BOND FURNISHED BY SALT LAKE

Ogden Men Indicted Expected to Arrange for Security Today

SALT LAKE, Aug. 24.—James E. Jennings of the Jennings-Hannah Warehouse company, yesterday appeared before United States Commissioner Henry V. Van Pelt and furnished bond of $5000 on each of the two indictments returned against him by the federal grand jury Saturday.

The indictments charge that Mr. Jennings, together with Merrill Nibley, vice president and assistant general manager of the Utah Idaho Sugar company, violated the Lever act in selling sugar without a federal license and that they furthermore purchased 300,000 bags of $15 a bag which they sold at from $17.50 to $30 a bag.

Bench warrants against the men indicted in the sugar cases were issued yesterday to United States Marshal Aquila Nebecker and the defendants were notified to appear before Commissioner Van Pelt to present their bonds. Mr. Jennings was the only one to do so, but the others are expected to appear today.

Through the issuance of the bench warrants it became known yesterday that indictments additional to those announced Saturday were found by the grand jury against Hyrum W. Plingree of Salt Lake, manager of the Barker Bakeries, and John A. Stone, Salt Lake representative of the Stone & Co., packers. Both are charged with profiting in sugar through purchases made here and sold in the east at alleged exorbitant prices.

In addition to those named, the following, against whom indictments were returned, are expected to furnish bond today: George W. Goddard and Gage B. Rodman of Ogden; Charles W. Nibley, Thomas R. Cutler, James D. Murdoch, W. S. McCormick, W. H. Wattle, Merrill Nibley, David A. Smith, J. H. Grut. Bond has been fixed by Judge Tillman D. Johnson of the federal court to hold the defendants over until the first session of the November term of court. E. O. Howard and J. H. Walker were the bondsmen for Mr. Jennings.

INHERITANCE TAX TO GO OVER HALF MILLION

SALT LAKE, Aug. 24.—Inheritance taxes which flowing into the state treasury in a steadily increasing stream, promise to reach the $500,000 mark this year, with indications that this will be surpassed in the future. The total amount collected by the state from this source since the passage of the law March 14, 1901, amounts to $4,065,617.84.

A compilation made in the office of Dan B. Shields, attorney general, by D. M. Draper, assistant attorney general in charge of inheritance tax collections, shows the above figures.

The largest amount paid to the state from any one estate was $798,546.85, collected in 1911 from the estate of the late E. H. Harriman, sometimes styled "Railroad Wizard." The largest amount collected from the estate of any resident of Utah was $297,248.24, paid in 1914 by the estate of the late David Eccles of Ogden. Eliminating these two from the list, a steady growth from year to year is noted in the amount paid to the state from inheritance taxes. In some instances the amount paid in one year is less than in the year preceding, but the results indicate that the inheritance tax is one of the most constantly increasing sources of revenue to the state of Utah.

POCATELLO, Ida., Aug. 24.—Early today 500 Republican delegates, representing every county in Idaho, began gathering here for the purpose of selecting candidates for state offices. Present indications are that the convention will not adjourn until late Thursday evening.

Prior to the opening of the convention the state central committee will hold a session, pursuant to a call issued by Secretary Dave Burrell. With no apparent reason, the man ran amuck, smashing all windows in view. Before police could halt him he had demolished $200 worth of window panes. He appeared normal when taken to the police station but was turned over to the sheriff's department for an investigation regarding his sanity.

BIG OIL COMPANY CUTS COSTS WITH BICYCLES

On account of the high cost of operating automobiles, a large oil producing company in the Southwest has furnished its scouts and field men with bicycles, says J. E. Olson of the Browning Bros. company, the Dayton bicycle dealer.

On a recent occasion, one of the owners was visiting a Texas office of the company and looking over the books noticed that a big item was up-keep of automobiles for scouts and field men. As a result, he issued instructions that the scouts and field men be furnished with bicycles to cut down expenses.

Mr. Olson says that this oil company is doing just what a Texas office of the company and looking over the books noticed that a big item was up-keep of automobiles for scouts and field men. As a result, he issued instructions that the scouts and field men be furnished with bicycles to cut down expenses.

STAR AT OGDEN THEATRE DANCED WITH ROYALTY

Ethel Hallor, Ziegfeld Folies star, who plays a prominent part in "The Deep Purple," this week's attraction at the Ogden Theatre, is "the most envied girl in New York." The epithet was recently conferred upon her by the New York newspapers and there-by hangs a story.

The Prince of Wales, during his recent visit to this country, saw Miss Hallor dancing in the Ziegfeld Folies show. It was noted that the Prince applauded vigorously the efforts of the beautiful dancer. Whether it was her beauty, her dancing, her personality, or a combination of the three, the Prince alone knows, but, at any rate, he waxed enthusiastic.

The following day, Prince Edward was notified of a ball to be given in his honor at the Seventh Regiment Armory, New York. Thereupon he did an astounding thing. He asked that Miss Hallor be presented to him at the ball. The royal retinue shrugged its collective shoulders and said, "Most unusual." But a prince's wish is not to be taken lightly and Miss Hallor was presented to H. R. H.

Asked how it felt to dance with royalty, Miss Hallor said it was the most delightful experience of her life. "The Prince waltzed charmingly," averred Miss Hallor, "but is a little backward on his fox-trotting."

On circus day the Alhambra will open at 11 a. m. with a new program with Ethel Clayton, Doug Fairbanks and Jack Dempsey.

GAVE HER STRENGTH

Mrs. Miller Says That is What Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Did For Her—Read Her Letter—

Minneapolis, Minn.—"I was run down and nervous, could not rest at night and was more tired in the morning than when I went to bed. I have two children, the youngest three months old, and it was drudgery to care for them as I felt so irritable and generally worn out. From lack of rest and appetite, my baby did not get on or flourish. I started to give him two bottle feedings a day. After taking three bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I felt like a new woman, full of life and energy. It is a pleasure to care for my children and I am very happy with them and feel fine. I nursed my baby exclusively again and can't say too much for your medicine."

—Mrs. A. L. Miller, 2633 E. 24th St., Minneapolis, Minn.

Since we guarantee that all testimonials which we publish are genuine, it is not fair to suppose that if Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has the virtue to help this woman it will help any other woman who is suffering in a like manner?

Baldness Conquered

A veteran business man, who was almost completely bald and had tried tonics, lotions, shampoos, etc., in vain, came across an Indiana elixir by which he grew a complete crop of healthy hair he now possesses. The hair elixir is called "KOTALKO." Others—men and women—have reported remarkable aid to hair growth, relief from Kotalko, cessation of falling hair by using Kotalko. In a vast number of cases, when hair falls out the roots are not dead, but remain for some time imbedded in the scalp, like seeds or bulbs, awaiting only fertility. The great hair tonic, etc., are of no avail. The Italian method is superior in securing the hair and stimulate the growth. It is so simple to try Kotalko it would be a pity to lose the boon which this might bring you.

Wonderful results reported for men's, women's and children's hair. If you are bald, or losing hair, or have dandruff, you should try KOTALKO; it may be what's needed for your scalp and in such case it is a steady increase in profit growth. You may obtain a full box of genuine Kotalko at any drug store. Or a proof box will be mailed if you send 10 cents. Write to John Hart Brittain, Station F, New York, N. Y.
