

Comments On The Life Work And Character Of Theodore Roosevelt.

VICE PRESIDENT MARSHAL
 "I am not one of those who have no feeling of regret over the death of a man who occupied so large and prominent a place in the political and public affairs of American life as did the late President Roosevelt simply by reason of the fact that I did not agree with him in his political views nor approve of his theories of statesmanship.
 "The greatest safety to the republic arises from the sharp clashes of men whose ideas are as far apart as the poles. This clashing of ideas enables the common people at large to pursue a middle course.
 "The late President undoubtedly will leave a permanent impression upon American life. He was a born fighter. I did not know him personally, but I have ascertained since coming to Washington that he had more personal friends than any public man who was ever in this city."
FORMER PRESIDENT TAFT IS DEEPLY SHOCKED
 "I am deeply shocked by the death of Colonel Roosevelt. I saw him in the hospital six weeks ago, and he seemed to be very vigorous.
 "I mourn his loss personally, and I greatly regret it for the sake of his country."
 Asked if he thought Colonel Roosevelt's death would affect the international future of the nation, Mr. Taft replied:
 "That's a very difficult question to answer. His influence and advice were important. His patriotic Americanism will be missed, of course. I am very sorry."
SENATOR JOHNSON OF CALIFORNIA
 "The greatest American of our generation has passed away. He had a truer vision, a higher courage, a wiser statesmanship than any man of our time. I cannot speak of him in ordinary terms. To me he had no parallel, none approached him in virility or force or profound knowledge on varied subjects; he stood alone in quickness of perception, in courage for the right as he saw it. I am mourning today not only the greatest American, a world figure such as time seldom presents, but a thoughtful, kindly, appreciative friend."
SENATOR SMOOT OF UTAH
 "Colonel Roosevelt's death is a distinct loss, not only to the United States but to the whole world. He did more to show the American people the absolute necessity of our country entering the world war than any other living man. He despised dishonesty and demagoguery wherever found. The world is better off for his having lived in it."
SECRETARY OF NAVY DANIELS
 "The death of ex-President Roosevelt removes one of the ablest of the dynamic forces his country has produced. He has blazed new paths and refused to be fettered by conventions that other distinguished men recognized.
 "Original, forceful, courageous, he was the monitor of millions of his fellow citizens who will miss his inspiring leadership. * * * His last days were saddened by the death of his brave son who gave his life for his country. But his devotion to the cause for which the young man died gave him ability to rejoice in his courage and in the supreme sacrifice."
SECRETARY OF WAR BAKER
 "During his long and brilliant career he touched the public life of America in more ways than any other of our public men. His relations to the navy and to the army are of course a part of the history of those two services. * * * Taken all in all it is the close of a great career, typically American and marked at every point by loyalty to American ideals as well as by restless energy and determination."

SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY GLASS
 "Colonel Roosevelt was an extraordinary figure in American public life and leaves a legacy of patriotic endeavor and useful achievement of which those who most respected and honored him will always be proud."
DIRECTOR GENERAL McADOO
 "Colonel Roosevelt's prodigious activities for the past twenty years made him one of the most conspicuous figures in our public life. We are too near the event to place a just estimate on his life and career. That must be left to the future historian, but he will always be distinguished for one great achievement—the construction of the Panama canal.
 "This monumental work profoundly affected the world's commerce and is one of those distinctive and epochal contributions to the progress of civilization. The Panama Canal establishes for Colonel Roosevelt a permanent place in the Hall of Fame."
SENATOR BORAH OF IDAHO
 "Colonel Roosevelt was in many respects the most remarkable personality yet appearing in American history. Every one will concede that he has rendered incalculable services to his country and his countrymen. His vision and his courage in this great conflict will never be forgotten by the American people."
SPEAKER CHAMP CLARK
 "He was one of the most extraordinary characters this country has ever produced. He was the personification and exemplar of energy. He exercised his talents and industry in many fields of human endeavor and in every one of them was distinguished to a remarkable degree. He has a wonderful hold on the popular imagination and will hold a high place and fill much space in American history."
REPRESENTATIVE CANNON OF ILLINOIS, FORMER SPEAKER
 "Colonel Roosevelt's place in history will be as one of the great Presidents of the republic. He kept in closer touch with the executive department than any other President I have known. While I occupied the speaker's chair, and he the President without conference on his invitation and contrary to the popular impression he sought advice as often as he offered suggestions."
ACTING SECRETARY POLK OF THE STATE DEPARTMENT
 "He was one of the most striking figures in the history of this country, and, in fact, of his time. It is impossible to measure today what he did to arouse the political conscience of the American people."
SENATOR POINDEXTER OF WASHINGTON
 "There are millions who will feel his loss as that of a friend and advocate. He was a 'happy warrior' for truth and justice. The nation can ill afford to spare him—the greatest man of his time."
SENATOR CHAMBERLAIN OF OREGON
 "A truer, more loyal American never lived. It was never difficult to know what was in his mind and heart, for with a courage that was characteristic of him whether in private or public life, whether as soldier or civilian, he never hesitated to give expression to his views. * * * He was by instinct and preference a fighter, and America has lost one of her most forceful citizens."
BAINBRIDGE COLBY, MEMBER OF THE SHIPPING BOARD
 "Colonel Roosevelt was one of the greatest men in the world and a classic type of American. He loved his country better than his life and served his day and generation with genius and brilliance and courage and devotion."

COUNT DE CHAMBBUN, CHARGÉ D'AFFAIRES IN THE AMBASSY OF AMBASSADOR JUBBER BAND
 "France shares the grief of the United States in the loss of their great citizen, whose life, entirely consecrated to his country is an illustration of American character.
 "Few men have thought, spoken, written, acted with as much force as he who has just died so suddenly, few men have been more representative of their time and of their country; few men have enjoyed such immense popularity which has crossed frontiers and oceans, for the fame was universal.
 "France, whose friends he was will not forget the ardor with which he espoused her cause at the hour of her supreme trial, the noble conviction, the eloquence, the enthusiasm with which he spoke of her. She will not forget his whole family enrolled in her defense, nor his son brought down from her skies to occupy a grave on her soil."
 Former Ambassador James W. Gerard described Theodore Roosevelt as "the greatest American of his day," representing "the highest type of the real old-fashioned American" whose place would be hard to fill, because he understood and represented all sections of America.
 "I am deeply shocked," said Thomas Ryan, "the country has lost a man who always fought for what he believed to be right, but more than all he was a true American."
WILLIAM J. BRYAN
 "The rare qualities that won for Colonel Roosevelt a multitude of devoted followers naturally arrayed against him a host of opponents, but his death puts an end to controversy and he will be mourned by foe as well as by friend.
 "He was a great American and made a profound impression on the thought of his generation. His picturesque career will form a fascinating chapter in our nation's history."
MAN WHO SHOT T. R. DECLARES HIS GRIEF
 Waupun, Wis., Jan. 5.—"I am sorry to learn of his death. He was a great American. His loss will be a great one for the country."
 This expression over the death of Colonel Roosevelt came from John Schrank, the man who shot him while he was in Milwaukee in the fall of 1912.
 Schrank is confined in the hospital for the criminal insane here. He was told of the death of the former President by Maj. Rock Sleyter, superintendent.
WYOMING GOVERNOR FEELS PERSONAL LOSS
 Cheyenne, Wyo., Jan. 5.—Preceding his inauguration address Governor Carey made the following statement:
 "By the death of Colonel Roosevelt the nation and the world lose one of the greatest and most fearless men whose broad view and fearless spirit is sorely needed in the reconstruction period. His death is a personal loss to me. He was my friend."
 When war was declared and Colonel Roosevelt offered the country his services, Governor Carey was one of the first volunteers to offer his services in Colonel Roosevelt's regiment.
T. R.'S VOICE WILL BE EVER-COMPELLING
 Springfield, Ill., Jan. 6.—In an expression here today on the death of Col. Theodore Roosevelt, Governor-elect Frank O. Lowden said:
 "Wherever despotism, whether the despotism of some future Hohenzollern or a Bolshevik, shall threaten, Theodore Roosevelt, though in his grave will speak to the American people with a compelling voice. He is still the valiant foe of greed, oppression and injustice. He is not dead, but has gone to join his brave, beloved boy. He will live forever in the hearts of the American people."

CARDINAL GIBBONS IS MUCH SHOCKED
 Baltimore, Md., Jan. 6.—Cardinal Gibbons said tonight:
 "It was a terrible shock to me to learn of the death of former President Roosevelt. I had been intimately acquainted with him from the time he was elevated to the high office of President of the United States and we were very dear and good friends. It is a terrible loss to me and to the whole country."
SINCERITY PRAISED BY GOVERNOR STEWART
 Helena, Mont., Jan. 6.—"In the passing of Colonel Roosevelt the nation loses a true American," declared Sam V. Stewart today.
 "He was sincere; no one, even his enemies could honestly question his sincerity. In his death the nation loses one of its foremost citizens, whose name will grace the pages of history as one of America's greatest statesmen and leaders."
ONTARIO PREMIER SPEAKS FOR CANADA
 Toronto, Jan. 6.—Sir William Hearst, premier of Ontario, said today regarding Theodore Roosevelt:
 "His sturdy support of the allied cause will long endear his memory to Britons the world over."
 The high esteem in which Colonel Roosevelt was held by the people of Canada is reflected in editorials published in the afternoon papers.

Mr. City Man:--

Here is an opportunity to get a piece of land—that you can live on and go back and forth from your business every day; that will pay for itself from the crops; and that will give your boys employment. "Let them have their own chickens, pigs, cows and crops; it will develop their responsibility."

11 acres, situated on the north of the Utah Experiment Station; 6-room brick residence; stables; cellar, chicken coops, etc. The soil is free from gravel or mineral and lies very smooth. It has a complete water right and is ideal soil for sugar beets, truck gardening, fruit trees and berries.

15 acres back of the U. A. C. on the hill, with a full water right; the soil is best adapted for hay, grains, fruit trees, etc.

The price and terms are made so easy that any one desiring this nature of deal will find no trouble in arranging for it.

Let me explain the proposition in detail to you; we can look it all over in an hour. Why not own a good piece of land? Now is the TIME.

Value of Nation's Own History.
 There is nothing that solidifies and strengthens a nation like reading of the nation's own history, whether that history is recorded in books or embodied in customs, institutions and monuments.—Joseph Anderson.

First Use of Cars.
 The idea of propelling ships independently of the wind first led to the use of ours. The discovery of land vehicles and the means of propulsion of land vehicles soon led to attempts to utilize it on behalf of vessels. It is claimed that the first attempt at this propulsion was made by Blasco de Garay, at Barcelona, in 1583.

Written Before Christ.
 All the books of the Old Testament were written long before the birth of Christ, some of them as much as 1,400 years before, others from 500 to 1,000 years before, and none less than 300 to 400 years before. The Gospels and other books of the New Testament were written from 33 to 60 or 70 years after the birth of Christ.

COUNTY BOARD OF EDUCATION RE-ORGANIZED

Saturday forenoon the former organization of the County Board of Education held a short session to clear up some unfinished business on the 1918 calendar.

Mr. Low, the retiring president of the Board of Education, was presented with a leather traveling bag by the members of the organization. The presentation was made by Mr. Hogan who reviewed the work of the board during the ten years that Mr. Low has held the presidency.

The following letter just received from the State Superintendent's office was read and ordered placed on the minutes:

Salt Lake City, Dec. 30, 1918
 Mr. Sylvester Low,
 Chairman of the Cache Dist. Board of Education, Smithfield, Utah,
 Dear Mr. Low:

It is with much regret that the State Department of Education learns that you are about to retire from the school board of the Cache district schools.

We have observed with satisfaction the interest you have taken during the last ten years in the schools of your county. You have been a responsible factor in overcoming the difficulties incident to consolidation, and you stood like a stone wall against the sentiment to perpetuate five miserable high schools, but, instead, you favored the establishment of two schools which you now have.

You have supported, often against your personal interests, every measure designed to increase the efficiency of your schools in the firm belief that a good education is the birthright of every American boy and girl. Under the wise administration of the board of which you were continuous chairman, aided by an able superintendent your schools have made remarkable progress until today they stand among the best in our state.

We extend to you our hearty congratulations and our high appreciation of your whole souled efforts. The chairman of the Cache district
