ST. LOUIS IN CLEAN SWEEP WITH BOSTON

Bostons Make Four Runs and Locals Come Back and Pound Out Seven Hits.

ST. LOUIS, June 15.—St. Louis made a clean sweep of the four-game series with Boston by winning today 12 to 8, after the visitors had got off to a four-run lead in the third, when they drove Van Gilder from the box. The locals came back in the same period and pounded Pennock for seven hits, including a double and a triple, which, with a base on balls and an error by McNally, netted the locals eight runs.

Boston rallied in the ninth and scored four runs. The bases were full with two out when Wellman, who relieved Burwell, forced Schang, a pinch hitter, to pop to Gerber, whose throw to Gedeon got McNally going to second. Score: St. Louis 12, Boston 8.

Batteries—Pennock, Fortune and Walters; Van Gilder, Burwell, Wellman and Severid.

DETROIT PICKING UP.—DETROIT, June 15.—Detroit made a clean sweep of the series with Philadelphia by winning today's game, 3 to 2. A home run by Shorten in the third, scoring Bush, gave the Tigers an early lead. Score: Detroit 3, Philadelphia 2.

CLEVELAND CLIMBING.—CLEVELAND, June 15.—Cleveland made it three out of four from New York today, winning, 10 to 2. Mays was knocked out in the third, developing a wild streak after two hits. He forced in two runs and then Gardner doubled with the bases filled. Bagby was very effective except in the fifth, when New York bunched four hits for two runs. He struck out the side in the seventh, and also fanned Babe Ruth in the eighth. Score: Cleveland 10, New York 2.

CHICAGO BUNCHES HITS.—CHICAGO, June 15.—Chicago today bunched hits and easily defeated Washington, 9 to 2, in the final game of the series. Cicotte eased up after the locals had taken a comfortable lead and the visitors made their score by hitting opportunistly. Score: Chicago 9, Washington 2.

U. S. TENNIS PLAYERS WIN EASY VICTORIES.—LONDON, June 16.—The American tennis players thus far have had comparatively easy victories in the London championship tournament. The play of all of them has been impressive, and they have won their sets with ease.

The fine weather again attracted a great crowd to Queen's club. William Johnston of San Francisco, the American champion, went into the third round by default of his opponent, Charles F. Garland of Philadelphia, having taken the measure of the South African representative, Sherwell, in the second round, faced R. Turnbull of the Queen's club, in the third round. During the early stages Garland played patchily against the English man, who is a scratch player in the handicap, and Turnbull led, five to four and 40-love. Then Garland steadied down, winning it and the next two games. He finished the second set 6-3.

R. Norris Williams' win against G. Steadard, Queen's club, was conclusive and brilliant. Williams' free stroke was greatly admired.

William T. Tilden beat J. G. Hogan, Anglo-Indian club, by hard hitting, perfect cross court volleys, and terrific serving, which no English player today is able to reproduce.

In the ladies' championship, Mrs. Mallory, formerly the redoubtable Molla Bjurestedt, had a comfortable margin over the English players in both the first and second rounds.

JUDGE GEIGER WARNS WOMEN SEEKING DIVORCE.—SPRINGFIELD, O., June 15.—Judge Frank W. Geiger of the common pleas court today issued a warning that women who apply for divorces in his court must be careful of their dress.

Southpaw Earns Thousands Before He Can Vote

Six Years Ago Tendler Was Hustling "Extras" on Streets of Philadelphia --"Socks" His Way to Fortune

BY DEAN SNYDER. A great SOUTHPAW hand has taken a Lew Tendler, Philadelphia lightweight, along fortune's path to the doors of success and riches—all within the period of a half dozen years.

Literally he has "southpawed" his way up from a newsboy of the streets to wealth and to a point in the light-weight division where is the chief contender for Champion Henry Louisard's title.

Just a Newsie. Six years ago he and his present manager, Phil Glassman, were hustling the "extras" for the newsies' pennies.

Today they count their earnings in the thousands and promoters, who desire to engage the SOUTHPAW for an evening's work, must talk in thousands to do business with this pair.

Tendler recently bought a three-story brick home in one of the best residential districts of Philadelphia. He drives a big Stutz touring car. He owns valuable real estate and, being a great admirer of "glitter rocks," he has a small fortune invested in diamonds.

Quick to capitalize his popularity as a boxer, in partnership with Glassman, he runs a smart haberdashery shop near Penn Square where the fight fans can come in and buy silk shirts along with their tickets to Lew's fights.

"I'll live but once," says Lew, "so I figure I might as well have what I want right now.

I never have to worry about the financial end of my bouts. Glassman attends to all that. He was my pal when we were newsboys together and he is still just the same to me in our 'southpaw' business."

Tendler fights often. His purses are big. As the money rolls in he invests it where it will grow.

Never Use Alibi. He admits that Eddie Fitzsimmons caught him on an off night recently and outpointed him.

"Can't always be at your best, you know. Boxing is just like any other business," he says. "The New York crowd won't trouble me next time if I'm right, and I generally am. It was the first decision against me since I have been a contender for the crown."

Tendler knocked the crown off Georges Papin, the French lightweight champion, the other night. He is all business in the ring and his knockout list predominates.

He beat Pinky Mitchell recently. Just to show he wasn't partial to any member of the family of fighting brothers he went back to the Cream City and took on Richie, the older On Benna's Trail.

His chief goal now is a match with Leonard for the title. His record proves him the logical lightweight to take a shot at the belt. The weight question seems to be up to Benny since Tendler is a natural lightweight, never weighing over 133 pounds. This is the best even-bet big match on the ring horizon just now.

They generally consider a "lefty" in the boxing ring clumsy, but Lew is so smooth in his work that he makes his opponents look awkward.

Tendler is still a boy. His success has come early in life. He is just old enough to vote.

"Twenty-one and richer"—and his SOUTHPAW did it.

CRACK SECOND BASEMAN KNOCKED UNCONSCIOUS.—NEW YORK, June 15.—Roger Hornsby, St. Louis National second baseman, for whom Branch Rickey announced he recently had refused a $200,000 offer, was knocked unconscious today by a ball thrown by Shortstop Lavan of the Cardinals in the contest with New York. The ball hit him on the back of the head.

Hornsby was relieved by Javrin and it is believed he may be out of the game for several days.

JOHNSON'S GREATNESS.—ANN ARBOR—It is now believed that Carl Johnson will be able to take part in the Olympic tryouts. It is reported that the star has jumped 25 feet in practice.

FEWER KAYOES.—PHILADELPHIA—William Rocap, veteran referee, says the substitution of soft hand bandages in place of hard automobile tape is the reason for fewer knockouts in the boxing game.

HE'S A SHRINER.—CHICAGO—Frankie Callahan, Chicago featherweight, is in a class with Benny Leonard. He became a Shriner within six months time.

Swapping Captains

FLETCHER

BANCROFT

John McGraw has given his machine another overhaul. He not only tinkered with a big cylinder of his organization, but with the magnet, himself, when he swapped Arthur Fletcher, captain and veteran shortstop of the Giants, for Dave Bancroft, captain of the Phillies and rated as the best shortstop in the game. McGraw felt that the vital spark that would pull his ball club out of the continued slump lay in the short field position. He tried to buy Roger Hornsby from the Cards and failed. He emptied the manager of the Braves for "Rabbit" Maranville in vain. So when Carvut put his premier star on the block McGraw was quick to act.

Arthur Fletcher has gone through 11 seasons with the Giants, sharing in four world series. He has always been an aggressive player. Since 1918 Arthur started out as brilliant as ever this spring. He admits that a "charismatic" responsibility for his recent showing. While Fletcher is not happy in leaving New York, the scene of his best years as a ball player, perhaps yet he believes the acquisition of Bancroft will strengthen the McGrawites. He is 34 years old.

Dave Bancroft has played five seasons for the Phillies. He is regarded as the greatest defensive shortstop now in the game. This spring Dave played in 25 games before making an error, accepting 18 chances. He is a .250 hitter and a heady player at all times. McGraw believes that with Bancroft playing shortstop for the Giants the team will take on a new lease in spirit. The Fletcher-Bancroft swap may only be the first of the move on the part of Muggsy to rebuild a faltering ball club. Bancroft is 28 years old.

DEMPESEY READY TO FIGHT AGAIN

Jack Kearns Says Champ Wants to Meet Carpentier or Anybody Else

SAN FRANCISCO, June 15.—Jack Kearns, manager for Jack Dempsey, heavyweight champion of the world, announced today that Dempsey would be ready within two weeks to meet Georges Carpentier, the French heavyweight, or "he will fight anyone else in the world if Carpentier is unwilling to talk fight." Labor Day was suggested as the date for the proposed contest.

Kearns issued a statement asserting that Dempsey's acquittal yesterday of a draft evasion charge in the United States district court here left his war record clear and that "there could be no more whispered campaign carried on about him." He said he and the champion needed a two weeks' rest after the strain of the trial and then they would be ready to arrange for a bout with the Frenchman.

Kearns' statement in part said: "Now Georges Carpentier, we're ready. If you have come to America to fight, here's your chance. Jack Dempsey is free and ready to meet you anywhere in the world. The

The U. S. brought out Earl Thomson. Bunting for Dartmouth he beat Bob Simpson's time in the 120-yard high hurdle, setting a new world's record of 14.3. But because he was born at Leduc, Saskatchewan, he'll return to Canada and compete in the Olympic games under the colors of the Maple Leaf.

HE WOULD OUST FIGHT MANAGER.—Tommy White Says They Are Responsible for Much Crooked Work

When the army, navy and civilian board takes over the control of the boxing game in this country—as it has promised to do—Tommy White, of Chicago, a featherweight of the early '20's, is going to make it a point to start a crusade for the total abolition of the fight manager. White says the fight managers are responsible for the many crooked deals that are pulled off in the glove game, and besides there is no more need of a fighter having a manager than there is need for hair on a telegraph pole.

White was a fighter back in the days when fighters had to fight—and for small pay. He took part in the first fight held in New York state under the old Horton law. In that engagement he beat Marty McCue, and, strange as it may seem, Marty McCue is now a representative and has always worked for the uplift of the glove game in his native state.

Killing the Sport. "Fight managers are killing the sport," said White. "They are always figuring a big slice of money for themselves, and nine times out of ten when a crooked fight has been staged the fighters were brought together first by a couple of scheming managers, who probably could not earn a dollar in any other line of business. I never had a manager but once. I did allow Parson Davies to call him-

They Want Takeoff. White says it was the various fight managers who killed the sport in New York under the Prawley law. He says they will kill the game any time, unless they can get an interesting take-off, and the new governing body could do nothing that would help the game so much as to refuse to recognize the managers. White plans to appear before the army, navy and civilian board as soon as they are ready to receive suggestions. "I will do everything in my power to put it over," he said.

I., June 16.—The Resolute won the eighth America's cup defense elimination race from the Vanitie today by the widest margin either yacht has had in the last week. The elapsed time was two minutes, six seconds and the corrected time three minutes, 41 seconds.

The race was sailed in an increasing breeze and over a shortened course, which had been expected to give the yachts a beat to the outer mark and a run to the finish. The wind backed on the last leg, making it a reach.

The Resolute gained 26 seconds in the 14 mile beat and one minute, fifty seconds on the reach.

After the race Manager Hoyt of the Vanitie asserted that the Resolute's gain on the last leg was due to a jammed center board on the Vanitie which compelled the Gardner boat to drag the board. Divers worked on the center board last night in an effort to free the board.
