Tout Family Concert.

The Tout family concert given at the Amusement Hall last Tuesday evening drew a crowded house and the excellent program rendered, far surpassed any musical event ever presented in this city or vicinity. Rounds of applause followed every number on the program and encores were numerous. It was pleasing to note the ready response given to encores, and notwithstanding the program consisted of fourteen numbers, ere the concert closed nearly double that number of selections had been given. Every number presented was a gem and the Tout family are truly a clever family.
