be conducted under the auspices of Ogden lodge No. 719 B. P. O. E. The suggestion was made at the meeting last evening and was received with enthusiasm by the members. It is planned to make the affair an annual occurrence. The committee will decide whether or not to conduct the excursion by the camping route or by the hotel way. Meetings of the committee will be held within a short time and the results of their inquiries will be announced.

Returns from Nevada—Charles E. Kaiser, the Ogden capitalist and sheepman, returned from a twelve days' visit in Nevada, looking after his interests and attending the Nevada State Bankers' convention. Mr. Kaiser said that the past week had been spent on his ranch north of Tonopah, riding broncos. He further added that he is now ready to ride all the mustangs that Harry B. Cramer and William A. Larkins bring around.

Reckless Rider—After frightening the residents along Riverdale road by his reckless riding and his blood-curdling cries, a horseman who gave the name of Lee Rogers and his age as 25 years, was arrested by the sheriff. The young man went to the county jail without struggling but gave his warwhoop at regular intervals. Although appearing to be crazy with drink, the man will probably be examined as to his sanity.

Apartments Robbed—Mrs. E. Foley of the Corey apartments has reported that $52 was taken from her handbag at her rooms Monday evening while she was absent from the place not more than five minutes. The thief who took the money left jewelry and a round trip ticket to Denver in the bag. The robbery of Mrs. Foley's apartments is the second one reported from Monday evening when the circus was in the city. George W. Parlow's home in the Peery apartments was entered but the thieves left without taking anything.

CHARGED WITH ROBBING A COOK

Following the report to the police that two men had been trying to sell phony jewelry, William O'Brien and James Kavanaugh were arrested last evening by Detectives Robert Burke and Robert Chambers. After their arrest a cook complained to the police that he had been with the men during the day and that toward evening he had accompanied them through the railroad yards. The cook stated that when he went to sleep his money was gone.

The two were brought before Judge W. H. Reeder this morning on charges of vagrancy to which they pleaded guilty, but they denied that they had taken the cook's money. They said that the cook had treated them well and had given them $2 each and they had only left him when he asked them to go up town to buy some food and food. They were arrested, they said, while in town for that purpose.

They admitted that they had purchased the cheap jewelry to sell in case they got hard up, but they had not attempted to dispose of any. The cook in the case promised to appear in court to testify today, but did not show up and the judge continued the case until tomorrow morning.

Rio Jose, the Mexican boy, who built a fire in the basement of the Wilson store on 28th street and went to sleep, was given a sentence of 10 days. The boy claimed that he had come from Salt Lake in a rainstorm and that his clothes were wet. Judge Reeder held that it is a serious thing to build fires in the basements of stores.

Juan Garcia, another Mexican, charged with petit larceny, pleaded not guilty and the case was set for tomorrow morning. It is alleged that Garcia took several small bottles of whisky from a 25th street saloon and was caught by the bartender as he was about to go away. In the scuffle, several of the bottles were broken.

Thomsen, 283 24th street.

Responsive to a communication from the Ogden River Reservoir company, respecting material and expenses attached to the building of the South Fork reservoir, the city engineer was directed to check up the account. The engineer was further directed to not receive the material until it can be definitely known whether the present location of the dam will be accepted, and he was requested to confer with the engineers of the reservoir company to determine where further work shall begin.

S. F. Halverson offered $200 for the independent telephone building on 24th street and Hudson avenue, and the bid was accepted. Mr. Halverson will be required to remove the building for the opening of Hudson avenue, between 23rd and 24th streets. This structure cost when erected $35,000. The petition of property owners for sidewalk on 18th street, between Washington and Grant avenues was referred to the street department.

Default—The default of the defendant in the case of the First National bank against W. R. Garrison et al was entered today.

Tomorrow: Opening Day of the May White Sale

Tomorrow is the Opening Day of the Greatest White Sales of the year. Every woman will be interested in the splendid display of dainty lingerie and in the remarkable values which are to be offered.

In many cases the materials and making would cost more than we ask for the finished garment.

Undermuslins for ordinary wear—for the wedding outfit—for the graduation gown will be here in all of the handsomest trimmings—all of the new materials and in the very latest models.

Unlike the garments offered at ordinary White Sales, these are all of the latest patterns and are designed to wear with the newest dresses and outer garments.

Selling begins at nine o'clock in the morning on the Busy Second Floor. All of those pieces which have been displayed in the windows during the past week.

WRIGHTS' WRIGHTS' WRIGHTS' WRIGHTS'

ARTILLERY TRAIN RUSHING TO COAST

Hundreds of Soldiers Arrive and Depart on Their Way West—Troops March Through the Streets—Much Stir Over Japanese Affair—Trains Making High Speed—Soldiers Fed in the Cars.

Traveling as the second section of the city. As the soldiers passed along the street the Japs studied them closely.

Soldiers March Up Town. A special train of twelve cars carrying soldiers from Columbus Barracks, Ohio, to Honolulu, arrived in Ogden at 10 o'clock this morning and during the wait of one hour, the men were paraded around the city for exercise. There were 365 men, part of whom were colored, in charge of Captain E. D. Kilbourne of the medical corps and Lieutenant R. W. Ashbrook, an infantry officer.

Immediately upon the arrival of the special over the Denver & Rio Grande the excitement and patriotism that accompanies the marching of soldiers became evident in Ogden. The order was given to march by twos to a position on Wall avenue in front of the depot. Here a few preliminary motions were gone through and the order was given to march up town.

Marching in regular form in fours, the 365 men presented a martial appearance as they proceeded up the street. The line of march led up Twenty-sixth street to Washington avenue where a halt was made and other evolutions were performed. From that point the recruits went along Washington avenue to Twenty-fourth street thence west to Grant and from there to Twenty-fifth street and back to the depot and the cars.

The appearance upon the street of United States troops at this time, when the war agitation is being felt, caused considerable commotion among the people in the business section and there were many theories advanced concerning their presence in the city. It was not generally believed that the men are to go to Honolulu, as was given out, but will remain in California.

"Is there any significance in the sending of these troops west at this time?" was asked Captain Kilbourne this morning.

"There is none that I know of," answered the officer. "These men are recruits from the Columbus barracks which is a depot for recruits. The men are green and are being sent to Honolulu for training. The order we received to move from the barracks was unaccompanied by any explanation."

When told that there were other troops on the road for the west, the captain stated that he had heard there were other troops on the road, but that he knew nothing certain about their destination. According to Captain Kilbourne, his men will remain for a few days at Angel Island before embarking for Honolulu.

MEMORIAL DAY OF LOCAL EAGLES

Memorial Sunday will be observed by the local Order of Eagles June 1, an appropriate program having been arranged. The degree team will visit the cemeteries in automobiles to decorate the graves of departed members.

The program will consist of a memorial address by Joseph Chee, solos by the Misses Blair and Edna Ludington, singing by the Eagles' quartet, composed of Bert Syphers, Charles Blair, Lou Leavitt and George Welch. Blair and Syphers will also sing a duet. Short speeches will be made by the worthy president, Walter Griffin, past worthy president, Thomas Leslie, vice president, William Doyle and chaplain, George Roach.

There will be flowers in profusion for the cemeteries.

FOSTER TAKEN BY MISSOULA TEAM

Foster, who has been playing shortstop for Ogden since the opening of the season, was released yesterday by Manager G. C. Knight of the local team and was immediately signed up by Manager Blankenship of Missoula and the ex-Ogden man will be at short for Missoula. Foster played shortstop today in a Missoula uniform.

"I still maintain that Foster is a good man, but the fans of Ogden demanded his release," said Manager Knight when asked about the releasing of the shortstop.

"I am mighty glad to get hold of Foster," is the way Blankenship put it when approached on the subject. "The fellow has great form on the field and at the bat and I believe he will be a star in the Union association. Between such old heads as Changnon and Perrine he will do well."

Foley, the infelder, who was with Helena at the opening of the season, has arrived in Ogden and played at short for Ogden today. Knight expects that Mahoney, a pitcher, will arrive from Portland within a few days. The pitcher has been married, but a few days and is not desperate about going to work.

Foley has come to Ogden well recommended. It is said that Manager Shay of the Helena team thought seriously of letting Menges go to place Foley on third sack with Cronin playing on third. If the veteran Helena manager thought so much of the player it is probably that he will make good.

Blankenship has not heard from Anolis, the pitcher, who has mysteriously disappeared, leaving his belongings with the Missoula club. The last that was seen of Anolis was when he left the hotel in Salt Lake to go to a dance at the Salt Palace.

Trekell, the tall boy, who played shortstop yesterday, is pitching for Missoula today, and Roberts, the star of yesterday, is behind the bat again. Foster is playing in Trekell's position.

For Ogden Green is doing the twirling and Perkins is again behind the rubber.
