

Here's The Big Program For Saturday

DOLLAR DAY

A Monument to Economy

A Sale By Request

Since Monday, the question has been asked a hundred times, "When will your next Dollar Day occur—I missed the last one." So we repeat this remarkable event at the request of many customers. This will, of course, be very largely attended. Such values as these in times like now have an irresistible power. Therefore, we urge morning shopping. Doors open 9 A. M.

A GOOD PLACE TO TRADE

White Dress Skirts

An Important Sale Beginning Tomorrow

We've made a very fortunate purchase. We have purchased the entire stock of women's summer wash skirts from The John Scowcroft & Sons Co. We paid a very low price and took all that this big wholesale concern had in stock.

In the assortment are Cotton Charemeuse, Cotton Serge, Pique, Gaberdines---all new sport styles. The entire lot has been divided into two lots, which we price like this:

Values to $5 . . . $2.25 Values to $10 . . . $4.45

Summer Frocks $9.95

Another Important Saturday Sale--One hundred of these pretty, cool, summer dresses on sale tomorrow at less than half price. The smartest and latest styles in women's dresses of voile, of organdie and of gingham. Some have come to us from New York within the past two weeks. There are a hundred pretty dresses from which to make a selection. Values to $25 . . . $9.95

How to Keep Cool

"Wear a Palm Beach suit—and don't worry"—The breeze blows into and out of these cool suits. Like a refrigerator for keeping the temperature down. Lots of you men who have been thinking you don't like them, wait until you have worn one. You can have any one in the store now for about
