

DEWEYVILLE.

More than a hundred relatives and friends of the late Bp. John C. Dewey met in a family gathering at the Deweyville school house Jan. 22nd 1910. The day was profitably and very pleasantly spent in singing, reciting, speeches, stories, games, etc., ending with a dance in the evening, to which the entire ward was invited. The Dewey orchestra assisted by Magnus Benson of Brigham City and Warren Sweeten of Holbrook, furnished excellent music. A special feature of the program was the reading of a journal kept by John C. Dewey of his life, from his birth in Stroxtion, Eng. to his death in Deweyville; the place named after him and which place he presided over for 24 years. Among the visitors from a distance were John C. Dewey, wife and baby of Emmet, Idaho, O. R. Child, wife and daughter Lettie, D. Campbell and little ones of Fairview, Wyo., Bp. W. A. Dewey of Cambridge, Idaho, Mrs. w. w. Howard and son of Rockland, Idaho, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Sweeten of Holbrook, Idaho, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Alred of Logan, Mrs. Martha May of Calls Fort, Magnus Benson of Brigham City, and Mrs. Susie O. Hansen, who arrived one day to late for the meeting.

There are 13 living children, sons and daughters, of the late Bp. Dewey and they were all present except Bp. Geo. C. Dewey, who was taken ill with appendicitis and was operated upon at the Ogden General hospital two days before the gathering. This of course cast a gloom over the family, but it was the Bishop's wish that the meeting should go on. He is now doing nicely and will soon be home. The meeting was such a success that the family effected a permanent organization.

Saw Battle in Clouds.

England's airship invasion scare has recalled to a writer in the London Chronicle an aerial specter which appeared long before the flying machine had shown any signs of flying. At Christmas time, 1642, the people of Keniton, in Northamptonshire, were alarmed by the apparition of the real combat which had recently taken place at Edgehill. This ghostly fight was said to have been fought several nights and witnessed not only by the yokels, but even by special representatives of the king, who recognized among the fighters many of their friends who had perished.

"A" says rent pays him because his place is worth three times as much now as it was 9 years ago, which is $1,500.00 he has saved.

"B" says he is paying rent yet. What has he saved? Nothing; Why, because he is still paying rent.
