Lucy Gates, The soloist revealed herself as an artist of capabilities little, if at all, beneath the great accepted concert sopranos of the day. She succeeded, for one thing, in making the absurd Bell Song, from Leo Delibes, Lakme, a thing of beauty and rather through tone control than flexibility and pitch—something only too often attempted and too rarely achieved.—Philadelphia Enquirer, February 14.

KITCHEN HELPS

A simple way to bleach handkerchiefs, when it is not convenient to hang them out of doors, is to wash and allow them to soak over night in the water in which a little cream of tartar has been dissolved.

Old stains may be removed from leather by applying powdered pipe clay mixed with water to the consistency of a paste. Allow the paste to remain on the leather for several hours; then brush off. Repeat if the stain is not entirely removed the first time.

HOW A GREAT BASEMAN KEEPS FIT

In the American Magazine is the following account of Larry Lajoie of the Cleveland nine. He sat with his back to the window and his feet comfortably resting on the table in a Washington hotel lobby one evening last summer. An enthusiastic fan entered and greeted him with the remark:

"Mr. Lajoie how do you manage to keep your batting average so high and do it consistently?"

"Do you know why I am sitting in this position?" replied the famous baseball player.

"Possibly it is in order to avoid the glare of the street lamp," replied the interested fan, "although it wouldn't have occurred to me if you had not called attention to it."

"Yes," said Mr. Lajoie, "I never sit facing a light in the evening. I do not read the newspapers in the evening. I rarely go to the movies although I enjoy them, nor to the theater. Consequently, when I go on the baseball field I am rested, and my eyes are not tired out from overstrain the evening before. If I have better success than other players, I believe this has a great deal to do with it."

IN YOUR OWN BACK YARD

"Fresh carrots in your own back yard
May fill your table needs,
And please the eye all summer, too,
Where erstwhile nourished weeds.

"Close to your house, spade up and rake
A twelve inch strip of ground;
Three inches back from either edge,
Plant carrot seeds around.

"The feathery leaves resemble ferns,
To make the spot more bright,
Add poppy or nasturtium seeds.
'Twill bring sustained delight!"

BAD FOR TOMMY

Tommy was writing a long letter to his father at the front, when a visitor was brought into the room by his aunt.

In his haste to clear the table, Tommy upset the ink all over the brand new plush table cloth. Immediately he began to sob.

"Cheer up!" said the visitor kindly. "Remember it's no use crying over spilt milk."
But, Tommy replied amid his sobs:

"Course it ain't. But when you spilt milk you've just got to call the cat, and she'll lick it up for you. But this ain't milk, and mother will be the licking."—Exchange.

"A Square Deal Business"

We want to give you a square deal. You are entitled to it and ought to get it. When you pay trust prices you do not often get it, and especially when you pay trust prices for dentistry.

You have a trust in Logan and Cache County. We are not members of that trust. Two years ago when this office was opened you could not get a tooth out without paying one dollar for it, and the same thing held good with every operation performed on your teeth. You had to pay the price or there was nothing doing.

That condition has changed and it is no longer necessary to pay trust prices. We have attempted to put the price of dentistry where all people can afford to keep their teeth, and it is impossible to calculate the good that has come from it.

Prices were so prohibitive that it was a common thing to hear men of large families say that they simply could not meet the obligation and so the family teeth had to be neglected.

A man is entitled to a fair price for his services, but dentists nor any other class of men have no right to expect double value.

We guarantee you the very best there is to be had in dentistry and at prices that will leave you a little change if need be, to pay car fare.

In fact to people out of town we can save you all the cost of transportation if your job amounts to anything.
