

THE COALVILLE TIMES.

University of Utah

THE PEOPLE'S ADVERTISER.

DEVOTED TO THE INTERESTS OF SUMMIT COUNTY.

JOB WORK REATLY EXECUTED.

Vol. IX.

COALVILLE, SUMMIT COUNTY, UTAH, FEBRUARY 21, 1902.

No. 7.

LETTERS FROM CORRESPONDENTS.

Around the County in Seven Days.

The Happenings of the Past Week Told in Detail by Efficient Correspondents.

KANAS.

Kansas, Utah, Feb. 19, 1902.

ENRON TOWN:

Many meetings are being held at people's homes in the evening by those acting in the priest's office.

It made a great effort on Monday to give us some winter weather, but it turned out like all the other storms—a complete fizzle.

The Kansas Home Dramatic company are to appear next Saturday evening at the Rocky Mountain Opera House in the drama "Because I Love You."

Wedding bells are again to be heard. Mr. Heber Ure and Miss Myrtle Park are to be married in a short time. To all the bachelors and old maids, we say, go thou and do likewise.

Charles Russell died last Sunday at his home in Woodland. He resided at Kanasa most of his life that he spent in this county. He was over ninety years of age and was one of the pioneers of this valley. The funeral will be held today from the Woodland ward meeting house.

POSA.

Posa, Utah, Feb. 20, 1902.

ENRON TOWN:

Miss Grace Cannon gives an entertainment here this evening.

About three inches of snow fell the last of the week, which helped the roads to find conditions again.

Between twenty-five and thirty of the Posas attended the meetings at Coalville on Saturday and Sunday.

There is very strong talk of another business house starting up in Posa. Let 'em come and even things up a little.

E. G. Cannon and daughter Grace are visiting here this week. Mr. Cannon was for many years a resident near here.

Posa has had a relief and one or two of the worst elements have bled themselves to ether and have congenial climates. Let the good work go on.

Grant Y. Hullock of Coalville was with us today. Grant is one of the efficient standers of the Coalville Co-op, and is always a welcome visitor in Posa.

Your correspondent extends his thanks to Hon. Alma Eldredge and wife for favors received at their home during the convention. The gentleman and lady made us feel all the comforts of a home. May their shadows never grow less!

A surprise party was gotten up on Miss Jane A. Marchant, the charming daughter of John A. Marchant on Monday evening, the anniversary of the young lady's 16th birthday. The evening was spent very pleasantly and all report having had an enjoyable time.

Our music-loving young people were delighted with the entertainment at Coalville on Saturday evening. Friend George is an ideal music leader, and to his credit, some of the young ladies say they never saw his best. We hope to have him up this way in the near future.

A large number of our citizens were intending to take in the Washington Entertainment given by the R. B. L. of Coalville on the 19th, and regret that the function has been postponed owing to sickness of some of the members. However it is ascertained that when the entertainment does come off, Posa will be represented in force.

February 14th was the 25th anniversary of the birth of William M. White of Oakley, and it was made the occasion of a surprise party upon that gentleman. Among those present I counted Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Reynolds of Park City, the latter being the youngest daughter of Mr. White. Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Lyons, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Allen,

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

ABSOLUTELY PURE

Makes the food more delicious and wholesome

WASHAFUO

Washafu, Utah, Feb. 18, 1902.

The new side track west of the tunnel is now completed.

Miss May Welch was a visiting missionary to our Sabbath school last Sunday.

Elder William Hedson was a missionary to our Sabbath school and meeting last Sunday and made profitable addresses at each.

The past week here has been like spring. A great deal of the snow has melted and some days the creeks have been quite high.

When it was learned that the night passenger train would not stop at Castle Rock on Sunday night, the missionaries, Elder Hedson and Miss Welch, had to take the east-bound train in Washafu, and there board the west-bound train for home. This was an inconvenience that was much regretted.

WASHAFUO

Washafu, Utah, Feb. 18, 1902.

The new side track west of the tunnel is now completed.

Miss May Welch was a visiting missionary to our Sabbath school last Sunday.

Elder William Hedson was a missionary to our Sabbath school and meeting last Sunday and made profitable addresses at each.

The past week here has been like spring. A great deal of the snow has melted and some days the creeks have been quite high.

When it was learned that the night passenger train would not stop at Castle Rock on Sunday night, the missionaries, Elder Hedson and Miss Welch, had to take the east-bound train in Washafu, and there board the west-bound train for home. This was an inconvenience that was much regretted.

ENRON TOWN.

Enron, Utah, Feb. 19, 1902.

The Echo round house has been torn down and the Union Pacific is going to put in a turn table in its place.

We have had the measles here, the victims being a child of Joseph Hopkins and four of William Staley's children.

Last Sunday night a car was broken into and some valuable goods stolen. It is not known whether it was broken open here or some place between here and Enron.

ENRON TOWN.

Enron, Utah, Feb. 20, 1902.

Frederance here tonight for all who helped leave the country.

Pelix Toone was home from Combland a few days this week.

Mr. Producers Edgworth has been quite sick during the week, also Robert Stephens' baby.

O. Taggart was here this week doing business for the Consolidated Wagon and Implement Co.

Leslie Hill, with a number of his companions of the bridge gang, attended the dance here on the 15th.

The weather has all the appearance of spring, but some are inclined to think there will be lots of winter yet.

Mrs. Martha Bond returned home to Ogden the first of the week after spending a few days with her parents.

Hendler was well represented at the auxiliary meetings at Coalville on Saturday and at the Relief Society convention on Sunday.

A Legacy Of The Grip.

Is often a run system. Weakness, nervousness, loss of appetite, energy and ambition, with disordered liver and kidneys often follow an attack of the dreaded disease. The greatest need then is Electric Bitters, the splendid tonic, blood purifier and regulator of stomach, liver and kidneys. Thousands have proved that they wonder fully strengthen the nerves, build up the system, and restore to health and good spirits after an attack of Grip. If suffering, try them. Only 50c. Perfect satisfaction guaranteed by John Boyden & Son Druggists.

IRISH WIT.

An Irish priest had labored hard with one his flock to induce him to give up whiskey. "I tell you, Michael," said the priest, "whiskey is your worst enemy, and you should keep as far from it as you can." "Me enemy, is it, father?" responded Michael, "and it was your vice-master's self that was telling us in the pulpit only last Sunday to love our enemies?" "So I was Michael," rejoined the priest, "but I didn't tell you to swallow them!"—E.

MISSIONARY EXPERIENCE.

Letter written from England by Elder David L. Johnson of Rockport. Great Britain, Jan. 27, 1902.

Upton—Will give space in the columns of this valuable paper for a few lines to the work that is being done in England by the Mormon Elders.

On the 15th of August, 1900, the writer of this article left for a few days to the inhabitants of Great Britain. After a pleasant journey across the ocean making short visits in the cities of Omaha, Chicago, New York and London, we boarded the Belgian steamer at Philadelphia on the evening of August 18th. A twelve days' voyage brought us safely to land again, we landed in Liverpool on the evening of August 30th.

At Liverpool a meeting was held where we were given excellent instructions from Elder D. L. Johnson, James L. McMillan and Henry W. Nesbitt, who were traveling over the European continent. In the following morning we were appointed to visit the following cities: London, Birmingham, Glasgow, Edinburgh, Aberdeen, Dundee, Belfast, Liverpool, Manchester, Leeds, Sheffield, Nottingham, Leicester, Derby, Worcester, Gloucester, Bristol, Exeter, Plymouth, Southampton, London, and Liverpool.

My first Bradford was but four days, when I was appointed to labor in Hull, soon after my arrival in the latter city, I stopped at a meeting held in Grimsby, on the 10th of the month, and then proceeded to the Sheffield conference where I was to labor for a few days. My first Bradford was but four days, when I was appointed to labor in Hull, soon after my arrival in the latter city, I stopped at a meeting held in Grimsby, on the 10th of the month, and then proceeded to the Sheffield conference where I was to labor for a few days.

My first Bradford was but four days, when I was appointed to labor in Hull, soon after my arrival in the latter city, I stopped at a meeting held in Grimsby, on the 10th of the month, and then proceeded to the Sheffield conference where I was to labor for a few days.

ENRON TOWN.

Enron, Utah, Feb. 19, 1902.

The Echo round house has been torn down and the Union Pacific is going to put in a turn table in its place.

We have had the measles here, the victims being a child of Joseph Hopkins and four of William Staley's children.

Last Sunday night a car was broken into and some valuable goods stolen. It is not known whether it was broken open here or some place between here and Enron.

ENRON TOWN.

Enron, Utah, Feb. 20, 1902.

Frederance here tonight for all who helped leave the country.

Pelix Toone was home from Combland a few days this week.

Mr. Producers Edgworth has been quite sick during the week, also Robert Stephens' baby.

O. Taggart was here this week doing business for the Consolidated Wagon and Implement Co.

Leslie Hill, with a number of his companions of the bridge gang, attended the dance here on the 15th.

The weather has all the appearance of spring, but some are inclined to think there will be lots of winter yet.

Mrs. Martha Bond returned home to Ogden the first of the week after spending a few days with her parents.

Hendler was well represented at the auxiliary meetings at Coalville on Saturday and at the Relief Society convention on Sunday.

A Legacy Of The Grip.

Is often a run system. Weakness, nervousness, loss of appetite, energy and ambition, with disordered liver and kidneys often follow an attack of the dreaded disease. The greatest need then is Electric Bitters, the splendid tonic, blood purifier and regulator of stomach, liver and kidneys. Thousands have proved that they wonder fully strengthen the nerves, build up the system, and restore to health and good spirits after an attack of Grip. If suffering, try them. Only 50c. Perfect satisfaction guaranteed by John Boyden & Son Druggists.

IRISH WIT.

An Irish priest had labored hard with one his flock to induce him to give up whiskey. "I tell you, Michael," said the priest, "whiskey is your worst enemy, and you should keep as far from it as you can." "Me enemy, is it, father?" responded Michael, "and it was your vice-master's self that was telling us in the pulpit only last Sunday to love our enemies?" "So I was Michael," rejoined the priest, "but I didn't tell you to swallow them!"—E.

MISSIONARY APPOINTMENTS.

The following home missionary appointments have been made for next Sunday, Feb. 23rd:

Oakley—Henry E. Parry, Robert H. Dowdy.

Coalville—Amos Sargent, Alex. Street, Kansas—Frank Marchant, Oscar Reynolds.

Woodland—Stephen Walker, James Woodliff.

Beach Creek—J. R. Burbridge, Edward Thomas.

Francis—Oscar Lyons, W. K. Harder, Hoytville—W. H. Branch, Edward H. Childs.

Posa—J. J. Bowen, Neph Sargent.

Rockport—J. K. Lennon, Mark H. Bissard.

East Coalville—Levi Pearson, W. G. Johnston.

Wanship—S. M. Pack, Lorenzo Page, Echo and Hendler—William Holson, George Smith.

Parley's Park and Park City—Robert Walker, Frank Craft.

Grass Creek—Knoch Brown, Thomas Copley.

Castle Rock—James B. Rhoad.

Upton—F. H. Wright, John Packer.

APPOINTMENTS FOR SUNDAY, MARCH 23rd.

Hendler and Echo—William Archibald.

Castle Rock—W. L. Hansen.

East Coalville—J. H. Williams, C. R. Jones.

Grass Creek—Thomas Beard.

Parley's Park and Park City—George H. Budd.

Woodland—W. H. Branch, Oscar Reynolds.

Francis—J. J. Bowen, Amos Sargent.

Wanship—J. K. Lennon, H. E. Parry.

Hoytville—S. M. Pack, W. G. Johnston.

Kanasa—William Holson, John Packer.

Oakley—Robert Walker, F. H. Wright.

Beach Creek—Knoch Brown, Oscar F. Reynolds.

FAREWELL ENTERTAINMENT.

A farewell party was given in the State Tabernacle last Saturday evening in honor of William F. Rouse, who has been engaged in M. I. missionary work in this State for the past four months, and who was released to return to his home in Spanish Park a short time ago.

The entertainment was given under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A., and Supt. C. A. Galla presided. A large audience was present and an interesting program was rendered. After singing by the congregation and prayer, W. A. C. Yulek sang solo in an excellent manner. Miss Virginia Smith executed the organ solo "Dawn of the Century," in fine style, and Mrs. Annie M. Smith added to her reputation as a singer by her charming rendition of "The Love and the Bird." The quartet "Come Where the Lilies Grow," by Messrs. John Packer, Walter Wilson and Misses Lavinia Packer and Ella Wilson was sung in a way that elicited much praise, and by request Mr. Packer and his daughter delighted the audience by singing "When Life's Dream is O'er."

Miss Jane Sawley was new laurel to the sweetness and talent which marked her singing of the solo "Noelia." Lily and Ella Wright at the request of many sang "When the Harvest Day is Over." This was well received by the audience and the girls' eye complimented on the excellent impression their singing made. A graphophone added to the entertainment of these present and Elder L. John Nuttall sang a medley. I. M. Shaw, as usual, acquitted himself very creditably in singing a comic song. The organ accompaniments by Mrs. John Galla and Miss Lavinia Holson were, needless to state, of a high order of excellence.

On behalf of the State and ward officers of the Y. M. C. A. Supt. Galla expressed the appreciation felt for Elder Rouse's missionary work and paid a well deserved compliment to the latter for the latter for his earnest efforts to improve the young men and the good that he had accomplished. Elder Evans responded in a short address in which he thanked the officers for the aid and encouragement extended to him, and the people for their hospitality that he had enjoyed. A few remarks from President Taylor brought an enjoyable and instructive entertainment to a close.

On behalf of the State and ward officers of the Y. M. C. A. Supt. Galla expressed the appreciation felt for Elder Rouse's missionary work and paid a well deserved compliment to the latter for the latter for his earnest efforts to improve the young men and the good that he had accomplished. Elder Evans responded in a short address in which he thanked the officers for the aid and encouragement extended to him, and the people for their hospitality that he had enjoyed. A few remarks from President Taylor brought an enjoyable and instructive entertainment to a close.

On behalf of the State and ward officers of the Y. M. C. A. Supt. Galla expressed the appreciation felt for Elder Rouse's missionary work and paid a well deserved compliment to the latter for the latter for his earnest efforts to improve the young men and the good that he had accomplished. Elder Evans responded in a short address in which he thanked the officers for the aid and encouragement extended to him, and the people for their hospitality that he had enjoyed. A few remarks from President Taylor brought an enjoyable and instructive entertainment to a close.

On behalf of the State and ward officers of the Y. M. C. A. Supt. Galla expressed the appreciation felt for Elder Rouse's missionary work and paid a well deserved compliment to the latter for the latter for his earnest efforts to improve the young men and the good that he had accomplished. Elder Evans responded in a short address in which he thanked the officers for the aid and encouragement extended to him, and the people for their hospitality that he had enjoyed. A few remarks from President Taylor brought an enjoyable and instructive entertainment to a close.

On behalf of the State and ward officers of the Y. M. C. A. Supt. Galla expressed the appreciation felt for Elder Rouse's missionary work and paid a well deserved compliment to the latter for the latter for his earnest efforts to improve the young men and the good that he had accomplished. Elder Evans responded in a short address in which he thanked the officers for the aid and encouragement extended to him, and the people for their hospitality that he had enjoyed. A few remarks from President Taylor brought an enjoyable and instructive entertainment to a close.

On behalf of the State and ward officers of the Y. M. C. A. Supt. Galla expressed the appreciation felt for Elder Rouse's missionary work and paid a well deserved compliment to the latter for the latter for his earnest efforts to improve the young men and the good that he had accomplished. Elder Evans responded in a short address in which he thanked the officers for the aid and encouragement extended to him, and the people for their hospitality that he had enjoyed. A few remarks from President Taylor brought an enjoyable and instructive entertainment to a close.

On behalf of the State and ward officers of the Y. M. C. A. Supt. Galla expressed the appreciation felt for Elder Rouse's missionary work and paid a well deserved compliment to the latter for the latter for his earnest efforts to improve the young men and the good that he had accomplished. Elder Evans responded in a short address in which he thanked the officers for the aid and encouragement extended to him, and the people for their hospitality that he had enjoyed. A few remarks from President Taylor brought an enjoyable and instructive entertainment to a close.

On behalf of the State and ward officers of the Y. M. C. A. Supt. Galla expressed the appreciation felt for Elder Rouse's missionary work and paid a well deserved compliment to the latter for the latter for his earnest efforts to improve the young men and the good that he had accomplished. Elder Evans responded in a short address in which he thanked the officers for the aid and encouragement extended to him, and the people for their hospitality that he had enjoyed. A few remarks from President Taylor brought an enjoyable and instructive entertainment to a close.

On behalf of the State and ward officers of the Y. M. C. A. Supt. Galla expressed the appreciation felt for Elder Rouse's missionary work and paid a well deserved compliment to the latter for the latter for his earnest efforts to improve the young men and the good that he had accomplished. Elder Evans responded in a short address in which he thanked the officers for the aid and encouragement extended to him, and the people for their hospitality that he had enjoyed. A few remarks from President Taylor brought an enjoyable and instructive entertainment to a close.

On behalf of the State and ward officers of the Y. M. C. A. Supt. Galla expressed the appreciation felt for Elder Rouse's missionary work and paid a well deserved compliment to the latter for the latter for his earnest efforts to improve the young men and the good that he had accomplished. Elder Evans responded in a short address in which he thanked the officers for the aid and encouragement extended to him, and the people for their hospitality that he had enjoyed. A few remarks from President Taylor brought an enjoyable and instructive entertainment to a close.

On behalf of the State and ward officers of the Y. M. C. A. Supt. Galla expressed the appreciation felt for Elder Rouse's missionary work and paid a well deserved compliment to the latter for the latter for his earnest efforts to improve the young men and the good that he had accomplished. Elder Evans responded in a short address in which he thanked the officers for the aid and encouragement extended to him, and the people for their hospitality that he had enjoyed. A few remarks from President Taylor brought an enjoyable and instructive entertainment to a close.

On behalf of the State and ward officers of the Y. M. C. A. Supt. Galla expressed the appreciation felt for Elder Rouse's missionary work and paid a well deserved compliment to the latter for the latter for his earnest efforts to improve the young men and the good that he had accomplished. Elder Evans responded in a short address in which he thanked the officers for the aid and encouragement extended to him, and the people for their hospitality that he had enjoyed. A few remarks from President Taylor brought an enjoyable and instructive entertainment to a close.

On behalf of the State and ward officers of the Y. M. C. A. Supt. Galla expressed the appreciation felt for Elder Rouse's missionary work and paid a well deserved compliment to the latter for the latter for his earnest efforts to improve the young men and the good that he had accomplished. Elder Evans responded in a short address in which he thanked the officers for the aid and encouragement extended to him, and the people for their hospitality that he had enjoyed. A few remarks from President Taylor brought an enjoyable and instructive entertainment to a close.

On behalf of the State and ward officers of the Y. M. C. A. Supt. Galla expressed the appreciation felt for Elder Rouse's missionary work and paid a well deserved compliment to the latter for the latter for his earnest efforts to improve the young men and the good that he had accomplished. Elder Evans responded in a short address in which he thanked the officers for the aid and encouragement extended to him, and the people for their hospitality that he had enjoyed. A few remarks from President Taylor brought an enjoyable and instructive entertainment to a close.

On behalf of the State and ward officers of the Y. M. C. A. Supt. Galla expressed the appreciation felt for Elder Rouse's missionary work and paid a well deserved compliment to the latter for the latter for his earnest efforts to improve the young men and the good that he had accomplished. Elder Evans responded in a short address in which he thanked the officers for the aid and encouragement extended to him, and the people for their hospitality that he had enjoyed. A few remarks from President Taylor brought an enjoyable and instructive entertainment to a close.

On behalf of the State and ward officers of the Y. M. C. A. Supt. Galla expressed the appreciation felt for Elder Rouse's missionary work and paid a well deserved compliment to the latter for the latter for his earnest efforts to improve the young men and the good that he had accomplished. Elder Evans responded in a short address in which he thanked the officers for the aid and encouragement extended to him, and the people for their hospitality that he had enjoyed. A few remarks from President Taylor brought an enjoyable and instructive entertainment to a close.

On behalf of the State and ward officers of the Y. M. C. A. Supt. Galla expressed the appreciation felt for Elder Rouse's missionary work and paid a well deserved compliment to the latter for the latter for his earnest efforts to improve the young men and the good that he had accomplished. Elder Evans responded in a short address in which he thanked the officers for the aid and encouragement extended to him, and the people for their hospitality that he had enjoyed. A few remarks from President Taylor brought an enjoyable and instructive entertainment to a close.

On behalf of the State and ward officers of the Y. M. C. A. Supt. Galla expressed the appreciation felt for Elder Rouse's missionary work and paid a well deserved compliment to the latter for the latter for his earnest efforts to improve the young men and the good that he had accomplished. Elder Evans responded in a short address in which he thanked the officers for the aid and encouragement extended to him, and the people for their hospitality that he had enjoyed. A few remarks from President Taylor brought an enjoyable and instructive entertainment to a close.

On behalf of the State and ward officers of the Y. M. C. A. Supt. Galla expressed the appreciation felt for Elder Rouse's missionary work and paid a well deserved compliment to the latter for the latter for his earnest efforts to improve the young men and the good that he had accomplished. Elder Evans responded in a short address in which he thanked the officers for the aid and encouragement extended to him, and the people for their hospitality that he had enjoyed. A few remarks from President Taylor brought an enjoyable and instructive entertainment to a close.

On behalf of the State and ward officers of the Y. M. C. A. Supt. Galla expressed the appreciation felt for Elder Rouse's missionary work and paid a well deserved compliment to the latter for the latter for his earnest efforts to improve the young men and the good that he had accomplished. Elder Evans responded in a short address in which he thanked the officers for the aid and encouragement extended to him, and the people for their hospitality that he had enjoyed. A few remarks from President Taylor brought an enjoyable and instructive entertainment to a close.

On behalf of the State and ward officers of the Y. M. C. A. Supt. Galla expressed the appreciation felt for Elder Rouse's missionary work and paid a well deserved compliment to the latter for the latter for his earnest efforts to improve the young men and the good that he had accomplished. Elder Evans responded in a short address in which he thanked the officers for the aid and encouragement extended to him, and the people for their hospitality that he had enjoyed. A few remarks from President Taylor brought an enjoyable and instructive entertainment to a close.

On behalf of the State and ward officers of the Y. M. C. A. Supt. Galla expressed the appreciation felt for Elder Rouse's missionary work and paid a well deserved compliment to the latter for the latter for his earnest efforts to improve the young men and the good that he had accomplished. Elder Evans responded in a short address in which he thanked the officers for the aid and encouragement extended to him, and the people for their hospitality that he had enjoyed. A few remarks from President Taylor brought an enjoyable and instructive entertainment to a close.

On behalf of the State and ward officers of the Y. M. C. A. Supt. Galla expressed the appreciation felt for Elder Rouse's missionary work and paid a well deserved compliment to the latter for the latter for his earnest efforts to improve the young men and the good that he had accomplished. Elder Evans responded in a short address in which he thanked the officers for the aid and encouragement extended to him, and the people for their hospitality that he had enjoyed. A few remarks from President Taylor brought an enjoyable and instructive entertainment to a close.

On behalf of the State and ward officers of the Y. M. C. A. Supt. Galla expressed the appreciation felt for Elder Rouse's missionary work and paid a well deserved compliment to the latter for the latter for his earnest efforts to improve the young men and the good that he had accomplished. Elder Evans responded in a short address in which he thanked the officers for the aid and encouragement extended to him, and the people for their hospitality that he had enjoyed. A few remarks from President Taylor brought an enjoyable and instructive entertainment to a close.