were met at the station by brass bands and committees of citizens, and then escorted to the Box Elder county tabernacle, where Mayor C. Holst delivered an address of welcome, extending to them the hospitality of the city and the freedom to help themselves to all the peaches in sight.

At 11 o'clock the peach wagons got busy. About fifty heavily-laden wagons started down the principal streets of the city and hundreds of cases of peaches were distributed at convenient points for the visitors. Those Brigham peaches are certainly beauties.

At noon the women of the Academy of Music served an elegant dinner at the academy, and from 12:30 until 3:30 p.m. the Brigham City Military Band gave a concert at the court house square. At 2 p.m. dancing was begun in the large pavilion of the academy of music, and again at 8 p.m. continuing until the small hours of the morning.

One of the chief centers of attraction during the afternoon was the baseball game between the Brigham City and Bountiful teams. Bountiful everlastingly did the Brigham boys up to the tune of 6 to 2. Grant, the Bountiful star artist, had the Indian sign on the Brighamites, and at opportune times made them appear helpless. He allowed only five hits, and except for some dizzy playing by his team-mates in the sixth inning, would have made the game a shutout.

A Real Snake Story.

While digging in a gravel pit west of town a few days ago, one of the men working there uncovered two white eggs that resembled hen's eggs, being of the same size. He took them to Supt. T. H. Edwards at the Utah Sugar Co's office and Mr. Edwards began experimenting with them. He opened one of the eggs and it contained a baby rattle snake twelve inches in length. The snake and the other egg were put into a bottle of alcohol to preserve them and are on exhibition at The Utah Sugar Co's laboratory. Mr. Edwards brought the bottle containing the egg and snake to this office and we had "snakes" till he came and took it away. The baby snake is a real rattler, although too young to have a rattle.

Political Matters.

The Democratic county convention to elect delegates to the state convention, is to be held in the Brigham court house next Saturday, Sept. 29th.

At the Republican state convention held in Salt Lake Thursday, Sept. 20th, Joseph Howell was re-nominated to succeed himself and Joseph E. Frick was nominated for the supreme bench. The result of the balloting for congressman was as follows: Howell 835, Christensen 137, Fishburn 27. The vote for supreme judge was: Frick 274, Morse 198, Hulanski 61.

Louis Gets of Point Lookout was in town on business yesterday.

B. H. Phelps went to Garland last Saturday where he will remain the coming nine weeks in the employ of The Utah Sugar Co.—Globe Header, Payson, Utah.

Opening of Public Schools.

The public schools of this city and vicinity, with the exception of the higher grades, opened Monday with the following teachers in attendance: Garland, Mrs. Retta Jensen in charge of the beginners, 1st and 2nd grades; Garland North, Miss Lenora Rouser and East Garland Miss Ruth Larsen. The enrollment on the opening day was as follows: Garland 42, East Garland 18, Garland North 23. Quite a few students were enrolled in the above mentioned schools after the opening day.

All the grades of the Garland school will open next Monday, Sept. 24, with Burdett Smith as principal. Miss Leah Bush, who was to assist Mr. Smith, has secured a position in the schools at Salt Lake City and the services of another lady teacher will be secured soon.

Angus Vance will be the instructor of the higher grades at Garland North and W. E. Hall will have charge of the higher grades at East Garland. October 15th is the date set for opening the higher grades of the two respective schools mentioned above.

The public school building of this city has been thoroughly cleaned and calcimined and presents an inviting appearance.

A brick addition is being built to the Garland North school house.

Assigns.

A. R. Smith, who has conducted a butcher business in this city for several months, assigned to the Utah Association of Creditmen for the benefit of his creditors Saturday last. J. T. Young, Secretary of H. L. Griffin & Co. at Ogden, and Herbert Van Dam, representing the association have spent several days in this city adjusting matters connected with the assignment. The liabilities will amount to about $1,000 and the assets will probably bring $600.

We were informed yesterday that Dan Parry, who formerly owned the business and sold to Smith, has purchased the shop and fixtures again and will conduct the business hereafter.

The Tout Family Concert.

The residents of this city and vicinity will be given an opportunity next Wednesday evening of listening to a grand concert by the Tout family at the Amusement Hall. The Misses Nannie, Maggie and Hazel Tout and their father Mr. E. F. Tout all take part in the concert. In conversation with Mr. Shorten we were informed that Miss Nannie Tout would be heard in a number of her choice selections.

Y. L. M. I. A. Social.

The social and dance given under the auspices of the Y. L. M. I. Assn. at the Amusement Hall Tuesday evening proved a very pleasing and entertaining affair.

The social was to have been given on Annual Day, Sept. 18th, but was postponed owing to the death of Bertha Campbell. Invitations were sent to all members of the association and many outside of the organization, with the hope of interesting them in mutual work.

The Military Band took part in the social and helped to make it a success. The following program was carried out: Piano Solo.....Elissa Manning Sketch—Life of Elmina S. Taylor..... Mrs. Lucy A. Clark Violin Solo, Piano Accom..... Jos. Kirkham Solo..... Jennie Wanless Music..... Military Band

Delicious refreshments were served and the Military Band rendered a number of choice selections. After the refreshments were served, those present participated in dancing. Punch was served during the evening's enjoyment.

Where It Was Done.

Joe Burns, he cut ten cords of wood
From rise to set o' sun;
He cut it, and he piled it, too,
Yes, sir, that's w'at he done.
To cut ten cord o' wood, I vow,
Is one tremendous chore—
Joe Burns cut his behind the stove
In Grover, Rose's store.

Joe Burns, he cut eight load o' hay,
I swan, an' raked it, too,
An' it is twelve hours by the clock
He was entirely through.
He could, I guess, before he slept,
Cut jes' as many more,
He cut it where he did the wood—
In Grover, Rose's store.

Joe Burns, he plowed four acres o'nt,
He plowed it good an' neat;
An' fore the sun had near gone down
The job was all complete.
The horses never turned a hair,
Wasn't tired, nor less' bit sore,
He plowed it all in one short day—
In Grover, Rose's store.

Open Switch Derails Train.

Monday evening the north-bound passenger via the Majad Valley branch, ran into an open switch at Samaria, Idaho, and the engine and baggage car were derailed. A wrecking outfit was sent out and the trouble soon fixed up. No particular damage is reported. Several hours delay was caused by the incident but the train came back the next morning and has been making the regular trip as usual.

Pain from a Burn Promptly Relieved by Chamberlain's Pain Balm.

A little child of Michael Strauss, of Vernon, Conn., was recently in great pain from a burn on the hand, and as cold applications only increased the inflammation, Mr. Strauss came to Mr. James N. Nichols, a local merchant, for something to stop the pain. Mr. Nichols says: "I advised him to use Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and the first application drew out the inflammation and gave immediate relief. I have used this liniment myself and recommend it very often for cuts, burns, strains and lame back, and have never known it to disappoint." For sale by Ritter Bros. Drug Co.
