Closing the Ogdren Standard-Examiner cooking school for 1920, sessions will be held this afternoon at the Ogdren high school, demonstrating the making of pies, tarts and other pastry, including tumbles filled with creamed peas. In the making of the various foods of the first day Utah products were used. Van Allen's peas of the 1920 pack being selected for filling the pea tumbles. Mountain brand lard, Ogdren's best flour, Calumet baking powder and Amalgamated sugar were among the products used.

THOUSANDS WITNESS AND HUNDREDS TAKE PART IN HUGE COMMUNITY EVENT

service float which attracted much attention.
Then there were American Legion boys, the Tabernacle choir in the unit of music, the Beehive girls, the Campfire girls and the Salvation Army.
There were two bands, the Southport Pacific and the Ogdren High School. Musical music was furnished by the Glen Brothers-Roberts float.
CHURCHES IN LINE.
The Methodist, Christian and Presbyterian churches were participative. The Salvation Army was represented.
One of the most picturesque floats ever entered in an Ogdren event was furnished by Foley's.
After presenting Ogdren's contribution to the nation, Ogdren last presented its hope of the future. This hope was expressed by the appearance in line of dozens of little boys and girls.
Among the educational exhibits was the "Presentation display of the West" by the Ogdren schools.
The first section was a typical representation of transportation of pupils from outlying districts to centrally located modern buildings. This section contained about thirty pupils and is one of the many used in Webster county for conveying pupils to large, centrally located schools that can be graded, instead of having a number of the little fashioned "red school" with all the grades in one room.
The next section carried a group of children studying their lessons from the regular school text, they were seated at desks of the newest model, while part of their class worked with tools, making useful articles of the farm and around the kitchen. A number of these articles were in sculpture, such as nail boxes, fly traps, spoons, benches, rope-making machines, cran holders, etc. This float carried the banner: "A twentieth century school where we study from books; we learn about things, and how to make them; then we spend part of the time making useful things." Many of the articles grown on the farm by boys and girls under the summer supervision of the twelve-month workers were also seen on the float.
On the final section of this school exhibit was a class of beginners grouped around their teacher. Both teacher and pupils sat on chairs especially designed for kindergarten classes. The teacher told stories of educational value, taught them the first steps in how to read, and also demonstrated the method employed in busy work for little people. On the rear of this section were some older girls making bread, canning fruit, sewing, darning and making dresses, showing the various activities in which an up-to-date school participates.
Supt. E. A. Fowler reported that this exhibition was prepared upon invitation of the community service committee and was staged without any loss of regular school work. He said much credit for the success of the same was due to hard work of his committee on arrangements. This committee consisted of Miss Nettie Hendricks, A. J. Powell, H. A. Macfarlane, Thelma Stephens, Mrs. Lucille P. Wheeler, besides other teachers who volunteered their help in staging this event.

BRIGHAM CITY G. O. P. GATHER STATE FAIR TO OPEN MONDAY

Speaker Tells of Old Time Speaker Defining Republicanism Bands, Carnival Features and General Exhibits Ready for Crowds

BRIGHAM, Oct. 2.—An enthusiastic gathering of Republicans assembled at the Odd Fellows hall in Brigham Wednesday night, the first big opening of the Young Men's Republican club, Warren W. Knudson, president of the young men's club, presided. He surprised his friends in the able manner in which he conducted the "ret-quoted" social speeches, music, stories and a dinner were all enjoyable features.
Mayor J. W. Peters, candidate on the Republican ticket for state senator, was one of the speakers and explained "why he is a Republican."
R. Kaiser and N. C. Simonsen related how they used to handle "politics in the children days."
Lloyd Knudson entertained with a comic "stunt" representing a non-progressive who was opposed to building so much hard-surfaced roads to wear out so many good shoes and criticized other improvements.
Attorney LeRoy B. Young, candidate for district attorney, told how he would handle the "outlaws" if elected to office.
Probably one of the most interesting features on the program was the conclusion of a speech delivered by J. C. Knudson. He told a story about one of the good brothers some years ago, a Republican, who was called upon to talk at a public gathering. He said, "Brother and sisters, the bishop here on my right, who is a Democrat, and his first counselor on the left, can tell you about the political situation. But I can say to you that I know Mormonism is true, and I know that Republicanism is true because it is Mormonism, and that Democracy is hypocrisy, in the name of Jesus Christ. Amen."

Gambler Will Give Name of Master Mind

"ixed" would constitute "grand larceny by trick and device," he said.
BOASTS OF KNOWLEDGE.
"Abbe Attell has been openly boasting that he knows the whereabouts of gamblers who put across the dishonest deal with certain White Sox players. I understand," said District Attorney Swann. "He said he knew the time and the place where the dishonest deal took place. I have three process servers looking for him, virtually scouring the city for him. We want him to come here and tell us who was in the syndicate that made the dishonest deal."
Eugene McGee, a partner of William J. Fallon, counsel for Attell, said today that Mr. Fallon has informed the district attorney's office that he will not produce his client unless there is a charge placed against him.

Stricken While at Ceremonies for Coolidge

paper manufacturer, Young Crane was educated in the public schools and at Williston seminary. He never attended college but, after leaving the seminary, entered the paper mills and was employed by the Ogdren mill and in them he maintained an interest throughout his life. For many years these mills produced the paper used by the federal government in engraving its currency notes.
Because of his interest in this industry and his desire to continue with it, Mr. Crane, at the beginning of President Roosevelt's administration, declined an invitation to enter his cabinet as secretary of the treasury.
President Roosevelt held the "silver" Massachusetts man in high esteem. Crane had been unusually successful in averting strikes and disturbances at the Dalton mills. In 1922, when he was governor of Massachusetts, he was instrumental in adjusting by arbitration a serious strike of teamsters and freight handlers in Boston.
By the time the groups had assembled around Columbia, the City Hall park was a mass of men, women and children, who joined in the singing of "America," and "The Star Spangled Banner," under the leadership of Mr. Leon Dalby, musical organizer for Community Service. The American flag was unfurled as the first phrase of the "Star Spangled Banner" was sung and the final tableau was most impressive.

The Alhambra will keep open late tonight. Last full show with Hawaiians starts at 9:45.

OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

This is a Short Letter, but it Brings a Message of Importance to every Woman.

Woodford, Vt.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Liver Pills before my child was born and it did me good. My baby weighed eight and a half pounds when born and I did not suffer many pains. You can publish this letter if you wish for I would not be without your medicine before child birth."
—Mrs. JOHN LAMONT, Woodford, Vt.

The reason why Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is so successful in overcoming women's ills is because it contains the tonic, strengthening properties of good old-fashioned roots and herbs, which act on the female organism. Women from all parts of the country are continually testifying to its strengthening, curative influence, and as it contains no narcotics or harmful drugs it is a safe medicine for women.

If you want special advice write Lydia E. Pinkham Medical Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read, and answered by women only.

McAdoo to Speak in Ogdren This Month

William G. McAdoo, former secretary of the treasury and director general of railroads during the war, will give addresses in Ogdren and Salt Lake in the evening. The exact date of arrival has not yet been determined.

The routing of Mr. McAdoo indicates that he will speak in Ogdren in the afternoon and Salt Lake in the evening. Arrangements for other addresses in Utah will be made if possible.

H. L. Mulliner, chairman of the Democratic state committee, and Paul H. Ray, secretary, also are endeavoring to have William B. Wilson, secretary of labor, and Senator Oscar M. Underwood of Alabama visit Utah.

The Pullman Company Does Not Benefit

The purpose of this announcement is to correct a general misunderstanding that The Pullman Company benefits by the surcharge of 50% recently imposed on Pullman passengers.

The Pullman Company receives no part of this surcharge.

The surcharge was imposed solely to increase the passenger revenue of the railroads.

It simply requires an additional service of The Pullman Company for which it receives no compensation whatsoever.
