

The closing of the year marks also the ending of the greatest war in history. No more will the business of the world be jeopardized by the ruthfulness of a single nation. During the past year and a half our chief aim has been to win the war. Never in the world's history has there been such cooperation among people of varied enterprises.

We are now emerging from war conditions into what promises to be a very prosperous era.

Reconstruction Problems In Clothes

NOVELTIES FILL THE SHOPS FOR THE EARLY SHOPPERS

With the reconstruction of devastated Europe comes the reconstruction of last year's gown. Of course we will be allotted more finery now that the war is over, but the feminine world discards, to a certain extent, this privilege and decides that it is far more fashionable to be doing reconstruction work. Whether it is a gown or a village of beautiful France my lady is intensely interested.

lace, to be worn with velvet dresses, are at present very smart. In some cases there is a collar and cuff to vest, but one must be very careful not to overdo with an abundance of lace. Just enough refined, but too much is inclined to look cheap, even though the lace be of the most expensive quality.

Many dainty boudoir caps are developed from this network of design, and those that are particularly pretty are those fashioned after the style of Marie Antoinette. With this period, one usually associate the most feminine modes of the history of dress. And as lace is one of the most feminine trimmings, it follows that developed after the Marie Antoinette style they are just glorious delights.

BOUDOIR GOWNS

One of the shops is showing an attractive selection of boudoir gowns the inspiration for which was found in the Italian period of the fourteenth and fifteenth centuries. These show batiked velvets, chiffons and brocades all in colorings, typical of that period. For the woman of slender grace these models are shown.

ATTRACTIVE SKIRT AND BLOUSE

The "reconstruction" of a gown is in reality quite simple. If the lines of the frock are good, some little added touch, like a collar and cuff set or some unique way of draping the skirt, will give an entire new and fresh look to the dress.

BITS OF LACE

Lace, the beautiful. There is always something about this filmy texture that bewitches even the most cautious of women. There is just a myriad of various little things lying about the shops, and each individual taste may be satisfied. Vests of filet question for one of awkward stature to adopt any of the period costumes. Big, comfy, fleecy bathrobes are now on sale in most of the shops. But there are patterns, too, that one may get and with the assistance of a big blanket, one would be well protected against the cold of frosty nights.

THE SEPARATE SKIRT

The most necessary thing in life, especially to the business woman. Always these standbys are smart looking and so practical. The one shown here has the side pleats and the buttoned over flap as a feature and the charming blouse worn with it makes the whole a stunning costume. The other frock has a dainty little yoke of net, and puffed sleeves of net to correspond. The skirt is long and rather narrow and the buttons down the side tend to emphasize this line.

AMERICAN RED CROSS IN FRANCE

From the January Red Cross Magazine

The American Red Cross has made contributions to 4,000 French hospitals; has given artificial limbs to French mutilated soldiers; has established canteens at the front, in the metropolitan zone about Paris, and on the lines of communication, where millions of poilus have been warmed and fed. It has subsidized French canteens that were closing for lack of funds; made gifts of money to soldiers' families, and to General Petain for distribution among the needy of his armies; and has also helped the French Red Cross organization financially.

Today France is divided into nine working zones, with Red Cross managers in each; and the administration of each zone is modeled upon that of the General headquarters in Paris. The Red Cross now deals primarily with the American soldier.

The American Red Cross in France now has approximately 10,000 hospital beds for American soldiers. In one period of two weeks 13,000 American soldiers went through Red Cross hospitals. The Society has supplied millions of dressings and thousands upon thousands of splints

GIVE "SYLUP OF FIGS" TO CONSTIPATED CHILD

Delicious "Fruit Laxative" can't hurt tender little Stomach, Liver and Bowels.

Look at the tongue, mother! coated, your little one's stomach, liver and bowels need cleansing at once. When peevish, cross, restless, doesn't sleep, eat or act naturally, or is feverish, stomach sour, breath bad; has sore throat, diarrhea, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs" and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of his little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again. Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which contains full directions for babies, children, of all ages, and for grown-ups.

Animals Refuse to Eat. In the Edinburgh zoo there is a crocodile which is content with a rat or a piece of horseflesh every fortnight. There is an anaconda which arrived recently and has since steadily refused to take food of any kind, an example of abstention surpassed, however, by an Indian python, which during its thirteen months' stay has not voluntarily taken food.

NEW CASES OF INFLUENZA IN HYDE PARK

HYDE PARK, Jan. 1.—The influenza has again broken out in our community. Several of our citizens who have been away from home work contracted the malady and were brought home to their families, who, in some instances, have taken the disease. We now have seven homes under quarantine with about fifteen cases. All the cases are reported to be recovering and we hope to soon rid ourselves of the infection again.

Mr. Evender Waite returned home from Camp Lewis on a short furough to see the folks. Evender was especially pleased with his two months old boy who was born after he was drafted into the service. Mr. Waite returned on Monday.

A recent social gathering of note was the birthday party given in honor of Mrs. George Z. Lamb at her home on Saturday evening. Those present included only the near relatives. Refreshments were served.

Mr. Hester McQuarrie of Ogden spent several days visiting in Hyde Park. While here she was the guest of her two sons F. T. Ballan and

R. S. McQuarrie, Mrs. McQuarrie is now engaged in the millinery business in Ogden.

Mr. Rudgar Nielsen who suffered a broken back last summer while engaged in harvesting wheat is recovering nicely and is able to walk some which is very encouraging.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Mikkelsen of Arbon, Idaho, have been spending the holidays with relatives here and in other communities of our county. Mr. Mikkelsen says the farmers are having trouble in getting their immense wheat crop on the market.

Mr. William Ricks of Rexburg, of Rexburg, Idaho, has been spending a short visit with his daughter Mrs. George S. Hancey. Mr. Ricks is on his way home from Omaha, Neb., where he has delivered a shipment of cattle. He states that the open winter is saving hundreds of tons of hay daily in the vicinity of Rexburg.

After a rest of eleven weeks our band has again started playing. They went to Wellsville on Monday night and will play here again tonight.

Mrs. William Peterson of Logan is visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. James E. Hancey.

Mr. Ola Larsen, an aged resident of our town is seriously ill. Mr. Larsen is eighty-five years old and has been a resident of our town for nearly forty years. On account of his extreme age, fears are entertained for his recovery.

Mrs. Loe Hancey is quite ill at this writing. Mrs. Hancey is recovering from the effects of influenza.

Mr. Wilford Seamons of Preston, spent a few hours Thursday, visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilford Balls are rejoicing over the arrival of their sixth son.

Messrs. Joseph W. Waite, Wm. Perkes and James Balls received 3 cars of baled hay from Idaho, Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Marinus Anderson of Logan; Mr. and Mrs. David Hansen of Trenton; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Jessop of College; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Jensen of Lost River; spent Sunday as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Sanders.

Mrs. Carrie Elwood has returned to her home in West Webber after spending several weeks visiting Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Elwood.

Rules Only for the Weak. It is one of the weaknesses of mankind that it is forever establishing rules, programs, formulae. They serve their purposes for the guidance of ordinary minds. But the pioneers of thought ride rough-shod through the rules. They gain the ends they desire by refusing to be directed by what someone else has thought before them, by what teachers have insisted upon as binding.—Exchange.

FOR CROUP

"Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is splendid for croup," writes Mrs. Edward Hassett, Frankfort, N. Y. "My children have been quickly relieved of attacks of this dreadful complaint by its use." This remedy contains no opium or other narcotic and may be given to a child as confidently as to an adult. Adv
