California's Anti-Alien Land Bill Was Not Discussed—Considered Mexican Situation and Appointments in Many States

Washington, May 6.—The California anti-alien land bill and its effect upon the Japanese was not discussed by President Wilson with his cabinet today at the regular session, but some attention was given to Mexican problems.

Acting Secretary of State John Bassett Moore occupied Secretary Bryan's seat during the meeting.

The president took up prospective appointments in various states, but no announcement was made as to selections. The question of Saturday half-holidays for government employes in Washington also was discussed but no conclusion was reached.

A test of the constitutionality of the California land bill in the courts is proposed in a resolution introduced in the house today by Representative Britten of Illinois. The resolution provides that the judiciary committee draw a resolution directing the department of state and the attorney general to take such steps as are necessary toward a judicial test of the California law "with a view to its annulment."

In a statement accompanying his resolution, Representative Britten attacked the Democratic administration for its attitude toward the British government in the Panama canal tolls controversy and toward Japan in the California imbroglio.

ASSASSIN SUICIDES

Eleko Shinas, Slayer of King George, Takes His Own Life By Hurling Himself Out of Jail Window

Athens, May 6.—Aleko Shinas, who assassinated King George of Greece on March 18, at Saloniki, committed suicide this morning by flinging himself out of a window of the police station in that city.

Shinas was a native of the town of Volo, Thessaly. He killed the king by shooting him in the back while he was walking along the streets of Saloniki accompanied by an aide de camp. He gave as an explanation of the crime that in 1911 he had applied for assistance at the king's palace and had been driven away.

A few days ago, the doctors examined Shinas and announced that he was dying of tuberculosis.

WASHINGTON CREW SEEK INVITATION

New York, May 6.—Graduate Athletic Manager Ralph A. Horr of the University of Washington, Seattle, has filed on behalf of the 'varsity crew a request for an invitation to compete in the Intercollegiate regatta to be held on the Hudson river off Poughkeepsie on Saturday, June 21.

The telegram is now in the hands of Morton P. Bouge, chairman of the board of stewards of the intercollegiate regatta association. He will call a meeting of the stewards at once and if the eligibility rules governing the Washington crews accord with those in vogue at eastern universities, the invitation to row against Cornell, Columbia, Pennsylvania, Syracuse and Wisconsin in the four-mile 'varsity eight-oared race will in all probability be extended as requested by the Washington University Athletic association.

The Fraud

Some times local stores handle a special brand of goods—such as special brands of shoes—as guaranteed by the manufacturers—such as Maine shoes, Wooltex ladies' suits, Style-plus men's wear, Knox or Stetson hats, etc. Well occasionally you will find some fellow handling an inferior grade of merchandise who will buy just a sample of the superior grade of goods and stick them in the show window to draw attention or some times will even advertise that he has the superior grades and even offer them at low prices to draw customers and when the customer calls he is told they are just out of his size but have a better grade for less money and often deceive the customer into buying the cheaper grade. It is actions of this kind that are declared fraudulent in some of the states. The only way to overcome this form of trickery is for the buyer to call on the known agent of the grade of goods wanted. The agents of the best grades always advertise their goods and a customer need not be cheated if he will use his brains just a little. The agent also should not hesitate to let the public know that he is the only authorized man in Ogden to handle the goods described.

THEFT OF CURRENCY

Package Containing 143 Bills of $100 Each Mysteriously Disappears Between Washington and Oakland—Special Agents Search From Denver to Coast

Oakland, Cal., May 6.—The theft of one hundred and forty-three $100 bills, $14,300, from an express package sent from Washington, D. C., to the Central National bank of this city, is engaging the efforts of a number of special agents, and every mile of the trail of the package from the time it left Washington is being gone over. When the package reached the bank here and was opened, it was found to contain merely clipped magazine pages of the size and weight of the missing bank notes.

The bank notes were addressed to the Oakland bank from the National Bank Redemption office. Government officials of that office have notified the bank that the package was properly sealed and stamped before it was turned over to the United States Express company. Officials of the express company have assured the bank that the package could not have been tampered with before it reached Denver, and the representative of the Wells-Fargo company, which is said to have relayed the package from Denver, has given the same assurance to the bank.

Somewhere a counterfeit government seal was used, and the wax impression that reached the bank on the package containing valueless paper clippings has been pronounced to be a perfect government seal.

The discovery of the theft has been kept several days in the hope that special agents of the government and of the express companies would be able to trace the theft.

Continuing the Search.

Denver, May 6.—Officials of the United States and Wells-Fargo express companies today said the companies were still aiding the government in the search for $14,300, supposed to have been stolen from a package consigned to the Central National bank of Oakland, Cal., from Washington, but that no trace of the money had been found.

The package was transferred from the United States to the Wells-Fargo company here about March 4, and express company officers say it was in a sealed pouch which could not have been opened during the transfer without detection.

SUFFRAGISTS SENSATION

New Haven Political Equality Club Expels Twelve Members Including President and Vice President For Corrupting the Political Game

New Haven, Conn., May 6.—Charging that they had formed without the knowledge and consent of the club, an organization within it, for "their own selfish motives," the New Haven Political Equality club, a suffrage organization, today expelled twelve of its members, including the president, Mrs. Terrence S. McDermott, and vice president, Mrs. Augusta Troup, one of the first suffragists in the city and wife of Alexander Troup, who was a close personal friend of Secretary of State Bryan. The organization referred to had been named the Pioneer Equality club.

The resolutions of expulsion declare that "it has never been known in the history of politics, no matter how corrupt the political parties have been in the past, that such low and unfair methods have been adopted by individuals to get control of an organization."

GOES TO COURT IN AMBULANCE

St. Louis, Mo., May 6.—Mrs. T. R. Whitney, formerly Mrs. Dora E. Doxey, was taken today in an ambulance to Clayton, the county seat of St. Louis county. The purpose of the journey to Clayton was to prevent the forfeiture of Mrs. Doxey-Whitney's bond.

For ten days Mrs. Whitney, with

THREATENS TO RESIGN

Premier Asquith in Opposing the Women's Suffrage Bill Says He Will Resign If His Colleagues Do Not Follow the Government

London, May 6.—In opposing the women's suffrage bill in the House of Commons today, Premier Asquith said he would resign in his colleagues if they did not feel justified in following a government, the head of which was opposed to them.

When the debate was resumed this afternoon, the premier defended the government's course, saying it was consistent with the best traditions of British statesmanship.

He regretted that he found himself at variance from his colleagues on the suffrage question and greatly as he would regret severing himself from the prosecution of other cases, he would lay down his office if his colleagues ever suggested that they did not feel justified in following a government, the head of which was opposed to them.

"They never did that," declared the premier amid cheers.

Mr. Asquith said the bill created 6,000,000 new voters and it had never been approved by the existing electorate. He continued:

Had Not Neglected the Women.

"Would our political fabric be strengthened, would our legislative fabric be more respected, would our social and domestic life be enriched, would our standard of manners—and by manner I mean the old-fashioned virtues of chivalry, courtesy and inter-dependence of the sexes on one another—be raised or refined if women were given the vote?"

"Cries of 'of course they would' were raised on all sides of the house.

The premier strongly denied that parliament had been neglectful of women and said he saw no evidences that British women as a whole wanted the vote.

MILITIAMEN STOP RIOT

Fifteen People Including Seven Policemen Receive Injuries—Rush Wounded to the Hospitals—Troops Restore Order in the City

Syracuse, N. Y., May 6.—Local militia was called out for strike duty here today following a riot in which 15 persons were injured, seven of them policemen.

Four or five hundred striking building laborers, all Italians, interferred today with men who were pulling down the old house of Bishop John Grimes to make place for a new Episcopal residence. Fifty policemen fought the strikers, revolvers against bricks.

Seven policemen were hurt. Two strikers were shot through the body and six others were hurt seriously. The police rushed the wounded to the hospitals.

After the first outbreak, which took place directly opposite the county court house, a fire hose was used and the mob was driven down Onondaga street to the corner of Warren, in the heart of the business district. Here the Italians made another stand and shooting began again. Sheriff Matthews ordered out the local militia companies and quiet had been restored by noon.

SLAVERY IN PHILIPPINES

Resident Commissioner Files Protest Against Worcester—Says That If Slavery Exists There the Commission Is Responsible For It

Washington, May 6.—The conduct of Secretary Worcester is a new evidence that prompt action should be taken to relieve every one of the members of the Philippine committee from the governor-general down," wrote Manuel Quezon, resident commissioner of the Philippines, in a protest filed today with Secretary Garrison against Mr. Worcester's statement that slavery exists in the island. Resident Commissioner Earnshaw of the Philippines joined in the statement.

Mr. Quezon's letter says that if slavery exists in the Philippines, the Philippine commission alone is responsible for the lack of proper legislation "to punish this inhuman, savage crime," and adds:

"Not until recently has this question of slavery been brought up and also for the purpose of telling the American people that the Philippine assembly, as representing the capacity of the Filipinos for self-government, is a failure. Governor Forbes also gave out a statement similar to Mr. Worcester's.

"Whether or not as a matter of policy the members of the commission should be relieved, Secretary Worcester has done enough not only in this case, but in previous ones, to merit the loss of privilege of being one of the administrators and legislators of a people whom he finds pleasure in slandering."

FRUIT GROWERS FACING GOOD SEASON

That the fruit growers of Utah are facing a most prosperous year is the opinion of William Homer, Jr., of Pleasant Grove, who has been in Ogden during the last two days working in the interest of the new Utah fruit-growers' association. He stated today that reliable reports have been received to the effect that the peach growers of Georgia, Arkansas and Texas have suffered from the frost and that the crop from those states will be but one-fourth what it was last season.

Outside of the sweet cherry crop in some districts, he reports that his investigations prove that the fruit in Utah has not been injured to any great extent.

Mr. Homer is enthusiastically in favor of the new association and his purpose in visiting Ogden is to bring about, if possible, the merging of the local fruit exchange with the state-wide distributing system. He met last evening with Joseph Wright, George W. Palmer of Farmington and H. H. Thompson. A meeting of the directors of the Utah Fruit exchange will be called next Friday when the proposition will be put to them to have the association merged into the broader one.

Four of the local exchange is to market their fruit through brokers, while the state organization plans to send field men into the country in a manner similar to the operation of the California Fruit-growers exchange.

GRADUATE OF A GERMAN SCHOOL

After an absence of two years, during which time he has graduated from the Biltmore Forest school of Barnstaple, Germany, Theron Littlefield, a well known Ogden boy, has returned for a visit of a few weeks with friends and relatives.

Mr. Littlefield decided upon forestry for a profession after graduating from the Ogden High school. He took up the study in one of the greatest schools of the world and has visited the principal forests of Germany, France, Holland and Belgium. Since returning to the United States, he has gone to the forest regions throughout this country. He will not enter the government service, but intends to practice his profession privately.

OBJECTS TO NAMING STREETS

Washington, May 6.—If a grateful government desires to honor a great state like Maine it must not do so by naming after it a three-blocks-long avenue in an obscure part of the national capital. This view is taken by Representative Guernsey of Maine, who has asked congress to instruct the commissioners of the District of Columbia to "strike from the list of fairs lying between Third and Sixth streets, southwest, and bearing the name of his state.

"I don't care what they call the avenue," said Representative Guernsey with some asperity. "But I don't want it called after the great Pine Tree commonwealth."

If the government does not desire to honor Maine in better fashion, he added, all well and good. But he expressed the belief that the state's name should be given to a thoroughfare that would be an honor to it. Action has been deferred.

HERMITAGE CLUB IS TO ORGANIZE

"The Hermitage Club" will be organized and articles of incorporation signed at a meeting to be held at the Hermitage hotel in Ogden canyon this evening. A special street car for those who have signed the membership role and who will aid in the organization of the club, will leave the corner of Washington avenue and 25th street this evening.

The complete organization and election of officers will probably be made tonight.

SAFE IS ROBBED AND PORTER DEPARTS

The safe in the office of Carl Rasmussen, the real estate dealer, was robbed of $50 yesterday morning between 11 o'clock and 11:30.

W. S. Farris, a colored porter, who up to that time was employed in the barber shop of Adam Farber on 24th street, is suspected of the crime. He left the place suddenly a few moments before the robbery was discovered and has not been located.

Mr. Rasmussen opened the safe at 11 o'clock and was gone but a few minutes. When he looked in the safe at 11:30 o'clock the cash contents had disappeared.

The matter was reported to the police.

WOMEN AS MURDERERS

English Suffragettes Reviewing Activities—Attempt to Destroy Hotel Where Americans Visit—Burn St. Catherine's Church, the Parish Church at Hatcham

London, May 6.—A militant suffragette caught early this morning by the police in the act of placing a bomb at the entrance of the Grand hotel, which is crowded with American tourists, was brought up at Bow Street police court later in the day and remanded by the magistrate for further inquiries. She gave the name of Ada Ward.

The bomb was in the form of a tin canister to which was attached a lighted fuse. A placard bearing the words "votes for women" was wrapped round it.

The Grand hotel is located on Trafalgar Square.

Women Destroy Church.

London, May 6.—St. Catherine's, the parish church of Hatcham, in the southeast of London, was gutted by fire this morning and the outrage is placed by the police to the account of the militant suffragettes. The edifice was well alight before the fire was discovered and the roof crashed in soon after the arrival of the firemen.

The pastor of the church saw three women in the building shortly before the fire broke out. He assumed they were worshippers, as the church was kept open for private prayer throughout the day. A number of Hassocks were found saturated with oil.

REBELS WIN IN GUAYMAS BATTLE

Nogales, Ariz., May 6.—The result of yesterday's battle above Guaymas apparently was favorable to the state troops. During the fighting in which the federalists advanced against the state troops at Ortiz, the government forces were surprised by an attack from the rear.

Forced to retreat, the federalists lost 200 men under Colonel Luis M. Barron, who were captured with their commander.

The flank movement was executed by Colonel Benjamin G. Hill, whose insurgents last Wednesday took Torin, a town southeast of Guaymas, who reached the battle field by a forced march.

Bordeaux, May 6.—Two Spanish anarchists were arrested here today on suspicion of being concerned in a plot against the life of King Alfonso.

INTERESTS IN CONTROL

Gifford Pinchot Says Senator Guggenheim Has Used His Influence to Prevent Legislation Regarding Opening of Alaska Coal Lands

Washington, May 6.—Gifford Pinchot charged before the senate private interests committee today that private interests had held up legislation to open Alaskan coal fields under a leasing system and named former Senator Guggenheim of Colorado as one of the men who had exerted his influence to prevent such legislation. He told the committee that he could get the names of other men in and out of congress who were in opposition to the leasing system.

Mr. Pinchot had been called to give his opinion of the bill for government aid in construction to develop the Alaskan railroads. He was asked why, in his opinion, legislation to develop the Alaskan coal fields had taken so many years to get through congress.

"Do you mean that members of congress have been influenced by private interests against such legislation?" asked Senator Lippitt.

Names Senator Guggenheim.

"I mean what you all know, that private interests have great influence in congress," returned Mr. Pinchot. "There was strong opposition from Senator Guggenheim to the passage of the leasing bill. There were others. I can get the names if you want them."

The former forester declared that in his judgment the government should operate railroads in Alaska. He believed in the leasing system for coal fields. He added that if the government had retained possession of the coal fields of Pennsylvania there never would have been such "political corruption" as he said existed in that state.

Mr. Pinchot advocated the retention or government possession of all "factors of power," coal, oil and water power.

"Power," he said, "is the greatest tool of civilization. The curtailment of sources of power is the main reason for the retrogression of living."

Mr. Pinchot was the only witness today. He spoke for two hours and is expected to file several written communications with the committee. Former Secretary of the Interior Walter L. Fisher is expected to appear tomorrow.

DEMAND FOR THE TROOPS

Democrats at Bluefield, West Virginia, Prevent Republicans From Serving as Voting Officers—Guardsmen Ordered to Be in Readiness

Charleston, W. Va., May 6.—A demand for troops to preserve order at the polls during the city election at Bluefield was made on Governor Hatfield today by citizens of that town, who alleged that Democrats are preventing Republicans serving as voting officers, and because a Democratic clerk refused to sign ballots. A militia company at Bluefield has been ordered to be in readiness.
