WORK OF COMMUNITY CLUBS

"Betsey Ann Association" of Brighton, Illinois, Does Much to Boost Little Village.

(By P. G. HOLDEN, Former Dean of Iowa State College.)

Community clubs play an important part in the development of civilization. They present the greatest of opportunities for the co-operation of town and country to the lasting benefit of each. They enable the residents of the town and those of the rural districts to get together and do things for the welfare of all that otherwise would not be done.

This arousing of common interest in common interests brings the members of the community closer together, socially, industrially and economically.

In movements of this character every small town should feel vitally interested, for it can extend its trade territory many miles by uniting with the farmers in community welfare work. This work may take one form, or it may take another, but the life of any community organization depends upon having something to do that is worth while.

By the assistance of farmers, the town of Brighton, Illinois, a village of only 600 people, has worked wonders in the way of community road building.

For ten years the people of Brighton have been joining hands with their rural neighbors in co-operative work that not only has bettered the whole community, but has given the town a commercial and educational standing equal to that of many cities ten times its size.

The community organization, which has thus united town and country, bears the unique title of "The Betsey Ann Association." It has given the community 27 miles of excellent roads, a $15,000 accredited high school, a $5,000 community building and a neighborhood spirit which knows no township line or corporate boundary.

The Betsey Ann association is incorporated, but not for profit. It has 165 members, divided about equally between town and country, and its membership fee is only 25 cents. The executive committee consists of nine members, of which not more than five can be residents of the town.

The first improvement inaugurated by the association was the purchase of a fire bell. This bell was christened by a telephone operator, Miss Nell Flanagan. She gave it the name of Betsey Ann, which title has since passed to the association.

During the second week of August, each year, the association holds a two-day picnic in a large tent. Concerts, dramas and other forms of entertainment are given by local people from both town and country. These picnics are always attended by 2,500 or 3,000 people. All concessions are run by the association and all the profit goes into the treasury. About $500 is realized each year. The money is spent in road improvement.

One year the association built a mile of rock road, extending eastward from the town limits. Each year a contract for dragging, at frequent intervals, nine different roads, for a distance of three miles from town, is awarded. Each member of the executive committee has charge of a three-mile strip. An appropriation of $400 is annually made for this purpose.

These 27 miles of good roads are the visible results of the Betsey Ann association. They make it possible for Brighton to visit and to entertain her neighbors. They connect the town with the farm and make the interests of one the interests of the other. They have made possible the community building. They have made a reality a high school, for both town and country children, from which graduates are admitted to any college.

Wheels Used in Argentina.

Because some roads in Argentina have deeper dust in summer and deeper mud in winter than any others in the world, the wagons used on them have wheels from six to fifteen feet in diameter.

Work on Roads in 1915.

During 1915 the total road and bridge expenditures in the United States amounted to about $282,000,000, of which probably not over $15,000,000 represented the value of the statute and convict labor.
