

Eleanor Mantor, Miss Jessie Home, Miss Daisy Raybould, Miss Carrie Sappington, Miss Helen Burton, Miss Lella Stingley, Messrs. Poe, H. Hart, Belcher, Jack Lloyd, Livingstone, Clark, Arnold, Royden Taylor.

Mrs. Julian A. Knight of Virginia City, Mont., was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Graham F. Putnam. Mrs. Knight received her friends Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Putnam, 109 South Fifth East street. Mrs. Knight left the evening of the same day for Los Angeles.

Mrs. David Hempstead, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Welton, left for Detroit Monday evening, where they will spend the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel B. Westerfield and Miss Madge Westerfield have gone East for the winter.

Miss Marge Miller entertained at bridge on Thursday afternoon in honor of Mrs. John C. Miller and Miss Leila Trent.

Dr. Arnold left Monday evening for Galesburg, Ill., and Chicago, where he will visit relatives for a couple of weeks. While in Chicago Dr. Arnold will be the guest of his father, Dr. L. E. Arnold.

Judge and Mrs. Le Grand Young left Monday for New York, where they will spend a couple of weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Crapps of St. Louis were guests in the city Monday, en route to Los Angeles.

A. E. Pomeroy left Monday evening for the coast, where he will spend several weeks.

Mrs. Justus Jungk entertained the members of the Bridge club at her home Monday afternoon.

Philip Allison is rapidly recovering from an illness at St. Mark's hospital, and will soon be moved to his home.

Mrs. S. B. Clark and daughter have gone to Aspen, Colo., for two months to visit Mr. Clark.

Mrs. S. C. Adams has returned from the coast and is the guest again of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. McMillan.

The Army and Navy Journal has the following in its Fort Ethan Allen notes: "Lieutenant and Mrs. Samuel W. Robertson, who have been proceeding leisurely east on their honeymoon trip, having visited Washington, New York and other points, arrived Saturday and took quarters at the east end of the line. Mrs. Robertson, formerly Miss Henrietta Holmes, is no stranger in the post, having made several visits here in the home of the late Major Hoppin, Fifteenth cavalry."

Captain and Mrs. Briant H. Wells entertained at dinner Wednesday evening, their guests being Colonel and Mrs. S. D. Sturgis and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Caine.

Mr. and Mrs. James L. Franken entertained at dinner Tuesday evening in honor of Miss Charlotte Druehl of Chicago and Willard Donaldson of Colorado Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. John M. Walker have returned from Denver, where they spent the past few weeks.

Frank Manning, who spent the past fortnight with Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Jennings, left Thursday for his home in San Francisco.

The Sewing club met Thursday with Miss Daisy Savage.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard S. Stowe entertained the members of the Lantern club Thursday evening at their home 925 Second street.

Mrs. William S. Loomis, who has been studying music in Berlin for the past four months, expects to leave for Leipsig early in the new year, where she will continue her musical work.

Mrs. O. H. Kister is back from the Kimball ranch, and is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Rood.

NOTICE OF DISSOLUTION.

Notice is hereby given that the partnership of J. F. Morris and Etta Moody has been dissolved and all debts will be collected and all accounts paid by Etta Moody at the place of business, No. 519 West Second South.

J. F. MORRIS.
ETTA MOODY.

The SALT LAKE CITY BREWING CO.

"Our American Beauty" Beer

is growing in popularity Its merit is proved by its ever increasing sale and is rapidly and surely driving the higher priced eastern beers from this market. On sale at leading bars. Free delivery to any part of the City. Mail orders receive prompt attention.

SALT LAKE CITY BREWING CO.
JACOB MORITZ, Manager

Both Phones, 17.

Drunkenness Cured.

A positive and permanent cure for drunkenness and the opium disease. There is no publicity, no sickness. Ladies treated as privately as at their own homes.

The KEELY INSTITUTE, 324 W. So. Temple, Salt Lake City

R. K. Thomas Dry Goods Co.
67-69 and 71 MAIN

LIFE SAVERS.

You know, they used to say about insurance: "You must die to win." Don't need to now, as we will show if you just ask us. You can get a way more than your premiums in fifteen or twenty years, and still be insured for the benefit of your widow or family, who will consider your policy a "Life Saver" indeed.

National Life Insurance Co., of Montpelier, Vt.

56 Years Old and the Very Best, for the Policy Holder.

204-205 McCornick Building, Salt Lake City.

Geo. D. Alder, Gen'l Manager.

Z. Henry Jacobs, Cashier.

Talk Up Salt Lake and Utah. - Boost.