SPORT TUTORIAL

Americans thrive on competition. Give 'em a mark to shoot at and they'll nick it sooner or later.

That's the spirit of the 8. Olympic team that is to be quartered in the Belgian schoolhouse.

Among the galaxy of stars are some we call our dependables, and then there's the second-stringers. And let it be said that there's been many a surprise come up out of these second ciphers in the Olympiads of the past.

In every athlete there is always just so much natural peed and endurance, but when under fire he is liable to show a "flash" performance that even he himself didn't know was in him.

The Olympiad at Antwerp is the big leagu of track and field competition. The olive branch is the pennant laurel to be placed in the victor's hand.

All that the Olympiad—ancient in its origin—stood for it still represents.

There is no greater share of honor and strength in the national life of any country than that reflected in its athletics.

America stands for the superlative in everything—super honor—super athletics—super leadership.

Under fire it comes out. Competition—the keener it is the better we like it and the more stuff we show.

Victory means much in the past seventh Olympiad—yet it is not the stake we strive for. Rather it is the example of a super-type of athletes we would hold up to the world—strong of heart, clear of eye, clean of mind, lovers of honor—all.

Certainly it is a glorious honor to every member of our 1920 Olympic team to have been chosen as these types of America's "flower" and her "finest."

Is it any wonder if they are proud, or that we are proud of them?

VARDON AND RAY WINNERS AT TOLEDO

TOLEDO, Aug. 8.—Harry Vardon and Edward Ray, English professionals, won two and one in their best ball match of 18 holes here today with Charles Lorns and Deke White of Sylvania, local professionals.

The match was the prelude to the national open tournament, which played at Inverness this week, starting Tuesday.

Vardon and Ray had a best ball of 69-22 out and 35 in while their opponents had 73-35 each way.

Vardon showed a weakness at putting, but Ray made up for it. They were considerably flustered by the distance and cross winds, their lack of knowledge of traps and other hazards, but they hit the ball.

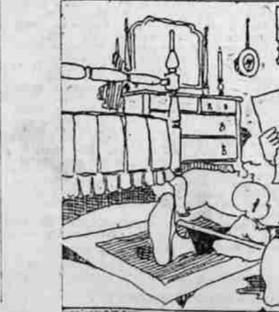

Many golfers who are to take part in the tournament were practicing today.

Pairings are to be announced late tomorrow.

LAWN TENNIS PLAYERS GATHER AT NEWPORT

Johnson of Philadelphia.

GOLFERS BEING PAIRED FOR BIG TOURNAMENT

TOLEDO, O., Aug. 9.—Officials preparing for the national open golf tournament which starts over the Inverness course tomorrow, were engaged today redrawing the starters. The change in pairings was necessitated by some forty belated entries who were permitted to come in after the official time set at close.

As the result it will be late today before the noted professionals and amateurs here will know where they really stand.

All of the entrants are here and most of them have had a try at the course.

The day opened clear and warm, ideal weather for the golfers.

There is much speculation among experts as to the winner. They agree he will have to shoot 259 golf to take the open title, while some believe a score as low as 246 will be necessary.

The experts are figuring on Chick Evans and Bobby Jones to uphold the prestige of amateur golf in open championships. Both have been over the course and each has given a good account of himself. A large gallery has followed this pair of unpaid performers.

The first flight will get away early Tuesday.

The added starters will play their first 18 hole qualifying round Tuesday afternoon starting after 4:40 o'clock.

ANTWERP HAS FIRST WARM DAY IN WEEKS

ANTWERP, Aug. 8.—(By The Associated Press.)—Today saw the first real warm weather in Antwerp for weeks, but the athletes had little chance for practice in the stadium, owing to the fact that the final Belgian tryouts were being held.

The official entries announced for the Velodrome Olympics Monday and Tuesday show that the United States, Australia, Denmark, France, Great Britain, Holland, Italy, Luxembourg, Belgium and South Africa will furnish competitors in the sprint events.

U. S. ATHLETES IN FINE SHAPE

ANTWERP, Aug. 8.—(By The Associated Press.)—The American Olympic track team today had its first practice in the Olympic stadium. They had witnessed the final tryouts of the Belgians and so eager were they for work that hardly had the last event concluded when they raced on the track and field, cheering. A large crowd of spectators appeared puzzled over their enthusiasm.

Bicyclists practiced for Monday's events. They were somewhat puzzled over the high banking of the track.

The Americans disembarked today from the transport Princess Matoka and proceeded to the school house, where they will be quartered. Satisfaction was expressed over their place tide at Panama is only two feet.

WAR MARRIAGES PROVE TO BE POOR BARGAINS

(By International News Service.)
BOSTON, Mass.—Are war brides tiring of hero husbands?

This is the question the sociologists are asking while keeping an eye on the Suffolk county superior court divorce dockets, where starting figures are arousing attention.

Whether it is war brides or hero husbands there is one ray of light and hope. Although the divorce figures are swelled to balloon size, the marriage licenses have likewise registered at high and are keeping fair pace.

HE'S LEFT WITH SACK TO HOLD

When the American Olympians called the $200,000 fund necessary to defray their expenses was about $25,000 short. They left Gustavus Kirby, head of the Olympic committee, at home to gather during the shortage of necessary "beans." Gus is proving equal to the occasion. Kirby has already made one trip abroad in behalf of the committee. It was Gus who organized the schoolhouse near Awerp which was fitted up into dormitories for the Yanks while they are in Belgium.

UPHEAVALS DUE IN MAJOR LEAGUE

NEW YORK, Aug. 8.—An upheaval apparently is due in both major league standings. While the Brooklyn and Cincinnati Nationals and the Cleveland and New York Americans are losing, the New York and Pittsburgh Nationals and Chicago Americans are proceeding at a pace that promises a battle.

The Brooklyn Nationals held on the first place today only by defeating Pittsburgh. Cincinnati failed at the bat in the New York series, but took three games from the tail-end Philadelphiaans. New York regained third place today by defeating Chicago. Boston is getting good pitching, but is handicapped by light batting. St. Louis was unable to turn its numerous hits into runs.

In the American league, Cleveland was forced to call frequently on Coveloskie and Bagby, but the Indians won only half of their games.

The Yankee sluggers could do little against Chicago, dropping three games out of four and were held even by Detroit. Chicago and Boston broke even on the series. St. Louis went into fourth place by outpacing Washington after splitting four games with Philadelphia.

Whether it is war brides or hero husbands there is one ray of light and hope. Although the divorce figures are swelled to balloon size, the marriage licenses have likewise registered at high and are keeping fair pace.

For divorces the largest number ever recorded for a year in the superior court was in 1919, when the high-water mark of 1799 was reached. Then, for the first six months of 1920, 935 suits were entered.

By far the greater number of divorces are granted to women, and far the greater number of these are for desertion, where the women seem that if the war had entered into the scheme of marriage and divorce, the hero of the war is not doing his share of matrimonial duty.
