S. P. TAKES UP MONTELEO CASE

Sproule Replies to Ogden Merchants Signing Petition of R. R. Men's Wives

A statement of the position of the Southern Pacific company regarding the petition directed against the recent change in the method of assigning through freight train crews in the district between Ogden and Carlin, Nev., has been sent by President William Sproule to some seventy Ogden business men who signed the petition. A similar petition was also sent to Governor Bamberger. The wives of four engineers particularly protested because 114 children, many of junior high school age, would be compelled to make their residence at Montello where housing and educational advantages were said to be lacking.

The company, as a matter of good feeling, would prefer not to disturb the residence and comfort of those affected by the change proposed. President Sproule writes: "The change is not made at the instance of the company, but is an arrangement within the brotherhood, the majority of whom fit, and that desire has been confirmed by the government tribunal charged with the adjustment of such matters."

Prior to 1917, freight train crews operated as now between Ogden and Montello on the one hand, and between Montello and Carlin on the other. At that time, on request of the general committee of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, the two runs were combined, making a through run over the 248 miles between Ogden and Carlin, with layover at Montello, the half way point. Within two months, the same committee requested a return of the old arrangement and when the agreement between the company and the brotherhood was rewritten in October, 1918, the desires of the brotherhood were again complied with and the freight districts split at Montello, by a handwritten protest were made by the families of junior engineers, the proposed split at Montello was postponed until it could be voted upon by the men concerned. The majority decided for the split district and this was sustained by the federal board of railway wages and working conditions of the railroad administration.

Bleacher Seats to Join the H. C. L. Ranks

CHICAGO, April 12.—Twenty-five cent baseball in the American association is no more. The high cost of the national game will be reflected in the opening of the 1920 campaign. President Hickey has just announced that with the start of the national race April 14 the prices of all seats in every park in the league will be slightly raised to meet the mounting cost of operations and the higher salaries of players. The fan who last season paid thirty cents, war tax included, for a favorite spot in the bleachers will be obliged to lay down fifty cents this season. This includes the war tax. The price of grand stand seats will be advanced from 60 to 75 cents, war tax included. There is a chance for the fan who sits in the reserved seats. The price will remain the same 85 cents. The price of box seats, however, will be fixed by each individual club.
