MR. MC CRACKEN FOR CLERK OF CACHE COUNTY

Smithfield Will Ask Republican Convention On Saturday To Name Most Popular Candidate

Smithfield will come to Logan on Saturday, September 16, and before the Republican County Convention, will place in nomination the name of Mr. Henry McCracken for the office of county clerk.

A Republican primary was held at Smithfield, September 11, for the purpose of selecting fourteen delegates to attend the county convention to be held at Logan on September 16.

J. J. Melkie, Joseph J. Richardson, Henry McCracken, C. E. Peterson, George P. Toolson, R. H. Thornley, S. P. Ewing, William L. Wynn, W. H. Smith, Charles McCann, Richard Roskelley, Samuel Nelson, G. P. Toolson, R. B. Thornley.

I want to say Mr. Editor that it was the most enthusiastic Republican Primary I have ever attended and natural enough it was asked, what does the Republicans of Smithfield want in the way of county offices at the coming convention?

Mr. McCracken is well qualified to fill the position of county clerk with dignity and honor, having taught school in our district schools.

MAINE GOES REPUBLICAN BY BIG MAJORITY

As Returns From Isolated Towns and Plantations Struggle in Thoroughness of Victory

Portland, Maine, Sept. 12.—The thoroughness of the Republican victory at the polls yesterday was emphasized as the returns from isolated towns and plantations straggled in today.

Revised figures place the plurality of Governor-elect Carl E. Milliken, Republican over Governor Oakley C. Curtis at 13,355. Returns from the border show that the members of the Second Maine infantry cast a total vote of 479 of which Milliken received 309.

Pluralities for the Republicans who will send a solid delegation to Congress were practically unchanged from the figures of last night as were the pluralities of Frederick Hale and former Governor Bert M. Fernald, who were elected to the United States senate.

The Republicans who have held a majority in the state senate will control both houses by a good working majority.

The revised vote for the governor, United States senators and congressmen follows: Governor—Milliken, Republican, 79,902; Curtis, Democrat, 66,547.

United States Senators—Hale, Republican, 78,044; Fernald, Republican, 79,368; Johnson, Democrat, 68,278; Sills, Democrat, 66,832.

Congressmen—Goodall, Republican, 19,732; Stevens, Democrat, 16,103; White, Republican, 19,157; McGillicuddy, Democrat, 18,770; Peters, Republican, 21,820; Bunker, Democrat, 18,277; Hersey, Republican, 15,066; Pierce, Democrat, 11,013.

Two years ago the Maine vote for governor was: Curtis, Democrat, 62,029; Haines, Republican, 58,862; Gardner, Progressive, 18,225.

The vote for president in 1912 is given as follows: Wilson, 51,113; Taft, 26,545; Roosevelt, 48,493.

In the present campaign the fight was particularly hot for the two United States senatorships and the four places held by Maine in the lower house at Washington. National defense, the tariff and the eight hour law for railroad men loomed large in the speeches.

The Progressives returned largely to the Republican party in the opinion of Republican leaders. The closest fight was for congressman from the Second district, where Representative Daniel J. McGillicuddy was defeated by Wallace H. White Jr. by 387 plurality.

Throughout the campaign in which a great number of men from all parts of the country and drawn from Republicans, Democrats and Progressives, participated, national issues were kept to the forefront. The interest aroused, together with perfect election weather, brought out one of the largest votes ever cast in the state and possibly greater than ever has been known before.

For the first time the two United States senators were elected by popular vote and the Republicans made a determined effort to win the one seat in the senate and the single seat in the house of representatives held by Maine Democrats. The Democrats had claimed the state by 3,000 and the Republicans by 15,000.

RAMONA AT LYRIC THEATRE TUE. AND WED.

Ramona, the best loved heroine in American fiction, has been endowed with life and motion, and Logan people will be given the first chance at the Lyric Theatre to see with the eye the beautiful half breed California maiden, who heretofore has been visible to the imagination only through the pages of Mrs. Helen Hunt Jackson's delightful romance.

Ramona, which is a cinema operatic production of the novel, from the studio of the famous California director, W. H. Clune, will open a two days engagement at the Lyric on Tuesday and Wednesday next, September 19 and 20, there will be a matinee and night performance each day of the engagement.

A complete operatic score has been written and arranged to follow every moment of the story flashed on the screen and this score is interpreted by a symphony orchestra of twenty-five musicians. A chorus of mission singers will be heard in the beautiful hymn at dawn.

So vividly remembered by readers of Ramona, and several other vocal numbers scattered admirably interpretative of the spirit of the California romance.

Ramona, is credited with having set a new high standard in the recently developed art of the moving picture with orchestral accompaniment. It is the first of the productions to win its way on its own merits as a romance, without the accompaniment of outside sensationalism.

It tells a wonderfully sweet story and tells it well, appealing legitimately to the emotions aroused by any work of the highest art. Its success in Los Angeles, San Francisco, New York and Chicago, are sufficient tributes to its merits as an entertainment. Its appeal to women is especially strong from the point of view of the story, while music lovers of either sex cannot escape the magic of its musical setting.

M. I. A. CONVENTION

The annual convention of the M. I. A. will convene in Nibley Hall Sunday, September 17 at 10 a. m. and 2 p. m. In the evening a special program will be rendered by M. I. A. talent both local and visiting at 7:30 in the Tabernacle.

All Mutual workers are urged to be present as special topics will be treated with reference to our winter's work.

PROGRESS OF DRAINAGE WORK IN DELTA TRACT

The drainage work in the Delta tract is progressing rapidly and the reclamation of several thousand acres of alkali land is assured, according to a statement made by Dr. F. S. Harris, Director of the Experiment Station of the U. A. C. who has just returned from Millard county. Dr. Harris, working in conjunction with Mr. Joseph P. Welch, county agricultural agent, has been assisting in the drainage movement. Ninety miles of drainage pipe have been laid and this is rapidly carrying the alkali out of the soil.

A private company has been operating in the district with great success for some time past. The farmers have also organized to work cooperatively on the project and the machinery for the work has just arrived.

Keep Busy.

To be happily busy—busy in doing something we delight in doing—is a splendid antidote for worry. For indolence is an acid on the wheels of life; and in the eye of energy. Thousands of semi-invalids to whom adverse fortune has denied the pleasures of useful work have ridden to health on a hobby.

MRS. BINGHAM SUCCOMBS TO TYPHOID FEVER

Mrs. Anie Maria Bingham, wife of William Bingham of this city, died early Tuesday morning following an attack of typhoid fever contracted early in August.

Mrs. Bingham has resided in Cache Valley nearly all of her life and is well and favorably known in Trenton, where she lived for a good many years after coming to Utah and has made her home in Logan for the past seventeen years. She was born in Ogalshar, Denmark, November 29, 1863, and was therefore 53 years of age.

Desires the husband, a family of 9 living children survive the deceased. Funeral services will be held in the First ward meeting house on Sunday, September 17 at 12 o'clock.

CANDIDATES GALORE WANT NOMINATION

Many Are Being Urged By Their Friends To Enter Race. This Is a Republican Year

There will be an abundance of candidates for the various nominations at the Republican convention next Saturday. From the north, Louis McCarty of Richmond, is spoken of for the legislature; from the central district, Dr. O. H. Budge is spoken of as a likely candidate; from the south end of the county, Hon. A. M. Swanson is said to be the choice of a good man for the job; at Hyrum, Wlature.

For the office of sheriff, we have prospective candidates galore. At Lewiston, Floyd Whitl is said to be a good man for the job; at Hyrum, J. City Marshal, Iver Albertson is said to be a candidate. Fred Whittle of Richmond is another good man spoken of for the place.

James Hansen of Providence, a life long Republican and a man well thought of in his community, may be named for county assessor. Martin Olsen of Millville is a candidate for this position; Willard Chugg of Providence is said to be a candidate for this office, as well as Fred Ballam of Hyde Park.

Judging from the number of candidates for the various nominations, this will surely be a Republican year in Cache county. As goes Maine, so goes the nation, has been a political slogan for the past thirty two years and it has only failed once, and the exception goes to prove the rule. Secretary Daniels considers the result of the Maine election a victory for the Democrats. If the Democrats can get any satisfaction out of losing a state by 13,500 votes, they are willing to all of the satisfaction there is in it.

In the matter of county clerk, the name of Henry McCracken, is one of the recent names to be thrown into the political ring. This name should almost scare the roof off the Democratic shanty, as Mr. McCracken is one of the finest young men in the county. If he should get the nomination for county clerk, there is little question but what he will be elected.

Referring to the Cow?

It is said that a gravestone bears this inscription: "Here lies the body of Samuel Holden, who died suddenly and unexpectedly by being kicked to death by a cow. Well done, good and faithful servant!"

RITA JOLIVET AT THE LYRIC FRI. AND SAT.

Bennington Brent, the laundry king uses the phrases of the trade to shrewdly express his observations.

His beautiful daughter, Florence Brent, being of another generation, reflects the finish or as Brent expresses it, "The satin gloss" of wealth and elegance.

Congressman John Oglesby, her chum from childhood is a handsome young statesman and a prominent member of the National Assembly.

Florence visits her chum, Eleanor Williamson, who lives in Washington and meets Eleanor's fiance, Count Krinburg.

The Duke of Buritz, a fellow countryman of the Count endeavors to corrupt Oglesby for international political reasons. But he fails in his estimate of the man.

The Duke, who is the ambassador for his country at the American capitol is introduced to Florence by the Count on whom she has made an impression. The attentiveness of the Count to Florence leads to the breaking of her engagement by Eleanor Williamson, but having inherited an estate, the count feels independent of international marriages.

The subtle deception of the duke and count is discovered and shown up by Oglesby, who solves the seemingly impossible tangle in a masterly way. This production will be shown at the Lyric Friday and Saturday.
