

NEGRO SHOT LAST NIGHT BY OGDEN COLORED MAN MAY DIE FROM WOUND

Police Search All Day for Alleged Negro Pickpocket Only to Find Him With Serious Bullet Wound in His Abdomen.

Charles Staples of Danville, Va., is Probably Mortally Wounded by Clarence Ernst, for Years Resident of Ogden—Latter Claims Self-Defense.

WILL NOT RECOVER.

Late this morning, reports indicate that the negro, Charles Staples, who was shot last night, will not recover from his injuries. The bullet punctured the intestines in five places. The operation for the extraction of the bullet was performed by Drs. Piddock, Browning and Forbes.

In what he claims was self defense, Clarence Ernst, for many years a familiar figure in Ogden and using fourteen years porter of the Weber club and similar organizations, shortly before eleven o'clock last night shot and fatally wounded Charles Staples, a Virginia darkey claiming the town of Danville as his home, for whom the police had been searching nearly all day and who is believed to be a member of a gang of professional "dips" or pickpockets which has been operating among the crowds in attendance at the races at the Ogden Fair grounds.

The shooting occurred near the corner of Twenty-fifth street and Lincoln avenue, a large crowd quickly gathering. Ernst made no effort to escape but submitted quietly to arrest, being taken to the police station where he is now lodged. Staples was hurriedly taken to the city jail, Dr. H. B. Forbes and City Physician Browning being quickly summoned.

Hasty examination disclosed the fact that the bullet, which was from a .38-caliber revolver, had entered just above the hip on the left side, passing completely through the abdomen and penetrating the intestines. The wound is a serious one, but the injured man's constitution is so strong that it is believed that his life may be saved. The trouble arose early yesterday afternoon when the police made the arrest of one member of the gang of supposed pickpockets, but failed to locate the negro who was shot last night. A search was instituted but

TEACHERS HAVE A LOVE FEAST

County Pedagogues Meet With Great Surprise at the Weber Academy

Gather to Attend Regular Institute but Discover, Instead, a Well-Laden Banquet Table.

Yesterday was institute day for the county school teachers, but it was turned into a veritable love feast. The session was held at the Weber academy and nearly all of the teachers of the county were present. The meeting started out all right as an institute gathering, but before the pedagogues had time to anything more than attend to routine, business, notice was served upon them that a sumptuous banquet was awaiting them in the domestic science department of the academy. This upset all the arrangements for the institute work and the party gave themselves up to an evening of jollification.

It seems that it was a prearranged affair for an interesting program was indulged in, which consisted of songs and music and speech making on the part of those present. The speech making consisted largely of reminiscences of school life, leading into reminiscences that were intensely amusing. The banquet that was served was really extravagant, the domestic science department of the academy laying such a spread as to appease the most fastidious appetite. The members of the county board of education were present and indulged freely in the festivities. Others who happily appeared at the banquet were Superintendent John M. Mills of the city schools and President McKendrick of the Weber academy. The banquet over and the party, numbering about sixty, indulged in a dancing party which was much appreciated.

DOG SAVES HIS MASTER MONEY

Faithful Canine Frightens Burglars Away From Home of Charles Hupfer.

For Second Time in Short Period Burglars Ransack Home of Cigar Dealer, Securing Nothing.

The home of Charley Hupfer, 653 Twenty-fifth street was burglarized last night by parties yet unknown. Entrance to the building was effected by breaking through a side window while Mr. and Mrs. Hupfer were out to the show. It will be remembered that only a short time ago burglars entered the Hupfer home and considerable loot was carried away. Last night, however, so far as can now be determined, the burglars did not take anything away.

At a little after eleven o'clock last evening, as Mr. and Mrs. Hupfer were approaching the home, they heard "Bing," the faithful old dog, barking, and Mr. Hupfer whistled to him, the dog chasing down the pavement in answer to the well-known whistle. It is thought that the burglars were in the house when the whistle was given, and, fearing the approach of the occupants of the house, made their getaway in a hasty retreat through the back yard.

WILL HOLD THE TEACHERS HERE

After Contract is Made, There Will Be No "Jumping" This Year.

Board of Education Finds Plan Which Will do Away With Old Trouble.

The city board of education met last evening in special session for the purpose of employing teachers for the grade schools and determining the salaries of said teachers. The list is rather a long one and the board, being imbued with the spirit of economy, to the extent at least of keeping within the school revenues, is carefully considering the matter.

There are so many things for consideration it was impossible for the board to arrive at a definite conclusion last evening. The question was wrestled with until a late hour, no conclusion being reached. The board finally adjourned until tomorrow night at 8 o'clock, when the matter will again be taken up and very likely settled.

The form of the contract for all teachers was settled upon by the board at the meeting Tuesday night, and it was sent out for their consideration. It provides for a slight raise in the aggregate amount of salaries, but provides for the payment of the same in ten installments, rather than nine which was provided for last year. This means that the installments are somewhat smaller than they were last year and some of the teachers, not fully understanding the terms of the contract, arrived at the conclusion that they were not getting as big a salary this year as they did last. A little explanation to the teachers on this score, however, soon settled that question.

The object of the board in providing for the payment of the teachers in ten installments rather than nine was brought about because of the failure of some of the teachers under last year's contract to fulfill their agreement, quitting their positions before the expiration of the school year, and leaving the board of education in the lurch. It was thought by the board and it is so provided in the contract for this year, that the last payment shall be withheld until after the time of the closing of the schools, and if there be any teachers guilty of jumping their jobs before the end of the term, the board of education will withhold their salaries.

THEATRICAL

"THE MILLS OF THE GODS."

A small audience greeted "The Mills of the Gods" at the Grand last evening and commented very favorably upon the production. The piece does not compare in strength with Broadway's "Man of the Hour," nor is it as interesting as "Wildfire" and some of the other successes of this popular playright. The plot, however, is interesting, and the leading role in the capable hands of Monroe Salisbury was very well rendered.

Oscar Briggs, in the role of the villainous ex-convict, Payton, was especially good. Clifford Russell, as the good "Wildfire," and some of the other successes of this popular playright, furnished the juvenile love for the occasion and were well received. Grace Raworth, in the role of Catherine Gordon, also deserved special mention. Other members of the company carried their parts well and did much for the success of the piece. The staging was very good, especially the setting of act III.

WORCESTER WINS

Cambridge, Mass., May 15.—Worcester academy won the twenty-fourth annual Harvard interscholastic track meet this afternoon with a score of thirty-six points. NAVY'S CREW BEAT POTOMAC BOAT CLUB

Annapolis, Md., May 15.—The navy's varsity and second crews both defeated the eight-oared Potomac boat club of Washington this afternoon on the Severn river. The race, as originally contemplated, provided for a second crew from the Potomac club to go against the navy's eight, but as the visitors cancelled the race they agreed to let the navy's second eight enter as a third contestant.

The race was over the mile and a half inner course and the time was, Navy Varsity 8 minutes, 44 3/5 seconds. Navy second crew 8 minutes 56 seconds. The Potomac shell was far in the rear and its time was not taken. Both crews got the lead at the start and never were headed.

FIRE BUGS BURN DOWN COURT HOUSE

Reno, Nev., May 15.—A fire believed to be of incendiary origin late today destroyed the Lyon county court house at Dayton, Nev., entailing a loss of $45,000. Part of the records were rescued. The volunteer fire fighting force was unable to check the fire and the whole interior of the court house was gutted the flames dying out only when they had destroyed everything which they could reach. The building was insured for $10,000. The fire started in a hallway among a pile of papers which had been left there by unknown persons.

DINNER FOR THE "BAREFOOT BISHOP OF MALABAR"

New York, May 16.—Alois Benzeldel, the barefoot bishop of Malabar, was tendered a dinner last night by Archbishop Farley, at which many prominent clergymen were present. Bishop Benzeldel, who has been in the city nearly a week incognito, belongs to a very wealthy Swiss family. Since becoming bishop at Malabar, British India, he has gone barfooted and worn only the commonest of robes, renouncing all luxuries and living as the poorest person in his diocese.

TWO RECORDS LOWERED

The feature of the contest was the record hammer throw of Talbot, who threw a distance of 167 feet four inches. This feat breaks all inter-collegiate records but will not be allowed, as the distance was not measured with a steel tape.

GOVERNOR HASKELL AND THE GRAND JURY

Tulsa, Ok., May 15.—Governor Haskell tonight gave out the following statement regarding Judge Marshall's action in dismissing the grand jury today:

"It looks to me as if the attorneys for the government thought they were grand jury. What is the use of having a grand jury if the district attorney and special attorney general can override the grand jury and deny it the right to exercise its honest judgment?"

"The district attorney made his statement and the government has submitted all the evidence it has in the Hutchings-Turner case. The grand jury, in the exercise of its proper function, held the evidence insufficient to return an indictment against the men. Because the government attorneys did not agree with the grand jury on subjects and facts involved they asked and obtained its discharge.

"We will at any time be ready to answer any charges of undue influence used upon the grand jury or of improper conduct in any way. At any time we shall ask the attorneys for the government to answer charges of gross misconduct upon their part."

Tulsa, Ok., May 15.—Upon motion of the government, John A. Marshall, court here today, dismissed the grand jury empaneled last Tuesday to re-investigate the Muskogee town lot fraud cases. Judge Marshall upheld the government's contention that the jury has been subjected to improper influences. The motion to dismiss the jury was made because the government attorneys had not agreed with the grand jury on subjects and facts involved they asked and obtained its discharge.

New York, May 15.—Miss L. E. singles in the women's tennis tournament at the West Side club here. She defeated Miss Marie Wafner, who holds a national indoor championship, 6-4, 6-6, 6-1.

The remaining semi-final rounds in the doubles were won by Miss E. H. Moore and Mrs. W. H. Pouch, both former national championship holders, who defeated Misses Hammond and Miss Elsie Little, 4-6, 6-3, 7-5.

STRENUOUS CONTEST IN NORTHWEST FINALLY CLOSES

Kalspell, Mont., May 15.—The contest which for the past few weeks has so strenuously engaged the surveying crews of both the Puget Sound and the Great Northern railways has drawn to a close with the closing this morning of final maps of definite location of both companies covering remaining distance to the international boundary. The Milwaukee people filed their map fifteen minutes ahead of the Great Northern. Throughout the contest they have maintained the lead and now claim to have the route secured from Coram along the North Fork river to the Canadian boundary, a distance of more than forty-five miles.

At places the maps show lines as following the same course and many points mark where they cross or converge. The contest will now shift to the courts, where a number of condemnation suits instituted by both sides will be threshed out.

BRAVE DRIVER SAVES OUTFIT

Ed Wright, a driver for the Becker Brewing company, had a very narrow escape from what might have been a serious accident when he drove his team and wagon into the Ogden river at a point near the brewery about 6:30 yesterday evening.

It has been the custom for the drivers employed by the brewery to drive their outfits into the ford at this point for the purpose of washing them, but on account of the high water the bottom of the ford had been cut away and the team encountered a swift current which carried them rapidly down stream for a distance of 200 yards.

With extreme difficulty and at the risk of losing his life in the swift current Wright succeeded in catching the frantic horses by the bit and heading them towards a place of safety when within but a few seconds they must certainly have been swept off their feet. Another team was quickly procured from the brewery stables and with the aid of a rope hitched onto the tongue the outfit was at last safely pulled out upon the bank, none the worse for the experience.

NORTH OGDEN PEOPLE DISCUSS PHONE RATES

A very enthusiastic meeting was held at North Ogden last evening protesting against the proposed raise in price of Bell telephone service for North Ogden subscribers.

E. G. McGriff presided, and B. F. Blaylock, was called upon to act as secretary and take minutes of the meeting.

A committee previously appointed, consisting of E. G. McGriff, Joseph E. Marshall and Frank Moore, made their report stating that in their conference with the Bell company's officials no encouragement that the proposed raise would be varied from had been given them.

C. L. Clay, Frank Moore and Joseph H. Marshall were then appointed as a committee to wait on the Weber club and, if possible, enlist their aid inasmuch as the elimination of the telephone system or even awaiting the installation of some system other than the Bell would affect Ogden city in the same way as it would North Ogden.

A further committee, consisting of Joseph H. Storey, L. W. Williams and George E. Randall were appointed to procure the signatures of phone users protesting against the high toll charges between North Ogden and Ogden city.
