

Established 1864

W. P. KISER, Mgr.

Henry Wagener Brewing Co.

LAGER BEER & PORTER

Special attention given to bottled beer for family trade. Free delivery to all parts of the city.

OFFICE:
74 E ST FIRST SOUTH
PHONE 218.

MAKING THE BOARD COMPLETE.

Surely With This Every One Should Be Satisfied.

The late Patrick Holland of Winchester, Mass., had long been a regular attendant at town meetings, where he frequently spoke and made many bright remarks. Perhaps one of the most amusing was when nominations were being made in open meeting for the board of health. A prominent physician and an eminent lawyer had been nominated, when Mr. Holland arose and spoke as follows:

"Mr. Moderator, a doctor and a lawyer have been nominated for this health board, and the only thing to do now to make the work complete is to put on an undertaker, and everybody will be satisfied."

While the meeting was roaring over this sally, somebody suggested to Mr. Holland that he nominate one, which he did, and the meeting elected him, much to the amusement of all.

ESTABLISHED 1864

F. Auerbach & Bro.

ONE PRICE TO ALL NEVER UNDERSOLD

New White Goods

that delight and at prices no less pleasing

White Goods selling continues with unabated activity. Extraordinary values offered to create the keenest interest.

10 pcs white striped dimities, assorted patterns. Value 12½c; special for this week, per yard 8c

250 yds white checked dimities; all size checks. Regular 15c, special, per yard 11c

20 pcs Fine White Persian Lawn Usual 25c, special, per yard 17c

ADDITIONAL SOCIALS

Mrs. W. W. Riter was the hostess Thursday at an elaborate luncheon given in honor of Mrs. J. R. Folsom. The guests to meet Mrs. Folsom were Mrs. W. S. McCornick, Miss Keogh, Mrs. David Keith, Mrs. Robert Roy Hampton, Mrs. Andrew Howat, Mrs. W. F. James, Mrs. Joseph E. Caine, Mrs. Kenneth Kerr, Mrs. James H. Moyle, Mrs. Thomas Gould Griffin, Mrs. A. S. Bower, Mrs. James E. Jennings, Mrs. Frank W. Jennings, Miss Celia Sharp and Miss Jane Howat.

Mrs. J. W. Christy entertained at a luncheon for Mrs. John Reed of Denver Thursday at the Emery-Holmes. Following the luncheon an informal musical programme interspersed with readings by Mrs. Reed was rendered by Mrs. Edward Moore, Mrs. A. G. Andrews, Mrs. Harry Ganz and Mrs. J. H. Sanborne. The other guests were Mrs. Hoyt Sherman, Mrs. John Bradley, Mrs. A. L. Hoppage, Mrs. T. B. Beatty, Mrs. Paul, Mrs. E. A. Greenwood, Mrs. Fred Hale and Mrs. A. J. Gorham.

The guests of the Manito hotel and their friends to the number of about 200 had an informal dance at the hotel Thursday evening. A buffet supper was served late in the evening in the private dining room.

The current events and current literature section of the Ladies' Literary club met Thursday afternoon at the club house. Mrs. John Reed of Denver gave some readings. Mrs. Edwin Merrill read a paper on "Women Illustrators."

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Willey are just home from a trip of two weeks to Los Angeles and vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Adams and their son, Damon, are in San Francisco visiting the Damon family.

Miss Emma Ridgely of St. Louis is in the city visiting Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Brownlee.

Miss Ella Stickney is back from a stay of a few weeks in southern California.

The sophomores of the university gave their annual "sophomore assembly" dance in the museum building at the university Friday evening. The hall was decorated in green, the class color, with large cosy corners made in the style of summer houses. The chaperons were Dr. and Mrs. J. T. Kingsbury, Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Ebaugh, Professor and Mrs. Byron Cummings, Dr. and Mrs. J. F. Merrill, Dr. and Mrs. E. G. Gowans, Professor and Mrs. F. W. Reynolds and Professor George A. Eaton.

Miss Addie Zane entertained a half dozen girls Thursday at a luncheon for Miss Blanche Burke.

Walter Scott Crismon entertained a party of friends at a dinner at the Alta club Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Newhouse left for the east Thursday.

Mrs. W. H. Alexander has returned from Los Angeles, after spending some months there.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Cole are back from St. George and are now at the Manito.

Miss Leta McMillan, who is the guest of Miss Lella Trent in San Francisco, will leave there shortly for Spokane to visit her sister, Mrs. Lueltwitz.

Mrs. L. L. Terry is at the Hotel Colonial in San Francisco.

Mrs. H. J. Hayward entertained sixteen of her friends at a luncheon at the Commercial club Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Henry LaMotte and her son, Exton, sail from Panama for New York in a day or so.

ADDITIONAL TRUTHS

Tribune, please answer: Is President Roosevelt still supposed to have some sense, or since his reappointment of Postmaster Thomas has it been definitely decided that he has no sense?

Mrs. Mizner or Mrs. Yerkes or whatever her name may be by this time, has a great deal more money than sense.

Harry Tenny, a prize fighter is dead from the effects of a blow received in the prize ring. He can be spared and so could a great many others of the genus pug.

The public, particularly the advertising public, is still anxiously waiting for the daily papers to make proof of their circulation claims. Each claims from 6,000 to 7,000 circulation in the city. The Tribune, however, has less than 2,200; the Herald less than 2,000; the Telegram less than 1,300 in the city.

The reappointment of Postmaster Thomas was expeditiously confirmed by the senate, notwithstanding the snarling of the Tribune. That sheet should soon discover that its objections don't count for much in Washington.

The Gobbler Saved the Day.

One morning Uncle 'osh start 'out across the woods with an ax on his shoulder. He had gone about a mile when, looking ahead, he saw twenty-seven wild turkeys asleep on a branch of a large tree. The branch of the tree was about four feet from the ground, and Uncle Josh hit on a plan to get the whole flock. He walked up to the tree and, with a mighty stroke, split the limb just where the turkeys' toes clinched around it. As the crack in the limb closed up all of their toes were caught. This awoke the turkeys and they began to flop and make a great noise. Pretty soon the largest gobbler in the flock seemed to address the rest of the turkeys, and then they all made a spring into the air and flew oh with the tree hanging on their toes. This astonished Uncle Josh so much that he sat down on a stump and scratched his head and said, "By gum!"—Magazine of Fun.

Beyond Solomon's Wisdom.

It has been wisely said that any woman whom a man thinks he loves is in his eyes the "only woman" until he has been surfeited with too many only ones. Hear also the wisdom of King Solomon, which in all the ages has lost nothing of truth and pungency: "There be three things which are too wonderful for me, yea, four, which I know not: The way of an eagle in the air, the way of a serpent upon a rock, the way of a ship in the midst of the sea, and the way of a man with a maid."—Helen Oldfield.

TO CHARLES WARREN FAIRBANKS.

To persons not too cynical
Who worship the Sublime,
And dote on peak and pinnacle,
I recommend this rhyme,
To those who care for upper air
And do not mind a climb.

Ye tourists who prefer to see
How arctic mountains fare,
By senatorial courtesy,
Behold Mt. Fairbanks there,
Eternal frizz, towering from his
Ice-Presidential chair!

Mt. Bryan, quite volcanical,
Pours lava fore and aft,
And hot air most satanical
He frequently doth waft;
But Boreas shrieks when Fairbanks
speaks—
And people hate a draft.

The Senate loves him tenderly
When leavening the lump;
For though proportioned slenderly
His private purse is plump,
And clear and chill his passions rill
Like water from the pump.
It's Theodore' combativeness
Which weds him to his job;
It's Fairbanks' un-get-at-iveness
Which fends him from the mob—
How hopeless were the barriers
Of snows around the Snob!

But ethics Senatorial
Might easily putresce,
Through certain immemorial
"Committee business,"
Were't not a fact that Fairbanks' tact
Refrigerates the mess.

Yet sooner would fierce Kublai Khan
From gory conquest pause
Than Fairbanks, the Republican,
Would mar his party's laws.
His faith's secure—in fact, I'm sure
He's frozen to the Cause.

Like Thought in palest dimity,
Lovely and high of soul,
He stands in chill sublimity,
Ambition's sacred goal,
The Ultimate of all that's great—
The un-magnetic Pole!
—Wallace Irwin in Collier's.

ORPHEUM

MODERN VAUDEVILLE

Entrance on State Street
Both Phones 3569

Week Commencing Monday,
March 5, 1906

Beatrice McKenzie and Co.
Presenting A Montana Beaut

Happy Jack Gardner
Musical Monologue and Singing comedian

Madame Emmy
and Her Little Pets

Dietrickx Brothers
Marvelous Heavy Weight Lifting

Dacey, Chase and Adair
In The Irish Uncle's Visit

Rand and Byron
Acrobatic Comedy Act

The Kinodrome
Moving Pictures

Every Evening (Except Sunday),
75c 50c, 25c. Box Seats $1.00
Matinees, Tues., Thurs., Sat.,
50c, 25c, 10c. Box Seats 75c