Smithfield News

SMITHFIELD, March 27.—Funeral services over the remains of Fishburn Chambers were held yesterday on the lawn of the residence.

The choir sang "Nearer Dear Savior to Thee."

The opening prayer was offered by Bishop J. L. Mortensen.

The choir sang "Softly Beams the Sacred Dawning."

The speakers were Elders J. W. Kirkbride, Bishop Wm. L. Winn, Jno. H. Peterson and William Raymond. All paid the highest tribute to the life and character of the deceased, and of his devotion to his mother and the family since the death of his father a few years ago.

Mrs. Nora Kirkbride and Mr. Mariner Roskelley sang a solo, accompanied by the choir.

Mr. William Pilkington rendered a solo.

The choir sang "Oh My Father."

Edwin Miles pronounced the benediction and Albert McCann dedicated the grave. The floral offerings were many and beautiful. A large crowd of relatives and friends attended the services.

Leman Fishburn Chambers was born in this city on January 16, 1899. He was the second son of the late A. B. Chambers and Mary Fishburn Chambers. He leaves a mother, three brothers and four sisters. Two weeks ago he contracted the flu which resulted in pneumonia. All that loving hands and medical skill could do was done, but he succumbed to the disease on Wednesday morning.

Several cases of pneumonia exist now as a result of influenza. Among the pneumonia patients for the week are Mrs. Joseph Pitcher, Attorney E. S. Chambers, Milton, Parley and Leonard Winn, Esper Mortensen, Vernon Bush and a child in each of the following homes: Richard Roskelley, James Hind, James Monson, Foster Gordon and Bishop George L. Farrell.

Messrs and Mesdames Howard Bingham and Henry Roskelley have welcomed an additional member in their homes.

Mrs. A. H. Price of McCammon, Idaho, and Moroni Price of Arimo, Idaho, have been at the bedside of Moroni Price, Sr., who has been suffering from heart trouble and hemorrhage the past ten days.

Mrs. David Winn of Centerville, is here nursing the family of Bishop

Winn who are all down with the flu. Forest Ranger E. R. Tuttle of Richmond has been in our city this week on business pertaining to his work.

Mr. and Mrs. George Romney, Jr., have come back home. Mr. Romney was a member of the State Board of Equalization the last two years, and spent most of his time at Salt Lake City.

Mr. Wallace Winn left on Tuesday for his farm at Arimo, Idaho.

Mrs. James Chambers of North Logan is nursing Attorney E. S. Chambers through a case of influenza.

Mr. Thos. Mathew who has been confined to his home through illness the past two weeks is again out at work.

Mrs. Lillie Waite of Hyde Park spent last Sunday with her father, Mr. John W. Harry.

Hyrum Sparrow and baby of Logan were buried here on Thursday. Mrs. Sparrow is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Larson of this city. Much sympathy is felt for the young wife and her six children.

Harold H. Carlson was home from Fort Douglas on a few days furlough on account of the illness of his baby.

The Misses Olga Larsen, Maud Douglas and Garnet Swan, primary school teachers visited the schools at Salt Lake City this week.

Mrs. Charles M. Collett is visiting her mother at Montpelier, Idaho, for a few days.

Marshal and Mrs. John Hadfield spent a few days at Salt Lake City this week.

Contractors Wm. Pilkington and Andrew Holjeson were at Ogden and Salt Lake City on business this week.

Mrs. Joseph Thomas of Preston was a visitor in our city this week.

Mrs. George Barber of Logan and Messrs Frank R. Lemon, Aquilla and Alfred Fishburn and Roy Nelson of Brigham City, attended the Chambers funeral on Friday.

John Dangerfield, Ernest Little-dyke, J. L. Buck, George Riches, Martin Rakeley, Elmer Kingsford, James Reese, Lester Traveler, Joseph Crockett, Ira E. Noble Jr., Joel Nelson and Mrs. Margaret Bingham are all remodeling or building new homes. There has not been such a building boom here for years.

Quite a number of our citizens attended the funeral services of Sidney Friday. Mr. Friday was a son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McCann of our city.

Mr. William Napper who recently purchased the Crystal confectionary, will take charge of the business on April 1. Mr. Napper has been the O. S. L. agent here for several years and through his courteous treatment and genial disposition has won the esteem of our people so we can predict unbounded success in his new undertaking.

Mr. C. S. Rose of Logan has leased the Arrow confectionary. Mr. Rose has had experience in this line of work, having worked at Jensen's and Murdock's in Logans.

Quite a number of our young men have received letters from Box B, and more are expecting them. Those already called on mission are Truman Hillyard, George Cannel, George Chambers, Vernon Tidwell, George Noble, Ernest Kearl, Leslie Hansen and Charles Purcell.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert McCombs are rejoicing over the safe arrival of a baby boy.

The flu situation has been more puzzling the last two weeks than at any time during the epidemic. More people have been afflicted and it seems to be of a more malignant type. All public gatherings have been stopped and all precautions taken so we can't censure any one. Seventeen homes were released from quarantine yesterday.

Mr. Wilford Nielsen spent a few days in Idaho Falls on business the past week.

Mrs. Howard Bingham of Trenton who has been living with her parents Mr. and Mrs. George A. Woolf for some time past, gave birth to a baby boy on Monday. "Heavy" who has been doing military service is happier now, 'tis said, than when the artistice was signed.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Reader are rejoicing over the safe arrival of a baby girl.

Mrs. Willard Cranney of Logan was visiting her brother, Mrs. Moses Jensen and family on Tuesday.

Mrs. Heber Balls is quite ill at this writing.

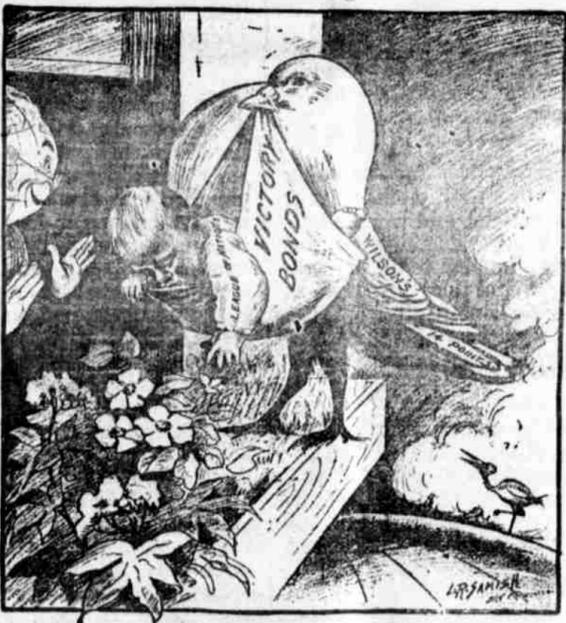

Mrs. Thomas Perkes has been in Logan the past few days taking care of her mother, Mrs. Isaac Jorgensen, who has been stricken with the flu.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Woolf entertained in honor of their neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. William Gibson on Tuesday evening. Refreshments were served and the evening spent in chatting. Mr. and Mrs. Gibson and family left Wednesday morning for their home which they recently purchased in Buhl, Idaho.

The flu situation seems to be under control, as we have no new cases and those who have the contagion are recovering nicely.

HYDE PARK NEWS OF INTEREST

HYDE PARK, March 27.—The past few days of spring weather has dried the fields to such an extent that farmers are now busy preparing their soil for crops. The season, being so forward, reminds one of four years ago when some of our farmers planted beets the last days of March. Mr. and Mrs. Fred O. Woolf who left their home here and went to Iona, Idaho, last summer when they learned of the accidental death of Mrs. Woolf's sister, Mrs. Hazel Stanger, and have since been living there taking care of her two children, are here visiting for a few days.

Miss Tony Grant of Logan was a Hyde Park visitor on Sunday.

Mr. Ewan Christensen who is visiting with his parents has a child afflicted with scarlet fever.

Mr. Cham. D. Friday spent a few days in Preston at the bedside of his brother, Sidney.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Woolf spent Sunday in Greenville visiting.

Mr. and Mrs. Clive Haacey and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Milligan spent Sunday in Hyde Park.

Mr. Arthur Seamons of Smithfield was a Hyde Park visitor one day the past week.

Mr. Lael L. Peterson is contemplating the erection of a neat bungalow this summer.
