

'FRIVOLITIES' IS BIG GIRL SHOW

Comedy Sketches of Great Merit Among Features of Colorful Production

Anderson, one of the predecessors of Bill Hart as a motion picture hero, who has entered a new game last night presented his "Frivolities of 1920" to a rather good sized audience at the Orpheum theatre, and the audience liked it. "Frivolities" is a show similar to such conglomeration of music, mirth and girls as "The Passing Show". In some respects "Frivolities" was better than "The Passing Show" but in other respects it fell behind. There was an abundance of pretty girls, jazzy music, colorful costumes and comedy work above the average in last night's presentation. For good measure there was an exhibition of splendid dancing, exclusive of the embellishment of the "shimmie" in its highest degree. There was some good singing on the part of the male members of the cast, but it was a noticeable fact that there was not a good soprano in the bunch of beautiful and shapely girls. Most of these were so easy of look upon, however, that the absence of a good singing voice was not greatly noticed. Three or four of the comedy sketches interpolated in the production are of supreme vaudeville quality and the audience enjoyed the work of these comedians immensely. The company carried along five or six extra musicians to add noise, jazz and harmony to the theatre orchestra. This they succeeded in doing in an eminently satisfactory manner.

RICKS TO HEAD WEBER FACULTY

Professo of History Elected President to Succeed Dixon

Joel Edward Ricks, who has been professor of history at the Weber Normal college for three years, last night was unanimously elected president of the institution by the board of education of the college. Mr. Ricks succeeds H. A. Dixon, who resigned the presidency to become head of the city schools in Provo. The new president came to the Weber Normal college from Gunnison, where he was principal of the Gunnison High school for five years. He is now in attendance at the University of Chicago, where he will receive his master's degree in September.

COAST GIRLS ON HIKE TO CHICAGO

Florence Compson and Hazel Standish to Enter Trials Swimming Tournay

Florence Compson of Taft, Cal., and Hazel Standish of San Francisco, girlhood chums, arrived in Ogden today from the coast, completing the first leg of their journey to Chicago. The two girls are swimmers of the championship class and are hiking overland on a wager. Both girls are new at the water game, but are said to possess class second to none in competition. Miss Compson is holder of the 100 and 200 yard records in northern California and Miss Standish is one of the leading fancy divers of the west. Both girls will enter the trials for the Olympic team at Chicago early in July. The two young women departed from the coast minus money. If they are successful in reaching their destination by selling postcards they will each receive $2500 in cash from a prominent San Francisco sportsman. Both young women departed today for Morgan, where they will camp during the night. They are both attired in hiking clothes.

Coast Athletic Stars Returning From Meet

Eleven track and field stars of the University of California and Stanford university spent three hours in Ogden today en route to the coast. The two aggregations recently competed in the Penn relays and in the western track and field championships at Ann Arbor, Michigan. "Spot" Kirksey, star sprinter of the Stanford squad, was numbered among those present. Kirksey easily qualified in the century at Penn but was unable to compete in the finals owing to a torn ligament which he sustained in the 220-yard dash. Kirksey, according to eastern critics, was the choice to win both sprints in the national games, the accident barring him. Kirksey and "Husky" Marchant, broad jumper and weight man, left the party today, taking a San Pedro train for Los Angeles, where they will enter the western trials for the Olympic games. The University of California baseball and tennis teams will complete their play in the east this week, according to the tracksters, and will then return to the coast. The showing of both Stanford and California was regarded as remarkable in the east, considering the fact that both teams totaled but eleven men.

CALIFORNIA 'U' GIRLS EN ROUTE TO YELLOWSTONE

Thirty-five young women, students of the University of California, were in Ogden today for a few hours, en route to Yellowstone park. The young women were all attired in hiking clothes and will spend six weeks camping and studying, observing the conditions of the park. Miss Hazel Wright, in charge of physical education at Berkeley, is in charge of the young women. After reaching the entrance to the park the young ladies will start their hike. They were selected from more than 3500 women students of the school to make the trip. Expenses for the entire party are being paid by the university. The school authorities plan to make the event an annual affair.

Youth Taking Auto Waives Preliminary

Charles Connelly, charged with grand larceny, pleaded guilty before Judge D. R. Roberts of the city court this morning and waived preliminary hearing. He was bound over to the district court. Connelly is said to have stolen an automobile belonging to O. W. Owens, Near Tremonton, the car met with disaster and Owens was severely cut about the head. When he appeared before the city court this morning, both of his eyes were black and two cuts were visible over his left eye. Another crescent-shaped incision showed up on the bridge of his nose and the eyelid of his right eye had been nearly cut through. There were two gashes, nearly five inches long behind his left ear. The shirt which he wore bore evidence that he had bled profusely. Connelly was thrown through the windshield when the car crashed into the ditch, say the police.

GRANDMA FERRIN TO OBSERVE HER 86TH BIRTHDAY

"Grandma" Martha A. Ferrin, a pioneer of 1847, will be 86 years of age next Saturday. The event is to be made the occasion for a reunion of the Ferrin family at Lorin Park, with the pioneer as the guest of honor. There will be an interesting program, the events of which are to begin at 1 o'clock.

Undertakers to Lodge Complaint With City

Request that the city police enforce the ordinance which makes it a misdemeanor to "cut into" a funeral procession is to be asked by Ogden undertakers following several complaints recently. "One man, driving a flivver, broke in and continued for about a half a block between the hearse and the mourners' auto," one undertaker said today. "We are frequently annoyed when automobiles dash through a cortege as we pass intersections."

Make Preparations to Care for Campers

S. B. Locke, in charge of fish and game cooperation for the forest service headquarters, departed yesterday for Salina and for the headquarters of Fish Lake country to complete arrangements for the accommodation of heavy tourist travel that is expected in that vicinity during the summer months. Reports from that vicinity are that while the season has been somewhat backward the lake will be ideal for camping in the near future and preparation for hundreds of campers and automobile tourists are being made.

War on Squirrels Reaps Good Results

Reports from the Weber county farm bureau indicate that the campaign which has been carried on for the past few weeks for the eradication of ground squirrels, has been highly successful. By sprinkling poisoned oats on the ground, thousands of creatures were destroyed. The ground squirrels are capable of causing thousands of dollars worth of damage to farmers by destroying grain crops, it is said.

Julius Kahn Here; Strong for Hoover

Julius Kahn, United States senator from California, spent several hours in Ogden yesterday en route to Chicago. Senator Kahn was accompanied by his wife. They took a short trip to Ogden canyon before departing for the east. Senator Kahn will attend the Republican convention at Chicago. When asked as to who he favored he replied, "Hoover, every time." In concluding Senator Kahn stated that if the Republicans split or if they nominated a dark horse as many think they will, and Hoover is nominated on the Democratic ticket he would be elected hands down.

Passenger Traffic Increasing Daily

Passenger travel on all western railroads will have a record month during the present month, according to F. C. Smith, assistant superintendent of the Salt Lake division of the Southern Pacific. From all indications the June records of past years will be shattered. With the shiners of the east and middle west chartering special trains for the convention at Portland together with the Democratic convention at San Francisco, thousands of passengers will be aboard the trains. The national convention at San Francisco will attract at least 20,000 it is said. Besides these trains hundreds of educators and instructors are expected during the latter part of the month en route to the national convention at Salt Lake.

Judge Mohler Here to Collect Data on Weber County Crops

To secure a list of producers and the approximate size of Weber county fruit and vegetable crops, Judge J. H. Mohler, traveling superintendent of agriculture for the Union Pacific railroad, visited W. P. Thomas, county agricultural agent, today. Judge Mohler forwards information secured in this manner to all agents of the Union Pacific and to all large produce houses on the Union Pacific system. Mr. Thomas stated, so that knowledge as to where certain crops are available, and at what period they can be purchased, can be obtained. The idea of this arrangement, it is stated, is to get the buyer and the producer closer together by telling the buyer where commodities are for sale, and at what period of the season they can be obtained. Through this agency, Idaho potatoes led the market last year, Mr. Thomas stated. He said that this idea would probably be of great assistance to Weber county potato growers this spring in disposing of their early crop.

Prepare to Handle Shriners' Specials

Shriners from all sections of America are due to arrive in Ogden during the fore part of next week, according to officials of the railroad. Special trains have been chartered for the Masons and it is expected that a majority of the travelers will include Ogden on their trip. Some of the trains will branch off at Granger, Wyo. The Shriners will attend the convention at Portland, Oregon, from June 12 to June 26. At least three specials will pass through Ogden and a stop of several hours will give the beauties of the city as well as the canyon. Plans for entertaining will be taken up by local members of the organization.

Chin Chin Leading Man Visits in City

Starr Dunham, leading man with the "Chin Chin" theatrical company spent several hours in Ogden today renewing old acquaintances. Dunham is a Salt Lake. During the world war Dunham was an entertainer for the government and made a decided hit with the soldiers, sailors and marines with his clever dancing and singing. For a number of years he was a cafe entertainer. Dunham will spend his vacation in Utah and next fall will take to the stage in the vaudeville world. He has signed to play "The Keith Circuit" with the popular Kitty White as his partner.

Roads in Southern Utah in Good Shape

Roads in southern Utah are in first rate condition, according to E. R. Mitchell and R. B. Reed of the state road commission, who recently returned from St. George. With few exceptions the roads are better than they have been for years and travel in that section, particularly to Little Zion's Canyon and other points is due to be heavy. Great Britain exports more cotton goods than all other countries combined.

CANNERS MEET WITH GOVERNOR

Plans for Inspection of State Canneries Under Discussion

Representatives of the National Cannery association and the state dairy and food department held a conference with Governor Simon Bamberger yesterday afternoon at the state capitol. SAILOR HERO IS OGDEN VISITOR

Harold Peterson, Winner of D. S. C., En Route to Home at San Diego

Harold Peterson, first class seaman, United States Navy, was in Ogden for a few hours today en route to his home at San Diego. Few people in this section of the west know of the "stunt" accomplished by Peterson during the great war. He enlisted at San Diego in April, 1917, and was one of the first "gobs" to journey to the Atlantic coast to board one of Uncle Sam's liners. Swimming in the navy is one of the sports known by every gog and Peterson today stated that he had surely had his end of thrills. Early in 1917 Peterson was attached to the Tuscania, which was sunk off Ireland by Hun submarines. In this phase of his experiences Peterson stated that he was in the water for seven hours doing rescue work. He was awarded the D. S. C. for his bravery by the war department. Peterson was credited with saving twelve lives.

In July, 1918, Peterson was attached to the U. S. S. San Diego which went down off Fire Island, New York. Three hours and twenty minutes in the water endeavoring to save some of his mates ended rather serious for Peterson. He did all in his power during his stay in the water to aid stricken mates only to have both limbs cramp. Since that date in 1918 until a few weeks ago Peterson has been confined to the United States Naval hospital at Brooklyn. Naval physicians after months of experimenting finally cured Peterson. Today he is again in perfect condition and at the Union Depot today said he was rarin' to go again. He stated that he would not take all the money in the world for his experiences.

Besides wearing the D. S. C. Peterson also carried a letter of thanks from Secretary of War Baker for his bravery at such a time.

Peterson departed for his home this afternoon. He lost three brothers in the drive in the Argonne forest.

LONDON, June 10.—Twenty thousand pounds for the endowment of a professorship of United States history has been given to Oxford University by Viscount Rothermere, former secretary of state for air forces. The gift is made in memory of Lord Rothermere's son, who was killed in the late war.

CAFETERIA FOR WEBER NORMAL

Improvements Also Include New Shop for Next Year's Students

When the Weber Normal College officials unbol the doors next fall students of this school will have the opportunity of eating in a first class cafeteria. The rooms previously used for the mechanic arts students in the basement of the building will be used for the new cafeteria, which will cost $3000 to build. A new shop will be constructed on the north side of the building at a cost of $5000. The building will be of frame construction and will be one hundred feet long by thirty feet wide. Malcolm Watson, instructor of mechanical art work at the school is in charge of the improvements being made.

Street Car Comany to Improve Service

Complaints from all sections of the city have been received on the poor service on the Washington avenue car line and officials of the Utah Rapid Transit company have promised a quick remedy for such service. Every effort will be made in the future to improve the service, according to Traffic Manager J. M. Ellington. "Complaints are welcome in our office and we are glad to have the people call on us," said Mr. Ellington today. "While all railroads have complaints registered at all times due to poor service our department through the cooperation of passengers will endeavor to make the service first class in very particular. If passengers will report such conditions to our offices in the Eccles building we will do all in our power to better the service."

Receive Bids for City Paving Work

Bids for the construction of pavement in district 132 have been received by the city commission from the Moran Paving company and the Wheelright Construction company. The district includes Liberty avenue between Twenty-sixth and Twenty-seventh streets, Capital street between Van Buren and Harrison avenues and Gramercy avenue between Twenty-fifth and Twenty-sixth streets. The annual report of the Carnegie free library shows that Ogden received an appropriation last year of $5000 for library work. There are now 21,143 books in the Ogden library which is 34 books per card.
