

TROOPS WILL ENFORCE LAW

Governor Sulzer Instructs Adjutant General to See That There Is No Gambling on Horses at Belmont Park

New York, May 30.—Reports that governor William Sulzer had authorized employment of the state militia to stop gambling were current today coincident with the revival of horse racing at Belmont park on Long Island this afternoon. Adjutant General Henry De Witt Hamilton of the National guard admitted that he had had a midnight talk with the governor regarding the racing situation and that while he did not believe any such measures would be necessary, he was in readiness to call out state troops to prevent violation of the law.

FIND BODY OF WOMAN

Completely Severed Head and Later Replaced Upon Body Makes Gruesome Terrible Murder Mystery—Handkerchief Furnishes Identification

Bloomfield, N. J., May 30.—The body of a young woman from which the head had been severed and replaced was found in a vacant lot here today. By means of a handkerchief upon which her name was written, she was identified as Mrs. Alvera Cercello, wife of a Newark storekeeper. Two hundred dollars which the husband said she carried in her stocking was missing. Her fingers had been severed from her hands and the ground in the immediate vicinity gave indications of a terrific fight for life.

SIGNING THE PEACE PACT

Delegates of Balkan Allies Meet With Sir Edward Grey in London and Agree to a Treaty—Bulgarians Open Fire on Greeks

London, May 30.—The preliminary treaty of peace was signed at St. James' palace by the delegates of all the Balkan allies and of Turkey today. Sir Edward Grey, the British foreign secretary, presided at the meeting. The first meeting of the peace conference has been fixed for Monday, June 2.

London, May 30.—Bulgarian artillery at Prava opened fire on the Greek position in the direction of Eleuthera last night, according to the Exchange Telegraph company's representative at Athens.

The Bulgarian commander refused to enter into negotiations with the Greek commander to stop the firing. Details of the engagement have not yet been received.

DECORATION DAY IN EAST

Washington, May 30.—Veterans of the historic strife of the '60s and the young men who engaged in the war with Spain, joined today in paying tribute to the warrior dead of the nation. Arlington cemetery was the objective point of the thousands of veterans and civilians alike, although a score of historic grave yards in and about Washington claimed the reverence and homage of hundreds of others.

The principal ceremonies were at Arlington, in which a considerable force of the regular army from Fort Myer took part. One of the most impressive services of the day was decoration of the graves of the "unknown dead."

Nearly a score of government officials and members of congress made speeches.

Canton, O., May 30.—Among the floral tributes sent to Monument Hill today were wreaths from President Wilson, George B. Cortelyou, former secretary of the treasury, and Justice William R. Day of the supreme court of the United States, to be placed in the mausoleum which contains the body of President McKinley.

Old Veteran Visits Cemetery.
Paterson, N. J., May 30.—The eve of Memorial day, Samuel Wilson, a 72-year-old veteran of the civil war, dressed in uniform with two medals on his chest, was found last night asleep in Cedar Lawn cemetery, where a number of his comrades are asleep forever. He had fallen there in exhaustion from a tramp yesterday for over 50 miles from his home in Middlestown, N. Y., on his way to the "Old Soldiers' home at Kearney, N. J., to spend his declining days. At police headquarters where the penniless veteran was given a bed he showed papers of service in the First New Jersey regiment at Fredericksburg, Bull Run and Gettysburg.

DETAILS OF THE MURDER
Atlanta, Ga., May 30.—Additional details of an alleged confession admitting knowledge of the murder of Mary Phagan which the police claimed to have secured from James Conley, a negro, was made public today.

Conley was an employe at the pencil factory where the girl's body was found and he had been under arrest for several weeks.

According to the police, Conley was alleged to have stated that Leon M. Frank, superintendent of the factory, sent him into the metal room of the plant on the day the girl disappeared, where the negro found her dead body.

"She was stone dead when I first saw her lying there on the floor," the negro was alleged to have said.

The police also claimed that Conley declared he and Frank carried the girl's body from the metal room to an elevator. Frank, according to the alleged statement, operated the elevator and when the basement was reached the body was carried by Conley and Frank to the place where it was found by the night watchman, New T. Lee, early the following morning.

TAKE LINER OFF ROCKS

Powerful Tugs Tow the Haverford Into Queenstown Harbor—Will Need Extensive Repairs—Carried 1,000 Passengers

Queenstown, May 30.—Several powerful tugs towed the American liner steamship Haverford into harbor this morning. They released her from her dangerous position in Rocky Bay, immediately west of Cork Head at high tide at 1 o'clock. She had been lying on the rocks since early yesterday afternoon, when with 134 cabin and 860 steerage passengers aboard, she went ashore in a dense fog.

When she was brought into port today she was down by the bows with 21 feet of water in her forehold and a considerable quantity in number 2 hold.

The vessel will be patched up as soon as workmen and material can reach here and will then go to Liverpool for thorough repair.

OLDEST VET IN AMERICA

Mexican War Hero, 103 Years of Age, and Wife, 101 Years, Enjoy Trip With Their Children and Grand Children

New York, May 30.—The oldest New York veteran of the American army paraded today with the work horses instead of with the colors.

Emmanuel Oppenheimer, 103 years old, possesses medals for distinguished service in the Mexican war, but he and his 101 year old wife are prouder of their example and service to the country through seventy-nine years of married life than through his service at arms. The Oppenheimers are believed to be the oldest couple in New York City. They rode today behind Lady Kate, a work horse in active service here for 24 years, which was driven by their 61-year-old son, Alexander Oppenheimer, an employe of a paper box factory. Two other children, 19 grand children, and nine great grand children are living contributions of their happy union.

THREATEN TO LYNCH NEGRO

Princess Anne, Md., May 30.—Two men are badly wounded, four negroes are in Princess Anne jail under strong guard, and all the lower part of Somerset county is stirred up over a threatened lynching as a result of a shooting affray which followed a raid of Sheriff Tull and his deputies on a negro camp last night to make arrests for alleged violations of the local option law.

Harry White, who went to the assistance of Sheriff Tull, is in the Salisbury hospital and physicians say that his gunshot wound may prove fatal. William Douglas, colored, who is said to have shot White is shot through both legs. The shooting followed an attempt by negroes near Rehoboth, Somerset county, to rescue the four negroes from Sheriff Tull.

FIVE NATION AUTO RACE

Thirty-Five Entrants Compete For Supremacy in the Automobile World—Former Events and Their Winners

Speedway, Indianapolis, May 30.—Five nations—United States, England, France, Germany, and Italy will battle today for supremacy in the automobile world in the third annual 500-mile race to be held here. Everything at the speedway emphasizes the international phase of the contest. Flags of all nations are flying from the grandstands and from the pits there arises a jargon of many tongues from the helpers of the foreign drivers.

Trains began early today to carry the thousands to the speedway and the roads were filled with automobiles by daylight. Hundreds of persons slept in the open just outside the speedway, in order to be on hand when the gates opened at 6 o'clock.

Inside Captain Carpenter of the Speedway guards, stationed his men just before the gates were opened, and gave them final instructions for handling the throng. Ambulances were placed about the track and everything prepared for the start at 10 o'clock sharp.

Betting grew brisker, with Burman still ruling the favorite by a slight margin over Anderson's Stutz.

Get Away With Flying Start.
Indianapolis, May 30.—Promptly at 10 o'clock the 27 cars led by Capt. J. Fisher, millionaire sportsman, began the long race around the two and a half mile track. The pounding of the motors, cheers of the thousands and waving of flags of five nations presented an inspiring scene.

The cars got away with a flying start and were going fifty miles an hour as they came down the home stretch.

Shortly after 8 o'clock the cars began taking their places at the pits and the mechanics made their last examinations before the race.

The Prizes.
The $50,000 offered by the speedway is divided into ten prizes, the winner getting $20,000; second, $10,000; third, $5,000; fourth, $3,500; fifth, $2,000; sixth, $2,200; seventh, $1,800; eighth, $1,600; ninth, $1,500 and tenth, $1,400.

Jenkins Schacht was the first car to stop at the pits. The machine blew a right rear tire. He lost a lap by the stop.

Before Jenkins started again Anderson's Stutz drew up at the pits with the same trouble.

Ralph De Palma, in a Mercer, dropped out of the race in the 15th lap on account of cylinder trouble. He was soon followed by Jenkins Schacht which broke a crank case. He went out on the 20th lap.

Harry Endicott's Nyberg went out on the back stretch in its 24th lap. It was far behind the leaders.

Haupt's Mason No. 35 left the track on the 65th lap because of a slipping clutch. Burman will get back on the track as soon as he tests his new carburetor which was put in at the pit.

Burman, in Keeton, leading for the first 100 miles, breaks all speedway records for that distance. His time was 1:15:50.55. The former record was 1:23:43.11.

Groux in the French Peugeot, was second. Twenty-three cars were still running at this distance.
