INDIRECT KINDNESS.

"Am I my brother's keeper?"
Not my outward seeming,
Nor yet my idle dreaming;
But true and faithful serving,
From duty never swerving,
New hope imparts
To wavering hearts.
—Margaret Blair.

STRENGTH IN WEAKNESS.

Last night there toiled till late a little spinner,
From leaf to leaf her silken threads she swung;—
Now, dew-ensilvered in the morning sunshine,
The finished lace is hung.
And one who hath been wont to storm and conquer,
And strongest bars to break with dauntless pride,
To spare the filmy web across his pathway.
Pauses, and turns aside.
CLARA W. BRONSON.
