

NERVOUS PROSTRATION IS SYSTEMIC CATARRH.

Peruna is the only Systemic Catarrh Remedy known to the Medical Profession

MRS. IDA L. GREGORY
A LEADING CLUBWOMAN OF DENVER, Colo.

Mrs. Ida L. Gregory, President of the Poets and Authors Club of Colorado, President of Colorado Art Club, Director of School of Industry and Design, Vice President of the Sherman Art League, is one of the Leading Club Women of Colorado.

In a recent letter from 2 Grant Avenue, Denver, Colo., this prominent lady says:

"Some years ago my husband suffered from nervous prostration and advising with a friendly druggist he brought home a bottle of Peruna. His health was restored from its use, his appetite was increased and restful sleep came to him. I therefore heartily endorse Peruna, as an honest remedy worthy the good things which are said of it."—Ida L. Gregory.

Nervous prostration is so frequently associated with systemic catarrh that some doctors do not distinguish between the two. In systemic catarrh the disease has pervaded the whole system and there is a constant loss of vital fluids from the mucous membranes.

A great many people are doctoring for nervous prostration who would be immediately cured by a course of Peruna. Peruna makes clean, healthy mucous membranes. By this preservation of the fluids the weakening drain of their discharge is prevented.

The medical profession is just beginning to awaken to the fact that chronic catarrh, especially systemic catarrh, will soon produce a condition so nearly resembling nervous prostration that it is very difficult to tell one from the other.

Peruna cures these cases without fail.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case, and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

Address Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, O.

UNCLE SILAS ON AUTOS.

Old Gentleman Compares Them Unfavorably With the Horse.

"Naw," observed Uncle Silas as he hitched a nail keg a few inches so as to keep within the receding shade of a tree in front of the country store, "I calculate I wudn't hev one o' them goshd'nd ottymobeels of sum feller wud giv' me one fer nuthin'. Hain't skasy a day passes that one o' th' blame sputterin' things don't break down out in th' road in front o' my house. One o' them ottymobeels will git up an' git like all Sam Hill for a few miles and then, fust thing yew know, it will jes stop, fustin' tuckered out.

"Ez I wuz drivin' intew town this mornin' I kim acrost two ottymobeels thet hed barked. Th' feller thet owned one wuz a-layin' on his back in under it a-tightenin' up sum bolts in its stummik. Tother chap wanted tew know what I wud charge tew haul his ottymobeel ten miles tew th' nearest railroad station, so he cud ship it hum. I tol' him that Jinny, my bay mare, wuz skeer'd 'o th' infernal things an' thet if I'd hitch her tew th' ottymobeel I reckon'd she wudn't stay hitched long.

"Naw-air—e—I don't keer fer enny ottymobeels in mine, thank'ee; I calculate thet Jinny will answer my purpos yit fer a spell. Jinny is goin' on 23 years old an' mebbe she hain't quite es p'ry es the uster be, seein' es how she is spavin'd sum an' interres in frunt, but when I start out behind her I hev th' consolation o' knowin' thet she won't git sick an' lay down in th' road like one o' them gosh-blame ottymobeels. Jinny, she can't go a mile a minnit, like an ottymobeel kin, but she goes a mile es quick es she kin, an' thet's swif enuf fer me, b'gosh! I wudn't swap thet little bay mare fer all th' ottymobeels that yew cud pile in a ten-acre lot—I wudn't, I gum!"—Ohio State Journal.

NURSES' LIVES UNROMANTIC.

Seldom Marry Physicians or Patients They Have Attended.

It is generally supposed that there is a good deal of romance about the life of a professional nurse and that large hospitals are matrimonial bureaus where men and women fall in love with incessant regularity. Exactly the opposite is true. Nurses, as a rule, do not marry men whom they have nursed as patients, nor do they select for husbands the physicians with whom they come in contact in a professional way.

In the last year and a half but one engagement among the nurses at the Chicago hospital has been announced, and the incident was so unusual that it created no end of comment. The affair was, in fact, an extreme novelty, although the female attaches of the institution are unusually good looking.

"This proves that nurses do not lead the romantic lives that they are credited with by the outside world," said a physician. "I have frequently heard it said that men who had been seriously ill often married the trained nurses who had taken care of them. This is nonsense. I have employed hundreds of these women nurses in the course of my practice, and have yet to hear of a match resulting from one of them. As a general thing the patient takes an aversion to the nurse who has cared for him, and the better she has looked after him and the more strictly she has enforced the doctor's instructions the less he has cared for her.

"Physicians sometimes fall in love with the nurses they meet in their practice, but such affairs, instead of being common, are rare. If any girl enters the profession with the idea of capturing a husband she is apt to find herself sadly sold."

PEACH STONES FOR FUEL.

Have Been Utilized in Baltimore as Substitute for Coal.

The great strike and the increased cost of coal incident thereto has directed much attention to other materials for fuel, and a Baltimore man says a good substitute for the black diamond is dried peach stones. The only objection to their use is their scarcity, which depends entirely on the size of the peach crop. Frank Hall, the Baltimorean referred to, says his family had used peach stones as fuel for years until about three or four years ago, since which time the supply has appeared to have decreased.

"We used to get the dried peach stones from a Mr. Noel, who got them from the different packing-houses and dried them on his place," said Mr. Hall yesterday. "I think we paid $2.50 a load for them, the load containing about forty-five bushels. The fuel was used in the kitchen and gave good results. The stones will make a quick, hot fire and one that will last. One and a half or two buckets of the peach stones will last as long as a bucket of coal. One has to be careful not to fill the stove too full or there will likely be an explosion similar to a gasoline explosion. The proper way to keep the fire going is to put in a shovelful at a time.

"Peach stones thrown into a damp cellar," said Mr. Hall, "are said to have a peculiar effect on a person. After the stones are in the cellar for some time gases arise, and the fumes will go to one's head and give the same effect as if the distilled product of the peach had been imbibed."

First Woman to Revisit St. Pierre. Mrs. Joseph Haven, of Chicago, was the first woman to venture into the streets of St. Pierre since its destruction. Mrs. Haven went abroad with her husband two years ago, when he was made American consul at the island of St. Christopher.

DON'T GIVE UP.

Don't be discouraged by past efforts to find relief and cure from the myriads of ills that come from sick kidneys. You may pass nights of sleepless tossing, annoyed by frequent urination. Your back may ache like a toothache or sudden twitches and twinges of backache pain make life a misery. Perhaps you have nervous spells, are weak, tired-out, depressed. There is a cure for all of this and for every trouble of the bladder and kidneys. Read this case and note it tells how well the cure was tested:

Charles Lindgren, dealer of freight cars on the L. S. & M. S. R. R., La Porte, Ind., says: "I have greater faith in Doan's Kidney Pills to-day than I had in the fall of 1897 when I began taking them and made a public statement of the result. At that time I had suffered with lameness and soreness of the back, which was so excruciating that I could scarcely turn in bed, and Doan's Kidney Pills completely cured this trouble. I am always ready to endorse Doan's Kidney Pills personally to anyone requiring a kidney remedy. After a lapse of three years I make this statement, which shows my undoubted faith in the preparation."

A FREE TRIAL of this great kidney medicine, which cured Mr. Lindgren, will be mailed on application to any part of the United States. Address Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y. For sale by all druggists, 50 cents per box.

Aluminum for Paper.

It is stated that experiments with aluminum as a substitute for paper are now under way in France. It is now possible to roll aluminum into sheets four-thousandths of an inch in thickness, in which form it weighs less than paper. By the adoption of suitable machinery these sheets can be made even thinner, and can be used for books and writing paper. The metal will not oxidize, is practically fire and water proof and is indestructible by worms.

Quaint Sayings.

Commenting on the dubious anecdotes of Disraeli perpetrated in Sir Edward Blount's "Memoirs," a correspondent of the London Times thus writes on the fallibility of this sort of reminiscence: "Much nonsense was talked about Disraeli in those days; men perhaps began to believe the stories that passed from mouth to mouth and even to think they had themselves been present at scenes which never were. Lady Ashburton used to say that as a child she declared she remembered being present at her mother's wedding; and that, though she was whipped for making the statement, she never ceased to believe it."

Extensive Advertising. No street in the world can boast of so many advertisements as Broadway, New York. The combined length of the two sides of Broadway is 52,800 feet. The amount of advertising on the buildings and in shop windows is such that it would take a man between eight and ten days of eight hours each to read his way up one side and down the other.

STILL PERSECUTE THE JEWS.

Stringent Laws Put into Effect in Eastern Europe. Just now a new anti-Jewish movement seems to be sweeping over parts of Europe, more especially in the East, says Leslie's Weekly. Fifty thousand Jews have it is stated, been ordered to quit the mining province of Russia and to reside within the pale after sacrificing their occupations and their property. In Roumania, also, they are being forced to emigrate by a series of laws which practically deprive them of all means of subsistence. They have absolutely no rights, and live at the mercy of a population which hates them to such a degree that their parliament has declared all Jews to be foreigners, although they have been resident for centuries. Neither Germany nor Austria will do anything for them, and it seems impossible for Western Europe, which is more tolerant, either to protect them or to find them a new habitat.

When Babies Walk.

Experiments upon 1,220 children show that 95 per cent began to walk under the age of twenty-four months; a little over half under eighteen months; one-third under twelve months; 10 per cent under ten months. Three babies out of the whole number began to walk under eight months.

Degrees of Thinness.

The new fattion building in New York reminds one of Hood's thin friend. He was so thin that when he stood sideways he could not be seen. One of our later humorists puts it even better: "I used to be so thin that I could not tell whether it was my back or my stomach that ached."
