Sheriff Evades Crowds by Secreting Prisoner in Baggage Car

NORFOLK, Neb., May 18.—With his prisoner concealed in a trunk in the baggage car, Sheriff Heenan Wednesday evaded three threatening crowds and delivered Walter Simmons, held in connection with the murder Sunday of Frank Paul, 23, of this city, to the jail at Gregory, So. Dakota.

COACHES SEARCHED.

Following Simmons' arrest here Tuesday afternoon, crowds began to gather and his transfer to Butte, Nebraska, was planned as a safety measure. Word was received, however, that large numbers of persons, reaching almost mob proportions, had congregated at several railway stations along the route, and Sheriff Heenan altered his plans, taking the prisoner through to Gregory.

A crowd stormed the train at Spencer and again at Anoka, and Fairfar searched the coaches for the prisoner, but the sheriff's ruse of having Simmons secreted in a trunk was successful.

Paul, an automobile dealer here, was murdered and his body pitched over a bridge into a creek, near Erisrow, according to the verdict of the coroner's jury. The body was found Tuesday night by one of several possees that had been scouring the territory since Monday.

DEALER'S CAR FOUND.

Simmons is said to have admitted to officers that he abandoned Paul's automobile near Spencer, Neb., Monday morning when a searching party found it the following day, bloodstained. He denies all knowledge of the manner in which Paul met his death. He is said to have told authorities that he engaged Paul Sunday to take him into the country where they met two men from whom he purchased liquor.

Paul, in company with one of the men, left him shortly afterward, according to Simmons' story.

Simmons was in the Boyd county jail here today awaiting the outcome of the investigation into the death of Paul.

SHERIFF HEENAN SAID.

Sheriff Heenan said that a formal charge of murder is to be lodged against Simmons today, or tomorrow with his preliminary hearing scheduled to follow at once.

EVIDENCE UNCOVERED.

A blood spattered hammer and a blood spattered tarpaulin from Paul's car were found buried under a few inches of dirt near Fairfax, S. D., late Wednesday. A heavy guard was placed about the just here Wednesday night to forestall any attempts at mob violence. Feeling was running high and crowds gathered in the streets, but the situation was kept well in hand by the county officers.

A trip from Spencer with Paul and in his automobile for the purpose of purchasing liquor has been admitted by Simmons, according to officers, but left Paul in company with one of the alleged bootleggers, driving away in Paul's car while Paul accompanied the other man. Paul's car, covered with bloodstains, was later found by searching parties.

DAUGHTERTY IN HOT CRITICISM

His Appointment Termed "Worst Blunder" of President

YONKERS, N. Y., May 18.—The "worst blunder" of President Harding was the appointment of Harry M. Daugherty as attorney general, Samuel Untermyer, counsel of the Lockwood legislative committee, declared in an address here Wednesday, criticizing the administration for what he termed its inefficiency in going after "the big criminals"—trusts and war contract profiteers.

"He is hopelessly unfitted by training and temperament for the great office, which in many respects the most important, as it is the most powerful, in the government next to that of the president," Mr. Untermyer declared. "It peculiarly requires a great lawyer, a trained executive and a man free from political contact and environment."

UNEQUAL ENFORCEMENT.

"The idea of placing at the head of that department of all others, a political manager as a connecting link between the administration and big business fairly makes one's blood boil, no matter who the man may be, a president who was a lawyer would not have done it. That appointment had put its stamp on the present administration."

Speaking before the Dunwoody chapter of Masons on "Law Enforcement, Against Big and Little Criminals," Mr. Untermyer declared it was not an exaggerated figure of speech to say that the administration of justice has broken down, and asserted that "the reproach of the unequal enforcement of the laws as between the rich and poor is not without an element of justice."

The attorney general came in for criticism when Mr. Untermyer was discussing, under the head of "Big Criminals," the trade and open price associations he uncovered while conducting the Lockwood committee's investigation into the building trusts.

"It is more than a year since these cases were brought to the attention of the department," he said. "Prosecution has been begun on less than a half dozen of them. There are a dozen or more important ones on which the department has taken no action whatever."

"Meantime, the statute of limitations is running against these offenses; the witnesses and proofs are scattering and the chances of successful action are diminishing day by day."

ANTI-CHILD LABOR CAMPAIGN PLANNED

WASHINGTON, May 18.—The executive council of the American Federation of Labor Wednesday instructed President Gompers to call a conference here of organizations interested in child welfare for the purpose of formulating a campaign looking to the adoption of a constitutional amendment which would abolish child labor.

The decision of the council was taken, according to a statement, "after thorough consideration of the United States supreme court decision on the child labor law," the court, last Monday, held that the statute was invalid.

AVERAGE WHOLESALE PRICES UNCHANGED

WASHINGTON, May 18.—The average level of wholesale commodity prices in April showed practically no change from the preceding month, according to a report today by the bureau of labor statistics of the department of labor.

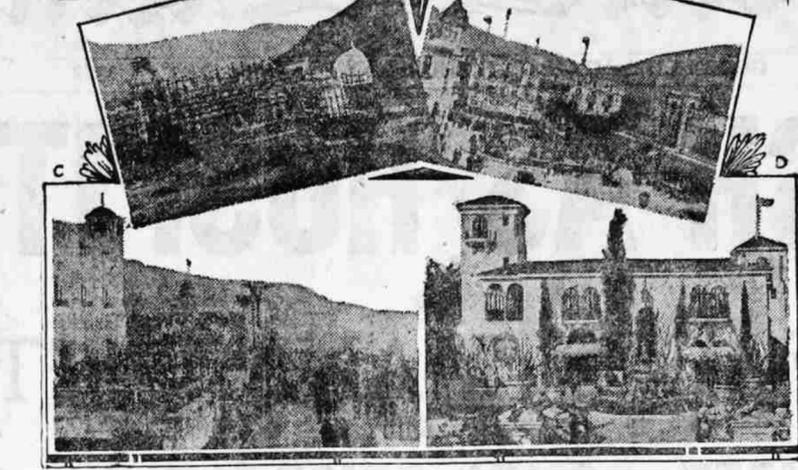

Farm products, foodstuffs and clothing showed a decrease of less than one per cent from March, as did building materials, house furnishings and commodities listed under miscellaneous. These were offset in the general level, however, by an increase of slightly more than two per cent in the wholesale prices of fuel and lighting materials and metal and metal products.

CHILDREN IN SPRING TIME

Mrs. C. Osborn, 7812 Hillside Rd., Cleveland, O., writes: "My granddaughter was troubled with a cough for nearly two years. She took Foley's Honey and Tar and her cough is now gone. It loosened the phlegm so she could raise it easily." Foley's Honey and Tar is just what children should have for feverish colds, coughs, "snuffles" and tight, wheezy breathing. Be sure to get Foley's. It checks croup and whooping cough, too.—Advertisement.

MONTE CARLO REPRODUCED IN 'FOOLISH WIVES'

Half a Million Spent in Duplicating Famous Buildings

The costliest and most elaborate set ever constructed for a moving picture, is conceded to be the Monte Carlo plaza set built at Universal City, Cal., for the production of "Foolish Wives," the million dollar photodrama coming to the Ogdien theatre next week, starting Monday.

The set is four hundred feet long and almost three hundred feet wide and includes three full-sized buildings, two circular parks, and many yards of concrete sidewalk and oiled roadways.

The Hotel de Paris, at the head of the Plaza, is 100 feet long and 65 feet high. At its left is the Casino, 174 feet long and 71 feet high, and on the right side of the plaza is the Cafe de Paris, 120 feet long, with its ornate fronted ground floor, and its shining dome, 38 feet in diameter and 50 feet high. Forty-eight plates of glass, twelve by four feet, were used for this building.

The biggest item in the construction of this plaza set, which is in exact reproduction of the actual plaza at

Monte Carlo, was lumber, of which 180,000 board feet were required, at $75 per thousand. Other items were 40,000 square yards of lath, 12,000 pounds of plaster, besides hundreds of palms and semi-tropical plants. Labor alone amounted to $60,000. The total cost of this set, one of the several costly ones constructed for "Foolish Wives," was $150,000.

Even the Monaco trolley cars were reproduced for this set, actually running on regular tracks and carrying passengers.

HER 'HUSBAND' ALSO A WOMAN

Remarkable Story of Impersonation Bared by Arrest

DES MOINES, Iowa, May 18.—(By the Associated Press.)—A remarkable story of a woman's impersonation of a man and her "marriage" to another woman came to light here today with the arrest of Mrs. Irene Gaul, the "husband" in the case.

Her arrest came about following an altercation with her "wife," Mrs. Janette Simmons. According to the story told to the police by "Husband" Gaul, the two women have lived together as man and wife for more than a year and a half.

Mrs. Gaul says she came to Des Moines two years ago from Chicago dressed as a man. She obtained work in a restaurant. Following a short courtship, Mrs. Gaul says she "married" Mrs. Simmons. Mrs. Simmons says she discovered that her "husband" was a woman three weeks after the "marriage." She says she feared to reveal to any one the fact that she had married a woman.

"She was a model housewife, and we adored each other," declared Mrs. Simmons today when she was questioned by police.

The couple was married by the Rev. George Vogel of the Lutheran church, Mrs. Gaul taking the name of Edward William Gaul.

Mrs. Gaul says she was in the habit of giving to her "wife" $2 of the $10 which she earned weekly as a restaurant employe.

Both women are about 35 years old.

SYRIAN REVOLT FAST SPREADING

Discontented Natives Force French to Withdraw From One City

DAMASCUS, Syria, April 23.—The rising of the Syrian people against the French, who occupy the country under mandate, has spread rapidly during the last fortnight throughout Syria and adjoining states and is assuming the character of open rebellion. The Syrians complain of heavy taxation and demand abrogation of the French mandate and the right to impose their own taxes.

Damascus is under martial law. The minister of the interior has resigned as a protest.

In the district of Garabuis, the revolutionaries forced French troops to withdraw from Dair-El-Zor.

(Note.—The executive committee of the confederation of Syrian committees on May 12 addressed a cablegram to President Harding which said:

"Imperialists are making mandate people enslaved colonies." It expressed the determination of Syria to repudiate the mandate of France and asked for the help of the United States to this end. Another message was sent to the council of the league of nations at Geneva, demanding the withdrawal of the mandate to France and that French troops be removed from the country.

The council of the league has not yet passed on the question, but news dispatches Wednesday stated that France was expected to ask approval of her mandate at a meeting of the council on July 15, as the consent of the United States under certain conditions, was expected.)

General Chang Tso-Lin at Luanchow. The allied military leaders here have warned both sides against encroaching within two miles of the Mukden railway, but this warning will be ignored.

The railway is in terrible confusion, General Wu's subordinates constantly interfering with the operating staff. Chang's forces took most of the locomotives and other rolling stock during their retreat after the defeat before Peking.

Trains from the Pukow, Suiyuan, Hankow and other railways are being used to transport the Chihli soldiers.

EUROPEAN BANK SITUATION BAD

American Expert Declares Genoa Dodged Most Serious Problems

WASHINGTON, May 18.—Most central banks in Europe are today "in varying degrees of involency," Frank A. Vanderlip, New York banker, declared in a cable review of the Genoa conference sent to the annual convention of the chamber of commerce of the United States. The plan for a conference at London of such banks therefore promised little of immediate result, he added, and their proposed co-operation in the solution of Europe's financial difficulties would be "difficult to realize."

Describing the Genoa conference as "a clinic" which was circumscribed in the type of "diseases" which it might discuss, Mr. Vanderlip recommended that the United States enter the proposed London financial meeting, but only with an understanding that "our federal reserve system be kept free from alien commitments." He commended the Washington government for the attitude it has maintained toward Europe and said the chamber should refrain from embarrassing it by suggestion.

"Officially, the conference was not permitted even to examine the more serious diseases," Mr. Vanderlip said.

FIREMEN VOTE DOWN LABOR PRESS FUND

HOUSTON, Texas, May 18.—The convention of the International Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen Wednesday voted down the proposal to create a $5,000,000 fund for the establishment of daily newspapers to be published in the interest of organized labor. The convention voted to endorse a joint labor press but stated that assessments at this time would be burdensome.

The proposed amalgamation with the Brotherhood of Locomotive Enginemen will be considered formally Friday, William S. Carter of Cleveland, president of the convening organization, announced. Regular business of the convention will be set aside until disposition of the proposal is made.

Unknown Foods

You do not ask your family to sit down to the table with unknown guests.

Are you equally careful about the meats you invite them to eat? Equally sure of where they come from, what they are, who stands sponsor for them?

Nowadays, fortunately, the risk is not great. But with Swift & Company's products there is none.

Swift & Company's products are the result of years of experience, of careful, conscientious effort.

Their quality is a constant factor, always to be depended upon. The consumer is doubly protected because, in addition to the care used by Swift & Company, Swift's food products are carefully inspected by government employes and bear the federal inspection stamp.

The word "Premium" on ham or bacon means that we stake our pride and the reputation of years on that ham or bacon.

These products have been selected, cured, smoked, and handled by workmen who take the same pride in our products that we do.

Be sure of Swift's products and thus make certain that no strange or unknown food is introduced into the family circle.

Attention

In less than a month, it is a lost day.

We do not want to forget, and you do not desire to be forgotten. The mind cannot, forever, retain a vanished image.

Eventually, a few weeks of time, a photograph made, or a photograph made with age, are the tangible aid to a memory that is dimmed.

That is unless a memorial of enduring stone has been provided. If it is done, the memory will be preserved to coming generations. Beautify your burial plot, and immortalize the memory of those who remain, with a memorial of everlasting stone.

Our memorials, carved in Granite or Marble, are designed for permanence and beauty.

They are true memorials. A memorial to a beloved departed, is a generous act.
