BRIEF AND BREEZY.

A Chicago matrimonial bureau manager says that only 10 photos out of 10,000 attract. Soul affinities evidently do not look their prettiest in pictures.

"Evidently the building of the Pa capital was a put-up job," says the San Antonio Express. On the contrary, it was a hold-up job.

Emma Goldman was prevented from speaking in Chicago, and then sat down and wept. After all, Emma seems to be a woman.

The late H O Havemeyer's estate in New York was assessed for $5,000,000, and the executors have had it reduced to $50,000. There are many surprises of this nature when the rich man dies.

And one good look at the battle-ship fleet will be about all the Japs will need.

Roosevelt has met Hachenschmidt, the Russian wrestler, but newspapers fail to state who got the first fall.

With millionaires selling the yachts, looks like the country is not so much at sea, after all.

A soap manufacturer used newspapers rather than billboards for advertising his product, on the ground that the man who does not read the newspapers never uses soap.

A Michigan editor has discovered "what ails" the man who borrows his neighbor's paper instead of subscribing and paying for a copy. His especial malady is hog cholera.

GREATEST OF ALL HARVESTS.

John J. Ingalls' Magnificent Eulogy of Grass.

Grass is the forgiveness of nature—the constant benediction. Fields trampled with battle, saturated with blood, torn with the ruts of cannon, grow green again with grass, and carnage is forgotten. Streets abandoned by traffic become grass-grown like rural lanes, and are obliterated. Forests decay, harvests perish, flowers vanish, but grass is immortal. Boleaguered by the seven hosts of winter, it withdraws into the impregnable fortress of its subterranean vitality and emerges upon the first solicitation of spring. Sown by the winds, by the wandering birds, propagated by the subtle horticulture of the elements which are its ministers and servants, it softens the arid outline of the world. Its tenacious fibers hold the earth in its place and prevent its soluble components from washing into the waiting sea. It invades the solitude of deserts, climbs the inaccessible slopes and forbidden pinnacles, of mountains, modifies climates and determines the history, character and destiny of nations. Unobtrusive and patient, it has immortal vigor and aggression. Banished from the thoroughfare and the field, it bides its time to return, and when vigilance is relaxed, or the dynasty has perished, it silently resumes the throne from which it has been expelled, but which it never abdicates. It bears no blazonry of bloom to charm the senses with fragrance or splendor, but its homely hue is more enchanting than the lily or the rose. It yields no fruit in earth or air, and yet, should its harvest fall for a single year, famine would depopulate the world.—John J. Ingalls.

MARKET REPORT.

Special to the Garland Globe:—

Kansas City Stock Yards, April 13, 1908. The cattle run held up good all of last week, and buyers were unable to effect declines ranging from 15 to 20 cents on all kinds. Recent advances in the retail price of meats has cut down consumption, and packers are not disposing of the volume of meats that were moving two weeks ago, which puts them in a better position to dictate prices. The run is 80,000 head today, just 50% of the supply of a week ago, and if supplies continue in this proportion balance of the week a return to former firmness will doubtless come. Prices are 5 to 15 higher today on killing grades, and stockers and feeders are strong. Fed steers are selling at 6 65 to 6 8, today, bulk of steers 6 10 to 6 65, top heifers 6 35, bulk of heifers 4 75 to 5 75, cows 3 75 to 5 25, bulls 3 50 to 5 00, calves 3 75 to 5 50. Movement of stockers and feeders to the country last week was 440 car loads, heaviest trade in whose classes this year. Good rains late last week and spring like weather have started the grass in native territory and favorable outlook has stimulated trade in country grades. The movement will be further enhanced by stronger markets for beef cattle. Stockers range from 3 75 to 5 60, feeders 4 75 to 5 75.

Receipts of sheep and lambs are short, but the market has shown weakness since the middle of last week, account of lower reports from the East. Supply here today is 8500 head market 10 to 15 lower, lambs selling at 7 40 to 7 75, spring lambs 12 00. Some medium class ewes sold today at 6 30, best ewes worth 6 50, wethers 6 75, yearlings 7 25. Very little clipping stock is coming, and range stuff from the South has not yet started good, although one lot of 89 lb. Texas wethers sold today at 6 50, and Texas goats have sold from 4 50 to 5 25 recently. Some feeding lambs have changed hands lately at 7 00 to 7 25. April receipts will likely be disappointing, as many owners are holding fed stuff till after shearing and stuff from the South is late starting.

Punctuality.

(From Box Elder News.)

The subject has been a live one among all kindreds, tongues and peoples, since time when the memory of man runneth not to the contrary, but it is a pearl of such great price that few have come to adorn themselves with it. It is such a rare virtue that those who possess it are pointed out and remarked upon as unusual, quite remarkable.

But, why isn't punctuality the rule rather than the exception? It ought to be. It deals with time, and time is money. We wouldn't think of stealing money, even in the smallest amount, but still we are careless in keeping our appointments—we steal the time of our friends and associates.

Let's try once more, and make a mighty effort this time, to strengthen this vital part of our character.

This office has just issued a well-printed, neatly bound booklet of 42 pages of fine half-tones of "SCENES IN AND AROUND GARLAND." The booklet contains views of the Utah-Idaho Sugar Factory and surrounding canal, Bear River canyon, Power plant, business houses and many prominent dwellings of town and other interesting scenes. It is a valuable collection of views and should find a place in every home in this vicinity. The books are for sale at the Globe office and at the Foulger Co., price 50 cents. What would be nicer to send to a friend than a book of this kind? Assist your editor in advertising your town by mailing one or two copies to your friends who are interested in Garland, the Busy, Bustling Center of the Great Bear River Valley. Call and see the booklet.
