Genuine Blizzard.

February Comes in Like a "Lamb" They Call the Wild Cat Clad in Porcupine Quills.

March 1st usually comes in like a lion, but if she comes in this year like 17 tigers, 9 wild cats and a grizzly bear, she can't beat the blizzard we got February 1st and 2nd.

To cap the climax the Bear saw his shadow (Feb. 2nd) which means six weeks more of this long, hard winter, that has already been a record-breaker.

Tuesday morning the school children had no recess and at noon a crowd of men folk took the "tots" home in covered sleighs.

The passenger train on the Malad Valley branch got snow-bound between here and Malad Tuesday night and Wednesday morning a snow plow came up and took the train south at about noon. Drifts of snow are piled up all over the valley in consequence of the heavy wind storm. The weather was extremely cold, too, but moderated some Thursday—(but very cold night.)

Plenty of coal arrived a few days before the blizzard which was indeed a blessing.

Grand Masquerade.

The grand mask ball given at the Manasa hall last Friday evening was a rousing success and proved to be a very pleasant affair. Over 60 characters were represented, clowns, predominating. Among the characters represented were monkeys, devils, clowns, indians, fairies, milk-maids, school girls, negroes, chinamen, sailors, convicts, spaniards, newspaper girls, jockies, day, night, hearts, diamonds, snow-balls, gypsies, sunflowers, lillies and many others. The hall was jammed with spectators and the Garland orchestra furnished good music.

Miss Mary Grover, "Indian lady," was awarded the first prize—a handsome jewelry case and Clyde Lindsey, "Sailor" was given the second prize, a tie pin.

It was about 1 a. m. when the dance concluded and all in attendance were well paid for going.

M. I. A. Grand Ball.

Last Saturday night, at the Garland hall, a very pleasant and well attended dance was given by the M I Associations. The affair was a married folks' dance, but a number of young people were also present.

Cocoa, chocolate, sandwiches and cake were served and the evening most pleasantly spent in dancing.

The party was given to raise funds for the M. I. Associations and proved to be a financial as well as a social success.

Halley's Comet to Wrap Its Tail Around This Sphere

New York, Feb. 1.—Camilla Flammarion, the French astronomer, in a letter published here today, says that the vaporous tail of Halley's comet will envelope the earth on May 19.

"For several hours," he says, "we will be immersed in the gaseous caudal appendages whose chemical constitution is still little known. The comet will pass directly between the sun and the earth at 2 o'clock in the morning of May 19. At that hour the Pacific ocean will be in full daylight, while in France it will be night.

Little danger may be expected, however, for the tail will probably be so rarified as to be inoffensive.—Ogden Standard.

Bound for Utah.

St. Louis, Jan. 31.—Two brave Indian hunters, William Lobosh and Michael Patrick of Cherleroi, Pa., 16 years and 13 years old, respectively, were checkmated at the Union station to-day. They are being held at police headquarters until the police hear from their parents.

The sombrero hats with yellow bands aroused the suspicion of the police. The boys' baggage included a knock-down rifle, a pistol, a hatchet, a dirk, a dagger, ammunition, a telescope, a loaf of bread, a roll of stage money and a prayer book.

The boys said the reading of dime novels caused them to start for Utah to unearth a buried treasure. This rifle was to fight back invaders and the telescope to detect Indians.—Ogden Standard.

Out-going Officers Banquetted.

Entertaining Social at Home of Mrs. Thales H. Edwards.

At the home of Mrs. Thales H. Edwards on Factory street, a very pleasing and highly entertaining social was given Wednesday night in honor of the out-going officers of the Ladies' Self-Culture Club. Members of the Club and their husbands and a few specially invited guests were present—over forty guests in all. The decorations were pink and white carnations. The fore part of the evening was enjoyable spent in a musical romance contest. Neat cards bearing questions to be answered by names of popular songs were distributed to the guests and Essie E. Foulger played strains of the aires on the piano while the crowd amused themselves in filling in the answers. Mesdames Hazel Chapman, Larelda Capener and Celia M. Grover were successful in answering the questions correctly and drew for the prize, a bound volume, which was awarded Mrs. Chapman. The consolation prize, a rattle, went to David Darton.

Following are the questions and answers:

What was the heroine's name? Annie Laura.

What was the hero's name? Robin Adair.

Where was she born? Dixie.

Where was he born? Suwanee river

Where did they meet? Coming through the rye.

What time of day was it? Just as the sun went down.

When did he propose? After the ball.

What did he say? Just one girl.

What did she say? Love, I will love you always.

What did he then bid her? Good bye, little girl, good bye.

What did the band play? The girl I left behind me.

Where did he go? Marching through Georgia.

Where did he spend the night? Tenting on the old camp ground

What did the band play when he came home?

When Johnnie comes marching home.

Where were they married? In my old Kentucky home.

Who were the bride's maids? Two little girls in blue.

Who furnished the music? Whistling Rufus.

TO OUR CUSTOMERS.

There are many of you.

That we appreciate your patronage, your loyalty and steadfastness, fully as much as you appreciate the help we have at times been able to furnish you, goes without saying.

HOWEVER, we want to take this public method of thanking you for past patronage and with full confidence that this patronage will continue, we pledge you our best endeavors in the future as you have had them in the past.

Wishing you an increasing measure of Happiness and Prosperity for the year 1910, we are,

Sincerely Yours,

State Bank of Brigham City.

UNDER STATE SUPERVISION AND CONTROL.

where did they make their home? On the banks of the Wabash.

What was their motto? Home, sweet home.

Where did they always remain? America.

During the evening vocal solos were rendered by Essie E. Foulger, Marie Wing, R. L. Bush and D. C. Chapman and piano solos were given by J. C. Wheelon and Mrs. Merlin Steed.

The choosing of partners for lunch was an amusing feature. The ladies stood behind a sheet with pillow slips drawn over their heads and the gentlemen selected their partners from the "white-topped" aggregation. Handsome pink and white lunch baskets were distributed, well filled with choice eatables. The lunch hour was spent in social conversation and in listening to an impromptu program. The social was a rousing success.

Sunday Services.

Bp. A. R. Capener presided. Singing "Arise O Glorious Zion" Prayer by Lewis O. Johnson. Singing "Come O Thou Glorious Day of Promise." Sacrament administered by Elders Matthew McMurtrie and George Henrie. Sacramental hymn, "He died the Great Redeemer died." Sister Maud Somsen was released as Librarian in the Y.L.M.I.A. Sister Myrtle Gleason was sustained to the same office. Brothers Harry Passey and J. C. Gleason were sustained as ward teachers. Sister Celia M. Grover was sustained as Decorative committee of the Garland ward, with the authority to call on any body she saw fit to help her. The following were accepted as members of the ward: John Q. Leavitt and Mildred A. Grover Gleason. The speakers were A. M. Steed of Farmington, John G. Watt of Thatcher and John H. Watkins of Beaver Dam. Meeting closed by Sister Hazel Chapman singing, assisted by the Garland choir, "I Have Read of a Beautiful City." Benediction by Henry Manning. Attendance 106.

L. W. Preston, ward clerk.

Before Justice Smith.

Tuesday Howard Sheens and Gus Henry appeared before Justice Burdett Smith on a charge of disturbing the peace. They plead guilty and were each fined $5.00 and costs.

A Good Performance.

The Walters Stock Co. gave the theatre going public full value for their money in the presentation of "The Diamond Robbery" at the Garland opera house Monday night of this week. The company visited this city last season under the name of the "Battle of Life Co." and gave splendid shows. It is one of the best companies on the road. They will visit this city again February 14th.

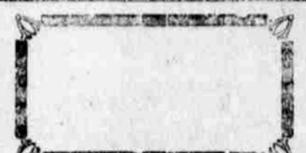

They receive crowded houses wherever they go and give good satisfaction.

Attention.

The Garland Mutual Dramatic Co. will present the popular drama entitled "Forgiven" or "Jack O' Diamonds." at the Garland hall about the middle of February. The cast for the performance consists of "old hands at the biz" who now have their parts and are working hard on them. See announcements later.

Reason Enthroned.

Because meats are so tasty they are consumed in great excess. This leads to stomach trouble, biliousness and constipation. Revise your diet, let reason and not a pompered appetite control, then take a few doses of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and you will soon be well again. Try it. For sale by All Dealers. Samples free.

ATTENTION READERS!

If the square contains a blue X it is only our signal that your subscription to the GLOBE is due. We do this lest you forget it too long and we, to save ourselves from Uncle Sam's ruling, are compelled to transfer your name from our list to the "Black" one; Uncle Sam will make both you and us "come through." Why not get together and save him and us a lot of trouble—$1.50 a year is your part, 52 papers a year, delivered, was ours.
