CHICAGO GRAIN.
CHICAGO, Nov. 6.—Wheat prices broke sharply today because of general selling of all grains in small lots by commission houses. The weakness in exchange with sterling quoted under $3.40, a new low on the movement combined with the bearish construction placed on Julius H. Barnes speech before the American Farm Bureau federation yesterday were the main depressing influences. After starting 1 to 2 1/2c under yesterday's finish with September $1.92 1/2 to 1.90 and March $1.91 1/2 to 1.92, a further weakness set in and carried prices lower.

NEW YORK.—George K. Hossfeld of Paterson, N. J., who took first place in the annual typewriting contest, held in connection with the National Business Show at the Grand Central Palace, will receive $1000 in cash, a trip to Europe and the championship cup shown in the picture. Hossfeld captured first place by writing 131 words a minute for one hour. Miss Margaret B. Owen, former champion, finished second, with 128 words a minute.

The market continued bearish and closed near the low point of the day, at a net loss of 5 1/2 to 8 1/2c from yesterday's finish, with December $1.90 to 1.91 1/2, and March $1.87 to 1.87 1/2. Corn followed wheat, but buying against bids became a factor in checking the break, most of the support being around the May delivery. After starting 1/4 to 3/4c lower with December $2 1/2 to $2 1/4c, the market rallied slightly.

Later, a reaction took hold of the corn market under general selling and the close was about the inside figures of the day and week with prices on the deferred deliveries about the lowest on the crop. At the finish prices showed a net loss of 1 1/2 to 2 1/2c with December $1 1/2 to $1 1/4c. Oats were in sympathy with other grains, opening prices being 1/4 to 1/2c lower with December $2 1/2 to $2 1/4c.

Provisions were dull and easier.

'SWELLED HEAD' NO JOKE AMONG LONDONERS NOW

(By International News Service.)
LONDON, Oct. 20.—(Corr.)—That Londoners' heads are getting wider and bigger than ever hitherto known is the assertion of Professor Parsons, lecturer to the British Association at Cardiff.
Inquiries among hatmakers and phonologists about London prove this to be true.
Cutlerisons, the well-known hatmakers, said that up to a few years ago it was very rarely that they had to supply a hat over 6 1/2 or 6 3/4, but now it is nothing unusual to have to have a special hat made for customers at sizes over 7 1/2.
Mrs. Stappool O'Dell, London's foremost phonologist, said:
"Men are beginning to think more than formerly, science is making wonderful progress, and men are having to think and observe more than they used to."
If you develop your muscles they will get larger if you begin to think more your brain gets larger, and the skull must give way to the brain, therefore increasing the size of the head."

BURGLAR SWALLOWS BUNDLE OF LOOT

(By International News Service.)
BERLIN—Arrested here, Willi Pansin, a 34-year-old man, formerly drove the Berlin police chief's motor car, was found to have swallowed the proceeds of his latest robbery.
It was a very large bundle, and his stomach appeared abnormally large.
The prison doctor advised him to undergo an operation, but Pansin refused, saying that he would rather be operated on at his own expense. Next day he was found in his cell with a deep knife wound in his side.
An X-ray examination, says the Berlin Post, revealed "a mountain of foreign bodies" in Pansin's stomach, including silver spoons, small forks, a number of screws, and a silver nail file.

PADDLES HIS OWN.

LONDON.—M. N. Delphine, 62 years old, rowed a boat across the English channel recently, carrying J. Adams as passenger. The trip from Boulogne to Folkestone required five and a half hours.

MURDER VERDICT STIRS CHICAGO

Sentence of 25 Years for Slayer of Three Held Too Light

BY EDWARD M. THIERRY.

N. E. A. Staff Correspondent.

CHICAGO, Nov. 6.—The customary record-breaking toll of crime ordinarily leaves Chicago cold and unemotional. But just now the city is unprecedently stirred over the outcome of the murder trial of the notorious Carl Wanders.

Chicago thinks a monstrous miscarriage of justice took place when the young ex-army lieutenant got only 25 years in the penitentiary for murdering his young wife, their unborn babe and the "ragged stranger," whom he hired to stage a fake hold-up and give him an excuse for the killings.

CITY-WIDE CENSURE

City-wide censure is pouring down upon the 12 jurymen who returned the remarkable verdict that fixed the degree of Wanders' punishment. This is the more pronounced since the statement has been made that the jury, in its 23 hours' deliberation, never once even considered the death penalty.

The Wanders verdict has been the chief topic of conversation. It overshadowed the election and politics. The insistent demands is that Wanders be tried again for the specific murder of the "ragged stranger," which was not included in the trial just completed.

Wanders confessed his triple crime and revealed the plot he hatched to make it look like a hold-up in which he posed as having accidentally shot his wife in trying to kill the "thug." His motive was to be rid of his family so he could go back into the army.
