Above is a fellow who loves his home town so much but sends his Job Printing out of town, and he always knocks his home paper to the editor's back; his very look is HYPOCRACY. It's a credit to be at odds with such as he.

P. S.—We print butter paper every Saturday. Please guide yourself accordingly.

THE SPANISH FORK PRESS

Up till 1900 a great deal of the Job Printing of Spanish Fork was sent out of town, but since then the tide has turned, and today we do Job Printing for other towns. Why? because today we have new presses, new type, new cutter, new rules, new boarder, new quads, new slugs, new cases, new motor, new leaders, new inks, new ideas.

JOB PRINTING

little cheaper than the other fellow. Wedding invitations, letter heads, bill heads, sale bills, statements, dodgers, cards, etc., all receive the same careful treatment—just a little better than seems necessary. Prompt delivery always.

TWO CENT FARE KNOCKED OUT

New Passenger and Freight Laws of Missouri Void, According to Decision of Court.

Rates Fixed by Legislature Held to be Confiscatory and Unconstitutional—Railroads Will Return to Three Cent Fares.

Kansas City—Missouri's 2-cent passenger and maximum freight laws were nullified by a decision handed down on Monday in the United States district court by Judge Smith McPherson. As a result, it is believed, there will be a quick return in Missouri to 3-cent fares. Frank Hagerman, counsel for the eighteen companies involved, declares the court's ruling sounds the death knell of the 2-cent rate in every state in the Union.

Judge McPherson held that both the commodity and passenger laws were confiscatory and unconstitutional. The state, on the other hand, declared emphatically that Missouri's fight for lower rates would continue. Attorney-General Major said an appeal would be taken, and that the present legislature would be asked to pass a new rate law that would stand the tests of the court. Governor Hadley made a similar statement at Jefferson City.

PREPARING TARIFF BILL.

Measure Now in Hands of Printer, Preparatory to Final Revision.

Washington.—A cut of one-half in the duties on lumber and manufactures of lumber is understood to be one of the changes provided by the new tariff bill which is being printed preparatory to its final revision by the Republican members of the house ways and means committee. Another change, according to information from reliable sources, is that hides have been placed on the free list. There has been much contention over the duties of these two articles.

"During the hearings of the lumber schedules the testimony was such as to cause the impression that lumber would be put on the free list. It was said that the forests of the country could only be conserved by admitting foreign lumber free of duty. It is understood that Gifford Pinchot, chief forester, is preparing figures in a further effort to have lumber admitted free.

AERONAUT'S ACCIDENT.

Drops Into Ocean off San Pedro and Loses Life.

San Pedro, Cal.—While hundreds watched his frantic efforts to control a great gas bag which was swiftly bearing him over the Pacific ocean Monday afternoon, Lester Elkins, an amateur aeronaut, 22 years old, soared with the balloon to a height of more than 4,000 feet before he cut loose his parachute and dropped into the waters of the outer harbor to his death.

As the stiff wind, blowing off the land, carried him out to sea, boatmen hastily left the inner harbor in launches to rescue him when he came down, should he be unable to guide the balloon back over the land, but were unable to reach the place where he fell, and his body has not been recovered.

TWISTER STRIKES ARKANSAS.

Eight Dead and Scores Injured, While Property Loss is Heavy.

Little Rock, Ark.—Eight or more persons were killed, scores injured and an immense amount of property destroyed in a tornado which swept Arkansas late Monday. A St. Louis & Southwestern passenger train was blown from the tracks near Baumcum. It is said, while going at full speed. The entire town of Brinkley was destroyed, according to reports from the south, eight people being killed and others hurt.

After many of the buildings in Brinkley had collapsed the wreckage took fire. The blaze soon got beyond control, and almost the entire town was destroyed.

OF INTEREST TO WOOLGROWERS

Duty on Wool Will Probably be Unchanged.

Washington.—The duty on wool will remain the same as it is in the Dingley law unless there is a change in the minds of members of the ways and means committee. At present no change is contemplated, but the committee has voted to put hides on the free list, leather duties will be reduced to boots and shoes and other manufactured products of leather will be seriously cut. The sugar duty will not be changed.

TWO MEN ENTOMBED ALIVE IN A UTAH MINE

Prisoners Are Threatened With Death From Three Sources, Starvation, Suffocation and Drowning.

Salt Lake City.—George and Jerry Peterson, brothers, are entombed in St. Patrick's mine in Hughes canyon at the lower end of Big Cottonwood, as a result of a cave-in of a tunnel of the mine Monday afternoon. Fifty to sixty determined men are desperately striving against time, to effect a rescue. To add to the pathos of the tragedy, each man has a wife, with a babe, waiting and watching outside the tunnel, tearfully praying for the success of the rescue party's efforts.

The entombed men are threatened with death from three sides—starvation, suffocation and drowning. They have had nothing to eat since Monday noon, as all efforts to get food to them have proved futile. The only source of air they have is through two two-inch pipes and this is reported to be failing. The men are immersed in from two to three feet of water, and to add to their terrors from death by either suffocation or starvation, or both, the water is said to be steadily rising, threatening them with drowning.

The men are imprisoned about 300 feet from the mouth of the tunnel.

WARDEN'S TURN NOW.

Convict Bankers Find Discrepancy in Accounts of Penitentiary.

Pittsburg, Pa.—Convicted bankers, prisoners in the western penitentiary here, have discovered an apparent discrepancy of more than $26,000 in the penitentiary accounts. The board of visitors of the penitentiary some time ago appointed Harry Reiber, former paying teller of the Farmers' Deposit National bank, and now a prisoner, to audit the books. Finding what he regarded as a discrepancy and being unwilling to assume all the responsibility, Reiber secured the assistance of William Montgomery, former cashier of the Allegheny National bank, and B. F. Rhinehart, former cashier of the Farmers and Drovers' National bank of Waynesburg, Pa., both convicts. They agreed with him, it is said. The board of visitors is awaiting the return of Warden Johnson before taking any further action.

NEW CENSUS BILL.

While Crumpacker Approves, He Does Not Believe Taft Will Sign.

Washington.—The passage of a new census bill during the special session, to take the place of the measure vetoed by President Roosevelt, is confidently predicted by his friends in congress.

Representative Crumpacker of Indiana, chairman of the census committee of the last house, and author of the bill disapproved, approves the new measure. He believes it will not meet with the approval of the special session of congress, nor will it receive the signature of President Taft.

Trailing Murderer by His Peculiar Shoes.

Nogales, Ariz.—Excitement is still running high here over the murder of Don Luis Proto, the millionaire rancher, who was shot and killed from ambush in Sonora. Officers are scouring the country for the murderer, and it is believed to be certain that he will be captured. The fact that the slayer wore a peculiar make of shoes has enabled the posse to track him many miles with ease. Proto was shot twice. The Mexican driver says that they were driving along the road when the first shot of the horses. Proto leaped out of the wagon and was shot down.

A DOUBLE MURDER.

Investigation Disproves Report of Duel Between Two Portland Men.

Portland, Ore.—An autopsy on the bodies of Oscar Hiett and George Dale, who were found dead on a duck preserve on Columbia slough on Monday, develops that the men did not kill each other in a duel, but were murdered. The investigations of physicians revealed beyond a possibility of doubt that neither man moved after the inflicting of the wounds which caused death.

Impersonated Dead Bankers.

Denver, Colo.—Officers of the American Bankers' association have just discovered that real live "ghosts" walked at the annual convention of the association which was held in Denver last November. It has been found that the names of at least a dozen bankers in various parts of the country, who have been dead for a number of years, were assumed by unknown persons, who registered at the convention, answered to roll calls, voted on resolutions and accepted the hospitality of the bankers of Denver.

BLOODY CRUTCH MAY PROVE GUILT

Cripple Stands in Shadow of the Gallows for Murder Committed for a Few Cents.

Web of Circumstantial Evidence Being Wove Around Alleged Murderer of Salt Lake Painter Who Was Beaten and Strangled to Death.

Salt Lake City.—A bloody crutch may prove the important clue which will bring to the gallows the murderer of John C. Burnett, the painter who was beaten and strangled to death in a rooming house in this city, the crime evidently having been committed with the purpose of robbery, the murderer, however, securing less than $5 after committing one of the most revolting crimes in the history of the city.

In Hugh Meyers, the one-legged man, arrested a few hours after the discovery of the mutilated body of John C. Burnett, the police believe they have the real murderer of the unfortunate painter and paper hanger who was lured to his death for a few dollars.

Gradually a web of circumstantial evidence is being woven around Meyers, and as the meshes are being drawn tighter there seems little likelihood of the escape of Meyers from the direct accusation of being the actual murderer, or at least an accomplice.

The most important piece of evidence so far obtained, and which so strongly incriminates Meyers, is his crutch. It developed Saturday that the crutch exactly fits into the wounds upon the head and hands of the murdered man and fits so perfectly as to leave no room for doubt in the minds of the police that the crutch was the instrument used in the death-dealing blows.

In addition, several other important bits of evidence, all tending to fasten the crime on Meyers, were secured. In the running down of the evidence the detectives proved conclusively that the story told by Meyers in connection with the incidents of the night of the murder was false in many respects, that he had betrayed his own falsehoods in telling conflicting stories. Equally important was the result of an analysis made by State Chemist Herman Harms, which revealed fresh blood stains on Meyers' shoe, crutch, hat and handkerchief. The shirt worn by the murderer, and from which the bloodstained cuffs and sleeves had been torn off, was also found in a toilet room in the Mammino saloon, and the officers are positive that the shirt belonged to Meyers.

FAIRBANKS IN PRIVATE LIFE.

Returns to Indianapolis After Twelve Years of Public Life.

Indianapolis.—After twelve years of public life, former Vice President Fairbanks returned to his home here Sunday from Washington. Mr. and Mrs. Fairbanks received many friends at their home Sunday. Concerning the new administration, Mr. Fairbanks said: "The new administration starts with every assurance of success. The president was wise in calling congress in extra session at the earliest practicable date, so that tariff revision might be speedily effected.

"It is quite natural that there should be more or less hesitancy in the business world until the uncertainty as to what will be done with the various schedules is definitely put to rest. When revision is accomplished, if it is done on proper lines, it will tend to give stability to industry and trade and will result in the improvement of business conditions. Such improvement will probably be gradual, yet it will be certain."

NEGRO BURNED AT STAKE.

Punishment Meted Out to Black Fiend by Texans.

Rockwell, Tex.—After having been identified by Mrs. Arthur McKinney as the negro who attacked her Friday morning, Anderson Ellis was taken from the Rockwell county jail here, tied to an iron stake driven into the earth, and was burned to death in the presence of about a thousand persons.

Earlier in the evening, Will Clark, a negro, was shot and killed when his father, Andrew Clark, refused to allow a posse to search his premises, on the assumption that Ellis was concealed there.

The burning occurred in the public square.

Early Friday morning Mrs. McKinney went into her back yard, and was seized by Ellis. She fought desperately and the negro, running away, called that he would murder her should she tell of the attack.
